Vote Saturday on High School Bond Issue

The Editor's column

The Republican and Democratic parties of northwest Cook county will have the opportunity next year to nominate candidates for 2 senatorial positions and 3 seats in the state legislature.

Unless Dan Ryan, president of Cook county board of commissioners, succeeds in his aim to change the political complexion of the suburbs, the Republicans will elect in November the 2 state senators and 2 members of the legislative branch of the house.

Due to the redistricting, both parties will be starting from scratch.

There will be berths for 5 persons not now in the state legislature.

There is only one candidate who is at present a member of the legislature. He is W. Russell Arrington, who previously served the senatorial district comprising Evanston and part of Chicago. He has an enviable record in the senate.

We hope that a sufficient number of independent Democrats and Republicans will take more than a passive interest in the primaries, thereby insuring the election of outstanding men.

The voters have just as much right to name the candidates of the respective parties as the party chieftains.

Northwest Cook county has been well represented the past years.

There is no reason why we should not see to it that men and women of equal calibre serve us in the future.

Townships of Palatine, Barrington, Hanover and Schaumburg will have their own state senator; the townships of Wheeling, Northfield, Niles, New Trier and Evanston will also have a senator. Present Senator Arrington resides in that area.

The representative district includes the townships of Barrington, Palatine, Hanover, Schaumburg, Wheeling, Northfield, Elk Grove, Maine and Niles. The northwest townships have about one-fourth of the voting strength and upon the basis of that strength cannot be expected to name more than one state representative.

There will be room for 2 Republicans and 1 Democrat in that branch of the house. There are today rumors of several possible candidates.

As a Republican, this editor has never participated in party councils. We are not trying to shove present party chieftains aside, but for the welfare of the Republican and Democratic parties, we think it is time that both parties should have active party organizations.

President Ryan believes that a Democrat moving to the country will still vote Democratic.

We were told this week that when a Democrat becomes a home owner in the suburbs, he becomes good Republican material.

Both parties are missing a big bet if they do not revive interest of the voter in political party participation. That is the basis of good democratic government.

Palatine businessmen are going to make it easy for Rolling Meadows residents to buy in Palatine. At the suggestion of that city, they are underwriting bus service for shoppers 3 days a week during November and December.

A Rolling Meadows shopper says Arlington businessmen gave a deaf ear to a similar suggestion.

The shopper also claimed that residents of her city have more interest in Palatine than in Arlington. Those are strong words, Mrs. Shopper.

Perhaps both towns will be out in the cold when Rolling Meadows shopping center is completed.

Palatine is a glutton for punishment. It lost Rolling Meadows mail service to Arlington. Now Roselle wants to do likewise.

The new Hoffman City that is springing up in Schaumburg needs a postoffice address. It is now Palatine. Rumors have it that Roselle postoffice has petitioned the postoffice department for the annexation of that new community.

The biggest rumor this week is that the ways are being greased for a government postoffice building to be erected on the Northwest highway for Palatine.

Palatine businessmen in the old business district should not get too excited. It is only a rumor.

Did you know that Palatine school fund has now reached over $60,000 — all contributed by home builders?

That community had the nerve to demand, for school relief, a cut of $300 per home while other communities accepted the word of attorneys and subdividers that it just could not be done.

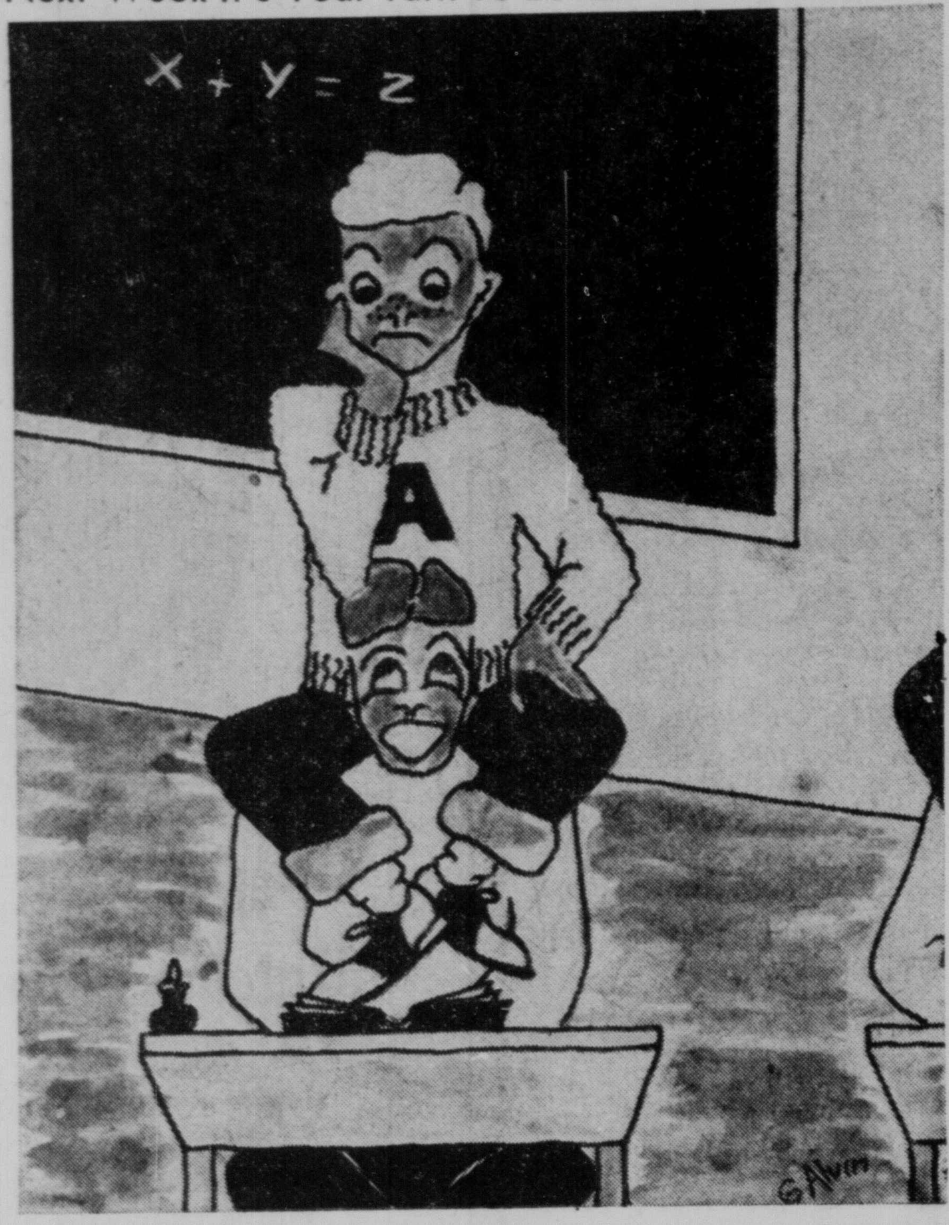
Arlington high school district will no doubt approve a 3½ million dollar bond issue Saturday. The village gave a 4 to 1 vote last Saturday on a $675,000 recreational project.

This is all evidence of community growth. Such projects would have been poo-poohed 2 years ago. Still some people argue that Arlington is not big enough for a city manager.

Next Week It's Your Turn To Be On The Bottom



Saturday, Nov. 5, will be election day for residents of Arlington Heights high school district 214 with voters slated to cast their ballots on construction of the second high school building on the Foundry road site, just west of route 83.

Foundry Rd. High School Bargain To Dist. Taxpayers

The kind of education offered high school students in future years will be determined Saturday by voters in Arlington Heights high school district.

That's when residents of Arlington Heights, Mount Prospect, Prospect Heights, Wheeling, Rolling Meadows and surrounding communities go to the polls to vote on a $3,500,000 high school to be erected on Foundry rd.

The new school, designed to accommodate 2,500 students, would increase the district's maximum high school capacity to 5,000.

At present Arlington Heights high school is serving an enrollment of 1,700 in a building which can safely hold 1,200. Although a new addition slated for completion next year will increase capacity to 2,500 students, a total enrollment of 4,000 is expected within a few years.

Although most voters agreed there was a need for expansion, 2 questions seemed uppermost in their minds this week.

1—WHY NOT SAVE money on a new building and add on to the present high school?

There is no available land. What vacant property is available must be reserved for use of physical education classes and varsity teams.

Population growth east and north in the district has made it imperative that school facilities be provided closer to the center of that area.

2—Is the Foundry rd. building economically designed or is it full of frills and fancy work which cost the taxpayers too much money?

Construction cost figures show that the district will be getting a real bargain in its new building.

THE 3-FLOOR structure will include 3 study halls, 54 classrooms, offices, library, 6 laboratories; rooms for music, homemaking, girls' physical education, arts and crafts, and industrial arts; cafeteria to serve 800 at one time; kitchen, boiler room, locker rooms, field house, and counselor's and nurses's offices.

To be constructed of brick, the building's design is ultra-modern, plain and simple exterior with no fancy work or pillars to hike cost.

Here is a comparison of school construction costs between Foundry rd. and other suburbs which erected new schools recently. Figures are square foot construction cost.

Foundry rd.	$12.48
Aurora	$19
Barrington	$14.35
New Trier	$18
Lyons	$13.70
Wheaton	$16
Bensenville	$14.50

Power Is Key To Statute, Ordinance Manager Plans

What is the difference between village manager by ordinance and by statute?

That was a question raised this week by voters of Arlington Heights who will be asked November 19 to vote on a village manager by statute.

Since July, 1954, the village has had a manager by ordinance.

But action taken by the village board to repeal the ordinance prompted citizens to petition county court to hold a referendum on the question.

WHICH IS WHICH?

Some of the 1,310 council-manager communities in the United States and Canada adopted the manager form of government by the passage of a local ordinance without a voter referendum. This is what Arlington Heights did last year.

However, in the large majority of communities the question of switching to the manager system was decided by the electorate.

In nearly all communities, the manager serves at the will of the village board or city council.

BASICALLY, council-manager government is quite similar in structure to the organization of any large corporation.

Although the exact form of government varies slightly from one community to another, all council-manager municipalities have certain things in common:

1—A short ballot with few elective officers and all of them important enough to attract full public scrutiny.

2—A small council in which is vested all the city's legislative powers.

3—A single professional chief executive in charge of all municipal affairs and responsible to the council.

THE BOARD'S position is similar to that of the board of directors of a large business, while the village manager's function is comparable to that of the general manager, who oversees the various departmental operations of the company.

Arlington Heights has been operating under the ordinance system, as have Deerfield, Glencoe, Glenview, Hinsdale, Kenilworth, La Grange, Maywood, Park Forest, Park Ridge, Riverside, Westchester, Western Springs, Wilmette and Winnetka.

This system provides for the hiring and firing of a village manager and the continuance of the manager plan all at the discretion of village trustees. Citizens have no direct control only insofar as they elect trustees.

THE VILLAGE manager under the ordinance system can only spend up to $500 without the board's approval. If put in by referendum, he could spend any amount up to the full amount of the appropriation ordinance without the board's approval.

The ordinance method provides that the chief of police, village treasurer, and fire chief must be hired and fired by board action. If under the referendum system, the village manager could do this without the board's approval.

By ordinance method, the board can repeal the village manager plan at any time. By referendum, another referendum would have to be held to abolish the village manager system.

The statute system, of course, places full control over the manager form in the hands of the electorate.

IF ARLINGTON Heights voters approve the managerial form by statute, it would take effect upon the date of the next general election at which the mayor or councilmen are elected. The village board could make it take effect immediately after adoption by ordinance.

Since the village board has already taken initial steps to repeal the manager ordinance, the village would have to wait until April, 1957, before it could hire a manager provided the voters approved the referendum.

Harlem Magicians, Olympians To Vie In Arlington Friday

The famed duo of Goose Tatum and Marques Haynes and their new Harlem Magicians cage team will appear at Arlington Heights high school gym this Friday at 8 p.m.

Sponsored by the Arlington Heights Jaycees, the Magicians are expected to have a tough evening when they face the New York Olympians. The game is open to the public. Tickets may be purchased at the door or in advance from any Jaycee member or at Lohr's drug store or Kindler's ice cream shop.

Ten Voting Precincts in High School Election Saturday

Arlington Heights high school district 214, which comprises almost all of Wheeling and Elk Grove townships, will be divided into 10 precincts for the convenience of voters in the election to be held Saturday, Nov. 5, between the hours of 12 and 7 p.m.

Precinct 1 is for residents of Wheeling and the surrounding area, and includes all of the voters living north of Hintz road, east of Wilke, and south of the county line, extending as far to the east as the division between Northfield and Wheeling townships. The polling place will be in the Wheeling school.

PRECINCTS 2, 3, 4, and 5 are for voters of the village of Arlington Heights.

Residents of precinct 2 will vote at the high school and must live north of the North Western railroad, east of Wilke and west of Dunton, and south of Hintz road.

Voters of precinct 3 will vote at North school, and should live east of Dunton, north of the railroad, south of Hintz road, west of Buffalo Grove road, and the village limit lines on the eastern part of the precinct.

Precinct 4 is for residents of southwest Arlington Heights who will vote at the Junior high school. These voters must live south of the railroad, west of Dunton, east of Wilke, and north of Golf road, with the exception of the southwest corner between Central road and Golf road, which extends west to the township line about ½ mile west of Rohlwing road.

Voters of precinct 5 will cast their ballots at Dryden school and must live south of the railroad, east of Dunton, north of Golf road, and west of Busse and its northerly extension.

VOTERS IN Prospect Heights are in precinct 6 and will vote at the grade school at the corner of Palatine and Schoenbeck roads in competition with a PTA fair being held on the same day in the same building. Voters in this precinct must live south of Hintz road, east of Buffalo Grove road or the village limits of Arlington Heights, north of Euclid and west of the township line between Northfield and Wheeling townships, which is just to the west of River road and runs through the forest preserve

Mount Prospect is divided into 2 precincts, number 7 lying north of the railroad with its polling place at Central school and boundaries lying south of Euclid, east of the village limits on the west, and north of the railroad and extending east to Mount Prospect road, Wolf road, and the township line.

Precinct 8 will vote at Lincoln school and comprises the area south of the railroad, east of Busse, north of Golf rd., west of Mount Prospect rd.

PRECINCT 9 is for the voters of Elk Grove school district, with the polling place at the Elk Grove school, and comprises the entire width of the township south of Golf rd. and north of Devon avenue with the west boundary at Rohlwing rd. and the east boundary at Mount Prospect rd.

Voters of precinct 10 will cast their ballots at Rolling Meadows grade school and should reside in the area north of Central rd., west of Wilke, east of the north and south line running through Flicker lane and south of the race track.

Voters in this election should be 21 years of age, and need only have lived in the school district for 30 days, the county 90 days, and the state 1 year.

Win 5 Awards In Contest

Paddock Publications won 5 awards in Illinois Press association contests, as announced Friday night at the annual convention of that organization in Decatur. The awards brought the local paper to within a half point of the grand award winner, the Park Forest Star, which won the Will Loomis trophy as the outstanding weekly in Illinois.

Awards given Paddock Publications included second in "best feature story," the one about Mrs. Stephan, Arlington Heights minister's wife, being named Homemaker of the Year; and 4 honorable mentions in best news photo, the action shot of Cardinals' Bill Palmer stretched out prone, flying through the air, basketball in his hand; best illustrative material, overall treatment of Little League pictures; best news story, the one about the Palatine teenagers collecting the arsenal; and general excellence.

Davis Declines Challenge

Trustee Forrest Davis Tuesday labeled a challenge to debate with Trustee Robert Bishop "a grandstand play for publicity."

He refused to accept the challenge.

"Such a debate," writes Davis in the Fence Post this week, "would certainly not attract a dozen people. A more reasonable procedure would be to invite a panel discussion with equal representation on both sides of the issue."

Bishop had asked Davis to debate with him on village manager government for Arlington Heights.

Residents will vote November 19 on a referendum to provide the village with the new form of government.

"The question of changing our form of government to managerial by statute should never be resolved on the basis of personalities," explained Davis. "If any official is undesirable, he can be voted out at the next election. The issue before us is "Shall we adopt the managerial form of government?" We can not vote it out before 1961 (4 years from the next municipal election) which is 4 years from April, 1957. That is law."

Although admitting that there was a need for streamlining the municipal operation, Davis reaffirmed his belief that "a change in our form of government will not cure any existing ills."

Professor To Give Views On Village Manager Government

Professor Hartzo will speak about village management, Monday, Nov. 7, at Arlington Heights field house, 500 E. Miner, 8:15 p.m. He is the head of political science department at Lake Forest college and has been since 1930. He has also taught at Washington and Lee university and the University of North Dakota. Professor Hartzo is a native Texan, a graduate of Washington and Lee university and did graduate work at Columbia and Chicago universities.

This meeting, sponsored by the Arlington Heights League of Women Voters; will be an impartial and objective presentation of the history of village management and how and why it has succeeded or failed in other areas. (A7

Announce Bus Service For Rolling Meadows, Palatine For Holidays

Bus service between Rolling Meadows and Palatine was assured for the next two months when the Palatine chamber of commerce agreed to guarantee a minimum revenue to the bus company of $25 per day.

The bus company makes three round trips per day between 8:30 a.m. and 3 p.m. on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

Fare is 20c for one-way ticket.

Voters Approve New Park By 4-1 Vote

Voters approved the $675,000 bond issue for the improvement of a new southwest side park in Arlington Heights last Saturday by a 4-1 majority.

Final count showed a total of 810 votes in favor of 180 against the improvement.

THE 23 ACRE PARK is bounded by Grove st. on the north, Fernandez on the east, Fairview on the south and Kennicott on the west. It will be improved with a swimming pool, the same size as the one in Recreation Park, a field house, tennis courts, 4 baseball fields and an outdoor amphitheatre.

The site was already owned by the park district and none of the appropriation will have to be used to pay for that land, but a small portion of the money will be used to purchase 2 small neighborhood parks and to improve 3 other neighborhood parks already owned by the park district.

Work on the new swimming pool will begin immediately and it is hoped it will be ready for use next summer.

Seek Approval to Build 2nd School on Foundry Road

With balloting on the proposed second Arlington Heights high school building to be held this Saturday, the board of education has called upon all voters in the district for support. The proposition, to build and finance a second high school building on Foundry rd. north of Mt. Prospect, is the second step in an overall program to meet the critical enrollment situation in the high school.

The first step, an addition to the present building was approved by the voters last February by approximately 7 to 1. Both steps in the program were endorsed by a citizens' lay advisory committee representing all parts and interests within the district.

IN URGING acceptance of the program by voting "Yes" this Saturday, the board pointed out that prevention of a recurrance of the double shift program now existing in the high school was not only important to the parents of students to be affected in coming years, but essential to the welfare of the entire community. The rapid and continuing growth of population in the 2 township areas covered by the high school district is such that any set back in the building program would make a continuance of the present educational program virtually impossible.

At the same, the size of the district and its growth in property value will help to minimize the cost of the project to the individual. The completed building, equipment and site development is to cost $3,500,000, but in the highest year, 1958, will add only $2.17 per thousand of assessed valuation of the tax bill.

In closing its information campaign, the board stated, "This is a sound program, both educationally and financially. Its approval by the voters will enable this district to meet with confidence the problems of the next few years."

Girl Scout Fund Drive Begins Monday in NW Area

"Support the Girl Scout Fund Drive" read the posters which have been placed in various locations of Arlington Heights, Mount Prospect, Palatine, Prospect Heights, Rolling Meadows and Wheeling.

The drive in these communities, which form neighborhoods in district IV of the Girl Scout Council of Northwest Cook County, will start next Monday and the goal that the volunteer workers will try to reach is $13,050.

The girl scout organization served approximately 2,000 girls in this district and includes those in the communities mentioned above plus those in the rural or other unincorporated areas. The total figure grows almost daily as population zooms in the northwest suburban area and more girls, 7 through 17 years, ask to be included in the program of girl scouting which emphasizes citizenship training, homemaking, services to others, out-of-door experiences.

Up to the end of October there had been 23 new troops formed in district IV since the beginning of the year, making a total of 125. Girl scout population in the total council area, which includes Skokie, Park Ridge and Des Plaines, has increased about 1,000 during this year so that there are now over 6,000 girls registered. One thousand eight hundred and fifty volunteers help to carry on the program in the council.

THE TOTAL council budget for next year has been figured by considering that this rapid growth in girl scouting, obvious from statistics this year, will continue in the future. Every attempt must be made to insure a well rounded girl scout program for all the girls in every level of scouting and to guarantee that there will be appropriate training to produce qualified volunteer leadership for the girls.

District IV's quota of the budget, to be raised in this November 7-13 drive, has been determined by a weighted average method which considered population of communities, girl scout population, and other fund-raising experience.

All money collected in the drive will be used by the local northwest Cook county council.

CHAIRMEN for the campaigns in the various communities are: E. G. Carlisle and G. W. Sullivan, Arlington Heights; John Hubbard, Mt. Prospect; Charles E. Zanzie, Palatine; William Leitner, Prospect Heights; Bi White, Rolling Meadows; Fred Harper, Wheeling.

North Arlington Heights captains were announced to be the following by Sullivan: Mrs. Chas. Baker, Mrs. John Corchran, Mrs. Walter Connell, Mrs. Hicks, Mrs. George Hehnen, Mrs. Leonard Radosti, Mrs. A. V. Loos, Mrs. Charles O'Dor, Mrs. William Sauer, Mrs. G. E. Staahl, Mrs. John St. Germaine, Mrs. Donald Thompson and Mrs. John Vevus.

Business solicitation will be handled by Jack Keller from the north side of Arlington Heights and Mrs. Sarah Geddes, appointed by E. G. Carlisle, from the south end of the town.

Other captains appointed by Carlisle include: Mrs. James Buck, Mrs. Orville Colianni, Mrs. Bert Hogan; Mrs. Holzum, Mrs. Koffeler, Mrs. George Lynch, Mrs. Harvey Orndorff, Mrs. Joseph Schwind, and Mrs. Kenneth W. Wagner.

In Rolling Meadows, White has announced that Mrs. Robert Bristol is co-chairman of the drive. Captains are: Mrs. Daniel Anderson, Mrs. Arthur Barber, Mrs. Gottfried Borgardt, Mrs. Irwin Broeske, Mrs. George Kitterman, Mrs. Clarence Paeglow and Mrs. A. J. Rush.

Hospital Pennies Reach $1,800; More To Come

More than $1,800 has already been counted as a result of the "Tricks or Treats and Hospital Pennies" campaign held Halloween in the towns being served by the proposed Northwest Community Hospital Center.

Banks in both Arlington Heights and Mt. Prospect said their supplies of pennies were depleted by closing time Monday and were thankful for the return of thousands of pennies Tuesday morning as the "loot" began pouring in.

Returns from many sections participating in the fund drive are still coming in so a final count will not be known for another week or two. Those still having pennies collected in this drive are urged to bring them to the office of Paddock Publications, 217 W. Campbell, Arlington Heights, as soon as possible.

A vote of thanks is due Mrs. Edward G. Bublitz, William Griffith and Mrs. Fred Dufelmeier, all of Arlington Heights, who were responsible for organizing the project, as well as the hundreds of parents and businessmen in every community who did their bit to make the project a success.

Mrs. Bublitz says, "The credit is due the kiddies. Never have I seen children look more important and beaming with priide than they did Monday and Tuesday when they brought their pennies in to be counted. They were proud they had done something to aid an important community project."

Next week's paper will carry a breakdown of the money collected in each town.

Life Time Residents Of Arlington Die

Two life-time Arlington Heights residents died this week in Elgin hospitals.

Funeral services for Fred J. Hinz, who died Sunday in Sherman hospital of a heart attack, were held Wednesday in St. Peter Evangelical Lutheran church. Services for Mrs. Clara Schimming, who died Monday, will be held today, Thursday, at 2 p.m., also at St. Peter church.

Mr. Hinz, 76, was employed by the village of Arlington Heights for a number of years. He was also a constable of Cook county and a special policeman in Arlington Heights. At the time of his death he was employed at Arlington Park race track where he has worked for many years. He lived at 740 N. Evergreen, Arlington Heights.

Mrs. Schimming, wife of George Schimming, owner of the Schimming Oil Co. and service station at 111 E. Eastman, Arlington Heights, was born in Arlington Heights and had resided in the community all her life. The former Clara Moehling, she married Mr. Schimming March 7, 1923, in St. Peter Evangelical Lutheran church and was active in the Dorcas Aid society of the church and the fancy sewing circle of the Lutheran Home and Service for the Aged.

'Grand Closing' To Aid Hospital Fund

One has often heard of grand openings but this week Robert Marsh of the Village Kooler, 818 E. Northwest hwy., Arlington Heights, is announcing a "grand closing" of the Kooler for the winter.

This Saturday 75 gallons of ice cream have got to go. Kiddies are invited to come out and fill up. No set price will be charged, but the youngsters will be asked to drop anything from a penny up into the "kitty" all of which will be turned over to the Northwest Community Hospital Center fund.

It is believed the 75 gallons will make up into more than 1,000 cones and youngsters will be served until the supply is depleted. First come, first served.

State Promises Speed Control For Rand Road

A 45-mph speed limit for Rand rd. appeared to be in the offing this week as state highway officials promised "immediate action" on Cook county's highway death trap.

In reply to queries from County Commissioner William N. Erickson, Chief Highway Engineer R. R. Bartelsmeyer said his staff was making speed observations along U.S. 12 to determine speed practices on the 4-lane pavement between Des Plaines and Lake Zurich.

"It seems likely that we will post speed limits along this section, or at least a major portion of it," declared Bartelsmeyer.

SHERIFF LOHMAN had recommended a 45-mph limit for Rand rd., and the engineer this week said the law limits his authority to establish speed limits in excess of 45 on non-access-controlled highways.

The state official, although admitting this section of U. S. 12 had "a bad accident record," said the problem was enforcing the limit.

Technically, state police would be primarily responsible for patrolling the highway. Sheriff Lohman, however, several weeks ago pledged full cooperation from his highway police in enforcing speed limits on Rand.

MEANWHILE, County Commissioner Jerry Dolezal joined the drive for safer driving on Rand. He pledged his "full support" in eliminating the safety hazard.

The critical fatality and accident rate on the speedway was brought to the attention of northwest area residents and public officials September 22 in Paddock Publications, which since has been demanding that the state act to end the high speed slaughter.

Last year 11 persons were killed and 272 injured in the 16-mile stretch of highway which has an accident rate 9 times greater than Illinois' other rural primary highways.

Average speeds on the highway are in excess of 60-mph.

Win 5 Awards In Contest

Paddock Publications won 5 awards in Illinois Press association contests, as announced Friday night at the annual convention of that organization in Decatur. The awards brought the local paper to within a half point of the grand award winner, the Park Forest Star, which won the Will Loomis trophy as the outstanding weekly in Illinois.

Awards given Paddock Publications included second in "best feature story," the one about Mrs. Stephan, Arlington Heights minister's wife, being named Homemaker of the Year; and 4 honorable mentions in best news photo, the action shot of Cardinals' Bill Palmer stretched out prone, flying through the air, basketball in his hand; best illustrative material, overall treatment of Little League pictures; best news story, the one about the Palatine teenagers collecting the arsenal; and general excellence.

Davis Declines Challenge

Trustee Forrest Davis Tuesday labeled a challenge to debate with Trustee Robert Bishop "a grandstand play for publicity."

He refused to accept the challenge.

"Such a debate," writes Davis in the Fence Post this week, "would certainly not attract a dozen people. A more reasonable procedure would be to invite a panel discussion with equal representation on both sides of the issue."

Bishop had asked Davis to debate with him on village manager government for Arlington Heights.

Residents will vote November 19 on a referendum to provide the village with the new form of government.

"The question of changing our form of government to managerial by statute should never be resolved on the basis of personalities," explained Davis. "If any official is undesirable, he can be voted out at the next election. The issue before us is "Shall we adopt the managerial form of government?" We can not vote it out before 1961 (4 years from the next municipal election) which is 4 years from April, 1957. That is law."

Although admitting that there was a need for streamlining the municipal operation, Davis reaffirmed his belief that "a change in our form of government will not cure any existing ills."

Voters Approve New Park By 4-1 Vote

Voters approved the $675,000 bond issue for the improvement of a new southwest side park in Arlington Heights last Saturday by a 4-1 majority.

Final count showed a total of 810 votes in favor of 180 against the improvement.

THE 23 ACRE PARK is bounded by Grove st. on the north, Fernandez on the east, Fairview on the south and Kennicott on the west. It will be improved with a swimming pool, the same size as the one in Recreation Park, a field house, tennis courts, 4 baseball fields and an outdoor amphitheatre.

The site was already owned by the park district and none of the appropriation will have to be used to pay for that land, but a small portion of the money will be used to purchase 2 small neighborhood parks and to improve 3 other neighborhood parks already owned by the park district.

Work on the new swimming pool will begin immediately and it is hoped it will be ready for use next summer.

Seek Approval to Build 2nd School on Foundry Road

With balloting on the proposed second Arlington Heights high school building to be held this Saturday, the board of education has called upon all voters in the district for support. The proposition, to build and finance a second high school building on Foundry rd. north of Mt. Prospect, is the second step in an overall program to meet the critical enrollment situation in the high school.

The first step, an addition to the present building was approved by the voters last February by approximately 7 to 1. Both steps in the program were endorsed by a citizens' lay advisory committee representing all parts and interests within the district.

IN URGING acceptance of the program by voting "Yes" this Saturday, the board pointed out that prevention of a recurrance of the double shift program now existing in the high school was not only important to the parents of students to be affected in coming years, but essential to the welfare of the entire community. The rapid and continuing growth of population in the 2 township areas covered by the high school district is such that any set back in the building program would make a continuance of the present educational program virtually impossible.

At the same, the size of the district and its growth in property value will help to minimize the cost of the project to the individual. The completed building, equipment and site development is to cost $3,500,000, but in the highest year, 1958, will add only $2.17 per thousand of assessed valuation of the tax bill.

In closing its information campaign, the board stated, "This is a sound program, both educationally and financially. Its approval by the voters will enable this district to meet with confidence the problems of the next few years."

Power Is Key To Statute, Ordinance Manager Plans

What is the difference between village manager by ordinance and by statute?

That was a question raised this week by voters of Arlington Heights who will be asked November 19 to vote on a village manager by statute.

Since July, 1954, the village has had a manager by ordinance.

But action taken by the village board to repeal the ordinance prompted citizens to petition county court to hold a referendum on the question.

WHICH IS WHICH?

Some of the 1,310 council-manager communities in the United States and Canada adopted the manager form of government by the passage of a local ordinance without a voter referendum. This is what Arlington Heights did last year.

However, in the large majority of communities the question of switching to the manager system was decided by the electorate.

In nearly all communities, the manager serves at the will of the village board or city council.

BASICALLY, council-manager government is quite similar in structure to the organization of any large corporation.

Although the exact form of government varies slightly from one community to another, all council-manager municipalities have certain things in common:

1—A short ballot with few elective officers and all of them important enough to attract full public scrutiny.

2—A small council in which is vested all the city's legislative powers.

3—A single professional chief executive in charge of all municipal affairs and responsible to the council.

THE BOARD'S position is similar to that of the board of directors of a large business, while the village manager's function is comparable to that of the general manager, who oversees the various departmental operations of the company.

Arlington Heights has been operating under the ordinance system, as have Deerfield, Glencoe, Glenview, Hinsdale, Kenilworth, La Grange, Maywood, Park Forest, Park Ridge, Riverside, Westchester, Western Springs, Wilmette and Winnetka.

This system provides for the hiring and firing of a village manager and the continuance of the manager plan all at the discretion of village trustees. Citizens have no direct control only insofar as they elect trustees.

THE VILLAGE manager under the ordinance system can only spend up to $500 without the board's approval. If put in by referendum, he could spend any amount up to the full amount of the appropriation ordinance without the board's approval.

The ordinance method provides that the chief of police, village treasurer, and fire chief must be hired and fired by board action. If under the referendum system, the village manager could do this without the board's approval.

By ordinance method, the board can repeal the village manager plan at any time. By referendum, another referendum would have to be held to abolish the village manager system.

The statute system, of course, places full control over the manager form in the hands of the electorate.

IF ARLINGTON Heights voters approve the managerial form by statute, it would take effect upon the date of the next general election at which the mayor or councilmen are elected. The village board could make it take effect immediately after adoption by ordinance.

Since the village board has already taken initial steps to repeal the manager ordinance, the village would have to wait until April, 1957, before it could hire a manager provided the voters approved the referendum.

Professor Hartzo is a native Texan, a graduate of Washington and Lee university and did graduate work at Columbia and Chicago universities.

Announce Bus Service For Rolling Meadows, Palatine For Holidays

Bus service between Rolling Meadows and Palatine was assured for the next two months when the Palatine chamber of commerce agreed to guarantee a minimum revenue to the bus company of $25 per day.

The bus company makes three round trips per day between 8:30 a.m. and 3 p.m. on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

Girl Scout Fund Drive Begins Monday in NW Area

"Support the Girl Scout Fund Drive" read the posters which have been placed in various locations of Arlington Heights, Mount Prospect, Palatine, Prospect Heights, Rolling Meadows and Wheeling.

The drive in these communities, which form neighborhoods in district IV of the Girl Scout Council of Northwest Cook County, will start next Monday and the goal that the volunteer workers will try to reach is $13,050.

The girl scout organization served approximately 2,000 girls in this district and includes those in the communities mentioned above plus those in the rural or other unincorporated areas. The total figure grows almost daily as population zooms in the northwest suburban area and more girls, 7 through 17 years, ask to be included in the program of girl scouting which emphasizes citizenship training, homemaking, services to others, out-of-door experiences.

Up to the end of October there had been 23 new troops formed in district IV since the beginning of the year, making a total of 125. Girl scout population in the total council area, which includes Skokie, Park Ridge and Des Plaines, has increased about 1,000 during this year so that there are now over 6,000 girls registered. One thousand eight hundred and fifty volunteers help to carry on the program in the council.

THE TOTAL council budget for next year has been figured by considering that this rapid growth in girl scouting, obvious from statistics this year, will continue in the future. Every attempt must be made to insure a well rounded girl scout program for all the girls in every level of scouting and to guarantee that there will be appropriate training to produce qualified volunteer leadership for the girls.

District IV's quota of the budget, to be raised in this November 7-13 drive, has been determined by a weighted average method which considered population of communities, girl scout population, and other fund-raising experience.

All money collected in the drive will be used by the local northwest Cook county council.

Hospital Pennies Reach $1,800; More To Come

More than $1,800 has already been counted as a result of the "Tricks or Treats and Hospital Pennies" campaign held Halloween in the towns being served by the proposed Northwest Community Hospital Center.

Banks in both Arlington Heights and Mt. Prospect said their supplies of pennies were depleted by closing time Monday and were thankful for the return of thousands of pennies Tuesday morning as the "loot" began pouring in.

Returns from many sections participating in the fund drive are still coming in so a final count will not be known for another week or two. Those still having pennies collected in this drive are urged to bring them to the office of Paddock Publications, 217 W. Campbell, Arlington Heights, as soon as possible.

A vote of thanks is due Mrs. Edward G. Bublitz, William Griffith and Mrs. Fred Dufelmeier, all of Arlington Heights, who were responsible for organizing the project, as well as the hundreds of parents and businessmen in every community who did their bit to make the project a success.

Mrs. Bublitz says, "The credit is due the kiddies. Never have I seen children look more important and beaming with priide than they did Monday and Tuesday when they brought their pennies in to be counted. They were proud they had done something to aid an important community project."

Next week's paper will carry a breakdown of the money collected in each town.

Life Time Residents Of Arlington Die

Two life-time Arlington Heights residents died this week in Elgin hospitals.

Funeral services for Fred J. Hinz, who died Sunday in Sherman hospital of a heart attack, were held Wednesday in St. Peter Evangelical Lutheran church. Services for Mrs. Clara Schimming, who died Monday, will be held today, Thursday, at 2 p.m., also at St. Peter church.

Mr. Hinz, 76, was employed by the village of Arlington Heights for a number of years. He was also a constable of Cook county and a special policeman in Arlington Heights. At the time of his death he was employed at Arlington Park race track where he has worked for many years. He lived at 740 N. Evergreen, Arlington Heights.

Mrs. Schimming, wife of George Schimming, owner of the Schimming Oil Co. and service station at 111 E. Eastman, Arlington Heights, was born in Arlington Heights and had resided in the community all her life. The former Clara Moehling, she married Mr. Schimming March 7, 1923, in St. Peter Evangelical Lutheran church and was active in the Dorcas Aid society of the church and the fancy sewing circle of the Lutheran Home and Service for the Aged.

'Grand Closing' To Aid Hospital Fund

One has often heard of grand openings but this week Robert Marsh of the Village Kooler, 818 E. Northwest hwy., Arlington Heights, is announcing a "grand closing" of the Kooler for the winter.

This Saturday 75 gallons of ice cream have got to go. Kiddies are invited to come out and fill up. No set price will be charged, but the youngsters will be asked to drop anything from a penny up into the "kitty" all of which will be turned over to the Northwest Community Hospital Center fund.

It is believed the 75 gallons will make up into more than 1,000 cones and youngsters will be served until the supply is depleted. First come, first served.

State Promises Speed Control For Rand Road

A 45-mph speed limit for Rand rd. appeared to be in the offing this week as state highway officials promised "immediate action" on Cook county's highway death trap.

In reply to queries from County Commissioner William N. Erickson, Chief Highway Engineer R. R. Bartelsmeyer said his staff was making speed observations along U.S. 12 to determine speed practices on the 4-lane pavement between Des Plaines and Lake Zurich.

"It seems likely that we will post speed limits along this section, or at least a major portion of it," declared Bartelsmeyer.

SHERIFF LOHMAN had recommended a 45-mph limit for Rand rd., and the engineer this week said the law limits his authority to establish speed limits in excess of 45 on non-access-controlled highways.

The state official, although admitting this section of U. S. 12 had "a bad accident record," said the problem was enforcing the limit.

Technically, state police would be primarily responsible for patrolling the highway. Sheriff Lohman, however, several weeks ago pledged full cooperation from his highway police in enforcing speed limits on Rand.

MEANWHILE, County Commissioner Jerry Dolezal joined the drive for safer driving on Rand. He pledged his "full support" in eliminating the safety hazard.

The critical fatality and accident rate on the speedway was brought to the attention of northwest area residents and public officials September 22 in Paddock Publications, which since has been demanding that the state act to end the high speed slaughter.

Last year 11 persons were killed and 272 injured in the 16-mile stretch of highway which has an accident rate 9 times greater than Illinois' other rural primary highways.

Average speeds on the highway are in excess of 60-mph.

Den 6 Cub Scouts Earn $28 For Hospital Fund

An afternoon of entertainment and refreshments was presented Sunday by the cub scouts of den 6, pack 37, Arlington Heights, assisted by their little brothers and sisters for the benefit of the hospital fund. They earned $28.

A cast of 17 children presented "The Yellow Rose of Texas," and "Davy Crockett' in song and story. Each of the nine cub scouts did a single variety act followed by a 3 act play, "Robin Hood."

The boys printed their own tickets and wrote and distributed the flyers for their publicity. Under the direction of Bruce Jackson, they made scenery for a forest.

The show was presented in the recreation room of the Edward S. Jackson home at 645 S. Belmont ave., where the members of den 6 have their regular weekly meetings.

Cub scouts participating in the show were Gerald Blum, Herbert Freeman, Bruce Jackson, Tom Greenacre, Donald Kiehl, Donald Kirchoff, Frank Pratte, Paul Michaels Jr. and Lyle Moehling.

Assisting them were Allen and Marshall Blum, Larry and Gordon Moehling, James Meyer, Ridgely Jackson, Vicky Lilleberg, Katherine Pratte, Richard Kirchoff, Judith Michaels, Melanie Reckerdt, Fred Gieseke III and Judy Freuhling.

Prizes were awarded to guests wearing the most entertaining costumes. They were Jimmy Meyer, Arnita Bower, Jimmy Rateike, and Kent Wendorf. Door prizes were also given to 16 members of the audience. The cub scouts sold popcorn and brownies.

Parents of the cub scouts bore the expenses of the production so that all of the proceeds might be turned over to the hospital fund.

Approve Bid For New Fire Truck

Village dads approved the bid of the American La France company for a new 1,000 gallon per minute pumper at the Arlington Heights village board meeting Tuesday night.

The engine costs $21,475 and has a 5 man enclosed cab. Delivery is expected to take 5 months.

FIRST READING of the revised waste collection ordinance was held and the ordinance is expected to be passed at the next regular meeting of the board. The ordinance provides for municipal garbage collection to serve all homes at set fees.

The board gave a letter to John Minneci that stated if the developer complied with all the requirements of the village it would have no objection to the annexation of the property. The land in question contains 40 acres and is bounded by Olive, Douglas, Thomas and Dryden sts., adjacent and north of the Arlington Greens subdivision. The letter pointed out that the land must not overtax the village's water and sewer facilities due to inadequate drainage or the board would not be interested in annexing it.

Trustee Frederick Weber voted no o nsending the letter to Minneci and Trustee James Millay passed his vote. They both felt such a letter unnecessary, because, if the developer complied with all requirements, annexation premission would be granted as a matter of course.

If Minneci developes the property he plans to build 130 homes in the $18,000 to $20,000 bracket.

URICK BROTHERS tree trimmers will be employed by the village to trim deadwood and branches out of trees on village property.

Two new members were appointed as volunteer firemen. They are John C. Schelle and Walter Hahnfeld.

A refund of $125 for a building permit was granted to the Catholic Bishop of Chicago in connection with the building of the Our Lady of the Wayside Catholic convent.

The board authorized village manager, F. Robert Buechner, to advertise for bids on 2 new trucks and snow plows needed by the village.

Here it is for '56 –
Best Buick yet

When better automobiles are built Buick will build them

It comes upon the heels of the most successful Buick in history—and beats it on every score.

In shimmering steel and solid sinew, it's Buick for 1956—and there's never been anything like it for pure automobile.

You get a good hint of what we mean when you take in its sweep-ahead styling—from the air-splitting prow of its V-front grille to the robust rake of its canted rear profile.

You get an even better hint when you open the doors and see the dazzle there.

But it's when you put this beauty to the city streets and the open highways that you learn the best of it.

For here is performance without parallel. A new advance in Variable Pitch Dynaflow* goes airplanes one better—steps up your getaway in normal driving without switching the pitch. But when you do need that extra surge, it's there instantly—and in extra abundance.

The might of big 322-cubic-inch V8 engines in every Series brings new record high power to all Buicks—Roadmaster, Super, Century, and the bedrock-priced Special. And to handle such dynamic driving power, the whole rear end has been endowed with extra brawn and heft and solidity.

We could spread before you an acre of blueprints on the engineering gems that spark the spectacular performance and ride and handling and roadability of these great Buicks for 1956.

But you can get the full and magnificent story right now, at our showroom, in a face-to-face meeting with the best Buick yet—now on display, and setting a dazzling new pattern for 1956.

Den 6 Cub Scouts Earn $28 For Hospital Fund

An afternoon of entertainment and refreshments was presented Sunday by the cub scouts of den 6, pack 37, Arlington Heights, assisted by their little brothers and sisters for the benefit of the hospital fund. They earned $28.

A cast of 17 children presented "The Yellow Rose of Texas," and "Davy Crockett' in song and story. Each of the nine cub scouts did a single variety act followed by a 3 act play, "Robin Hood."

The boys printed their own tickets and wrote and distributed the flyers for their publicity. Under the direction of Bruce Jackson, they made scenery for a forest.

The show was presented in the recreation room of the Edward S. Jackson home at 645 S. Belmont ave., where the members of den 6 have their regular weekly meetings.

Cub scouts participating in the show were Gerald Blum, Herbert Freeman, Bruce Jackson, Tom Greenacre, Donald Kiehl, Donald Kirchoff, Frank Pratte, Paul Michaels Jr. and Lyle Moehling.

Assisting them were Allen and Marshall Blum, Larry and Gordon Moehling, James Meyer, Ridgely Jackson, Vicky Lilleberg, Katherine Pratte, Richard Kirchoff, Judith Michaels, Melanie Reckerdt, Fred Gieseke III and Judy Freuhling.

Prizes were awarded to guests wearing the most entertaining costumes. They were Jimmy Meyer, Arnita Bower, Jimmy Rateike, and Kent Wendorf. Door prizes were also given to 16 members of the audience. The cub scouts sold popcorn and brownies.

Parents of the cub scouts bore the expenses of the production so that all of the proceeds might be turned over to the hospital fund.

Mrs. Edward S. Jackson, the den mother was assisted by Mrs. Herbert Freeman in planning the show.

Approve Bid For New Fire Truck

Village dads approved the bid of the American La France company for a new 1,000 gallon per minute pumper at the Arlington Heights village board meeting Tuesday night.

The engine costs $21,475 and has a 5 man enclosed cab. Delivery is expected to take 5 months.

FIRST READING of the revised waste collection ordinance was held and the ordinance is expected to be passed at the next regular meeting of the board. The ordinance provides for municipal garbage collection to serve all homes at set fees.

The board gave a letter to John Minneci that stated if the developer complied with all the requirements of the village it would have no objection to the annexation of the property. The land in question contains 40 acres and is bounded by Olive, Douglas, Thomas and Dryden sts., adjacent and north of the Arlington Greens subdivision. The letter pointed out that the land must not overtax the village's water and sewer facilities due to inadequate drainage or the board would not be interested in annexing it.

Trustee Frederick Weber voted no o nsending the letter to Minneci and Trustee James Millay passed his vote. They both felt such a letter unnecessary, because, if the developer complied with all requirements, annexation premission would be granted as a matter of course.

If Minneci developes the property he plans to build 130 homes in the $18,000 to $20,000 bracket.

URICK BROTHERS tree trimmers will be employed by the village to trim deadwood and branches out of trees on village property.

Two new members were appointed as volunteer firemen. They are John C. Schelle and Walter Hahnfeld.

A refund of $125 for a building permit was granted to the Catholic Bishop of Chicago in connection with the building of the Our Lady of the Wayside Catholic convent.

The board authorized village manager, F. Robert Buechner, to advertise for bids on 2 new trucks and snow plows needed by the village.

Both students and teachers have spent many hours rehearsing for the concert, and the audience can be assured of a lively and fast moving evening of music.

Best Buick yet

When better automobiles are built Buick will build them

It comes upon the heels of the most successful Buick in history—and beats it on every score.

In shimmering steel and solid sinew, it's Buick for 1956—and there's never been anything like it for pure automobile.

You get a good hint of what we mean when you take in its sweep-ahead styling—from the air-splitting prow of its V-front grille to the robust rake of its canted rear profile.

You get an even better hint when you open the doors and see the dazzle there.

But it's when you put this beauty to the city streets and the open highways that you learn the best of it.

For here is performance without parallel. A new advance in Variable Pitch Dynaflow* goes airplanes one better—steps up your getaway in normal driving without switching the pitch. But when you do need that extra surge, it's there instantly—and in extra abundance.

The might of big 322-cubic-inch V8 engines in every Series brings new record high power to all Buicks—Roadmaster, Super, Century, and the bedrock-priced Special. And to handle such dynamic driving power, the whole rear end has been endowed with extra brawn and heft and solidity.

We could spread before you an acre of blueprints on the engineering gems that spark the spectacular performance and ride and handling and roadability of these great Buicks for 1956.

But you can get the full and magnificent story right now, at our showroom, in a face-to-face meeting with the best Buick yet—now on display, and setting a dazzling new pattern for 1956.

Higher Rate On Dividends At Arlington Federal

A 20 per cent increase in rate of dividends on savings was announced this week by Arlington Heights Federal Savings and Loan Association.

The increase from a 2½ per cent to 3 per cent dividend was decided by the Association's board of directors on the basis of continued steady growth in total assets and profits from sound loans.

"This means that all savings accounts will earn a dividend rate of 3 per cent per annum for the last six months of 1954 on savings on hand as of December 31." explained Paul E. Collins, executive vice president.

"ANY ADDITIONS to accounts will also earn the new increased rate," he said. "For example, new accounts opened or old accounts added to by November 10 will receive two full months' dividends at 3 per cent per annum on these savings if they are on deposit on December 31."

This is in keeping with Arlington Heights Federal's policy, Collins noted, of allotting a full month's dividends for savings deposited by the tenth day of the month.

The extraordinary growth of the Association and increasing profits from conservative loans are reasons for the 3 per cent dividend, Charles H. Wilson, president, announced this week.

"Our total assets almost doubled in 1954 — from $1,110,000 to $2,150,000, representing a 93.7 per cent increase. If this year's trend continues through the two remaining months, total assets for 1955 will almost double those of 1954, probably exceeding $4,000,000."

THIS RATE of increase makes Arlington Heights Federal one of the fastest growing savings and loan institutions in Illinois — if not actually the leader, Wilson pointed out.

He referred to a statement last month by Ray C. Frautschy of DeKalb, president of the Illinois Savings and Loan League, that 574 Illinois savings and loan institutions, enjoying their greatest growth since World War II, had added half a billion dollars to their total resources during the past twelve months, an increase of 20 per cent over the previous year.

"Arlington Heights Federal's rate of growth is almost five times the Illinois average," Wilson said.

To accommodate its growing number of savers, the association recently expanded its facilities so that it now occupies the entire first floor of the 11 N. State road building.

An Important Announcement to Our Neighbors about a Thriving Institution

The Board of Directors of Arlington Heights Federal Savings and Loan Association is happy to announce a 20% increase in rate of dividends—from 2½% to 3% per annum—on all savings accounts. This new rate will apply to savings for the last six months of 1955 as well as to new accounts. Such a significant step reflects the steady growth that has characterized the Association since its founding and the sound policies that have governed its officers in the years we have served the Northwest communities. It is a tribute, also, to the fine American instincts for thrift and home ownership prompting so many savers and borrowers to use our facilities.

We are proud of the people we serve and happy that their thrift and industry have made possible this increased dividend on their savings. They are responsible for Arlington Heights Federal's gratifying rate of growth in total assets—almost five times the average of Illinois savings and loan associations, making ours, in all probability, the fastest growing savings and loan institution in Illinois.

We invite all our neighbors to enjoy the special advantages of a savings account at Arlington Heights Federal. Here your money will be safe (insured up to $10,000), convenient, readily available, and earning our new liberal 3% dividend.

Student Teachers Begin Practice At High School November 7

Arlington Heights high school has been selected as a student training center by the University of Illinois college of education for the current semester.

Student teachers who will be at the local school full-time for 6 weeks beginning Nov. 7 and the areas in which they will teach are: Robert Ayer, 8018 Dante ave., and Kenneth Bugan, 5930 S. Honore st., Chicago; Patricia Folton, 4207 N. Drake ave., Chicago, and Nancy Gratigny, 1311 Henry ave., Des Plaines.

Cooperating teachers under whom the students will work are: Hazel Faulkner; Sarah J. Mahin; Edward Fischer.

The student teaching program is part of the University's "professional semester" required of all prospective teachers. During the first 6 weeks of the semester they study educational theory and techniques on the Urbana-Champaign campus. The 6 weeks following, they go to selected schools to practice these techniques. At the end of the semester they return to the campus for 4 weeks to review and evaluate what they have learned.

80 Schools To Be Represented At College Night

Approximately 80 schools, including several vocational and nursing schools, have indicated that they will send representatives to the Arlington Heights high school annual college night program tonight, Thursday.

These representatives will be stationed at tables in the boys' gym and cafeteria from 7 to 9 p.m. prepared to answer any and all questions about their schools.

The student council, sponsors of the program, and the faculty have urged parents of juniors and seniors at the high school to accompany their sons and daughters to the program to get information for planning further study.

MORE THAN 50 Midwestern colleges and universities are included in the program as well as several eastern schools and a few from the south and southwest.

Seven nearby schools of nursing will send representatives.

For several years students of Arlington Heights high school have found this annual program helpful in selecting schools and colleges which provide the programs and facilities they desire. For juniors it also provides an opportunity to check their high school program against the entrance requirements of specific schools.

Attend Conference On Tree Disease

Two area residents will attend the annual state-wide conference on Dutch elm disease. Sponsored by the Illinois chamber of commerce, the meeting is November 10 at the Sheraton-Blackstone hotel in Chicago.

Parents of those children recently received a request for permission to give the second dose, and Mrs. Thelma Carroll, public and school health nurse, is preparing schedules for administering the vaccine.

The exact dates on which the dose will be given is not known at this time. However, parents will be notified well in advance.

No information has been received as yet as to whether or not the vaccine will be available to additional age groups.

1200 View High School Minstrel Show

More than 1200 spectators enjoyed the eighth annual Arlington Heights high school music department minstrel show, "Plantation Echoes," as it was presented Saturday night.

Presiding over the Circle Men was Skip Rogers, who reigned as Mr. Interlocutor. The large gym stage was all but filled by the Circle Men including boys from freshman boys' chorus, mixed chorus, and choir. The Circle Men, who are all too apt to be overlooked in the face of the boisterous End Men, did very nicely in carrying their end of the show. The unity of their voices and the lively, rhythmic movements of the "cotton pickers," as they were called by the Interlocutor, often made for the most pleasing components of the show. The End Men played their key part in the show with enthusiasm and imagination.

THE CHORALIERS, a music group new to Arlington Heights this year, turned up as the surprise hit of the show. Their renditions of "Liza" and "My Bonnie" were tricky, lively, and full of showmanship. As this group gains experience it should provide much pleasure for local audiences with its delightful mixture of boys and girls voices.

The evening was loaded with specialty acts, and outstanding among them were Jack Ebert's crooning of "That Old Black Magic," "Ole Man River," sung with feeling and excellent voice by Skip Rogers, "Birth of the Blues" by the Harmonettes, and "Shortnin' Bread" by Gene Freeman.

For a special flavor before the show, during intermission, and often as accompaniment, there were the Dixieland Melodies of a combo made up of the Bob Lanz and Al Ragland musicians. Their music, too, had showmanship, as did their colorful costumes.

The organ accompaniment by instructor Robert Wolff added greatly to the show.

All teachers in the music department took part in producing the show, as did almost every student in the department. June Leick, director of the show, instructors Wolff, Martin Dahlberg, and Frederick Schmoyer, and student chairmen Jean Rose and Doris Peterson were among the key personnel who were not on the stage.

Public Notice

Notice of Proposed Changes in Schedules

COMMONWEALTH EDISON COMPANY (Public Service Company Division) hereby gives notice to the public that it has filed with the Illinois Commerce Commission on October 24, 1955, certain proposed changes in its Schedules E-3, E-2, and Section No. 1, Ill. C. C. No. 4 relative to its Fuel Adjustment Rider. These changes will have no effect on any customer's billing.

In June, 1955, the fuel adjustment per kilowatt hour was reduced and energy charges were increased an equal amount for all customers other than those served under special contracts. Consents having been obtained from the special contract customers to an increase in energy charges equal to the reduction in the fuel adjustment previously made for all other customers, such reduction is now being made applicable to them.

In addition, minor changes in wording are proposed to clarify the accounting for taxes directly allocable to the cost of fuel and the method of rounding fractions of .01 cents in applying the fuel adjustment to billings.

Further information with respect to these changes may be obtained either directly from this Company or by addressing the Secretary of the Illinois Commerce Commission in Springfield, Illinois.

A copy of the proposed changes may be inspected by any interested party in any public office of this Company.

Pianist Announces Program

Willard Straight, brilliant young pianist who will share a concert stage November 27 to benefit the Northwest Community Hospital center, this week announced his program for the charity event.

The artist, hailed as "bold and imaginative" by the Chicago Tribune will open his selections with Beethoven's famous Sonata "Appassionata." Included in the program is Chopin's Mazurka in F sharp minor, Debussy's Hommage a Rameau, Chopin's Nocturne in F sharp major, and Ravel's dramatic Alborada del gracioso.

A PUBLISHED composer as well as concert artist, Straight will play his own gay Meters for Three.

Within the past year, Straight has been soloist with the Chicago symphony, Grant Park symphony, Kansas City symphony, and played his own concert in Orchestra hall.

Appearing with him on the benefit program is Barbara Leichsenring, talented young dramatic soprano.

TICKETS FOR the concert at 8 p.m. in Maine Township high school auditorium are now available for $1 from Prospect Heights Womans club, Junior Nurses of Mt. Prospect, and Senior Tuxis of First Presbyterian church, Arlington Heights.

Tickets are also available at Nelson's Flower and Gift shop, Palatine, and Paddock Publications, Arlington Heights.

All proceeds are turned over to the hospital fund.

Local Residents Play In Northwest Symphony

Four residents of northwest side suburban communities are members of the Northwest Symphony orchestra. J. Willard Hain, 209 Euclid ave., Mt. Prospect, is a member of the viola section. Mr. Hain, whose regular occupation is teaching music, had 8 years of experience as a musician in the navy. F. C. Chunn, violinist, lives at 832 S. Vail, Arlington Heights. Mr. Chunn is an employee of the Illinois Bell Telephone Co. Erwin Brunn, who lives on S. Meacham rd. in Palatine, has had over 30 years of musical experience as church organist, piano teacher and tuner, and presently is director of the Lyric School of Music in Des Plaines; Mr. Brunn plays cello in the symphony. Miss Frances Baker of 549 Division st., Barrington, plays oboe both with the Northwest symphony and the Barrington symphony. She is a Latin teacher in Barrington high school. Tickets for the orchestra's 3 concerts this season may be purchased from any of these people. The first concert is November 29, 8:15 p.m. at Maine township high school auditorium.

The total playing membership of the orchestra this year is 61. Other playing members live in Park Ridge, Des Plaines, Skokie, Glenview and Evanston.

Outstanding feature of the Northwest Symphony orchestra is that it is completely a local community enterprise. Members of the board of directors of the symphony are all residents of northwest side communities and suburbs, as is also the musical director, Perry Crafton of Edison Park, first violinist with the Chicago Symphony orchestra.

All of these people carry on this community activity in addition to their regular work, as an avocation and hobby. Playing members gather each Tuesday evening at Maine township high school for rehearsals. The board of directors meets the second Saturday evening of each month at the homes of the various board members.

1200 View High School Minstrel Show

More than 1200 spectators enjoyed the eighth annual Arlington Heights high school music department minstrel show, "Plantation Echoes," as it was presented Saturday night.

Presiding over the Circle Men was Skip Rogers, who reigned as Mr. Interlocutor. The large gym stage was all but filled by the Circle Men including boys from freshman boys' chorus, mixed chorus, and choir. The Circle Men, who are all too apt to be overlooked in the face of the boisterous End Men, did very nicely in carrying their end of the show. The unity of their voices and the lively, rhythmic movements of the "cotton pickers," as they were called by the Interlocutor, often made for the most pleasing components of the show. The End Men played their key part in the show with enthusiasm and imagination.

THE CHORALIERS, a music group new to Arlington Heights this year, turned up as the surprise hit of the show. Their renditions of "Liza" and "My Bonnie" were tricky, lively, and full of showmanship. As this group gains experience it should provide much pleasure for local audiences with its delightful mixture of boys and girls voices.

The evening was loaded with specialty acts, and outstanding among them were Jack Ebert's crooning of "That Old Black Magic," "Ole Man River," sung with feeling and excellent voice by Skip Rogers, "Birth of the Blues" by the Harmonettes, and "Shortnin' Bread" by Gene Freeman.

For a special flavor before the show, during intermission, and often as accompaniment, there were the Dixieland Melodies of a combo made up of the Bob Lanz and Al Ragland musicians. Their music, too, had showmanship, as did their colorful costumes.

The organ accompaniment by instructor Robert Wolff added greatly to the show.

All teachers in the music department took part in producing the show, as did almost every student in the department. June Leick, director of the show, instructors Wolff, Martin Dahlberg, and Frederick Schmoyer, and student chairmen Jean Rose and Doris Peterson were among the key personnel who were not on the stage.

Public Notice

Notice of Proposed Changes in Schedules

COMMONWEALTH EDISON COMPANY (Public Service Company Division) hereby gives notice to the public that it has filed with the Illinois Commerce Commission on October 24, 1955, certain proposed changes in its Schedules E-3, E-2, and Section No. 1, Ill. C. C. No. 4 relative to its Fuel Adjustment Rider. These changes will have no effect on any customer's billing.

In June, 1955, the fuel adjustment per kilowatt hour was reduced and energy charges were increased an equal amount for all customers other than those served under special contracts. Consents having been obtained from the special contract customers to an increase in energy charges equal to the reduction in the fuel adjustment previously made for all other customers, such reduction is now being made applicable to them.

In addition, minor changes in wording are proposed to clarify the accounting for taxes directly allocable to the cost of fuel and the method of rounding fractions of .01 cents in applying the fuel adjustment to billings.

Further information with respect to these changes may be obtained either directly from this Company or by addressing the Secretary of the Illinois Commerce Commission in Springfield, Illinois.

A copy of the proposed changes may be inspected by any interested party in any public office of this Company.

Local Residents Play In Northwest Symphony

Four residents of northwest side suburban communities are members of the Northwest Symphony orchestra. J. Willard Hain, 209 Euclid ave., Mt. Prospect, is a member of the viola section. Mr. Hain, whose regular occupation is teaching music, had 8 years of experience as a musician in the navy. F. C. Chunn, violinist, lives at 832 S. Vail, Arlington Heights. Mr. Chunn is an employee of the Illinois Bell Telephone Co. Erwin Brunn, who lives on S. Meacham rd. in Palatine, has had over 30 years of musical experience as church organist, piano teacher and tuner, and presently is director of the Lyric School of Music in Des Plaines; Mr. Brunn plays cello in the symphony. Miss Frances Baker of 549 Division st., Barrington, plays oboe both with the Northwest symphony and the Barrington symphony. She is a Latin teacher in Barrington high school. Tickets for the orchestra's 3 concerts this season may be purchased from any of these people. The first concert is November 29, 8:15 p.m. at Maine township high school auditorium.

The total playing membership of the orchestra this year is 61. Other playing members live in Park Ridge, Des Plaines, Skokie, Glenview and Evanston.

Outstanding feature of the Northwest Symphony orchestra is that it is completely a local community enterprise. Members of the board of directors of the symphony are all residents of northwest side communities and suburbs, as is also the musical director, Perry Crafton of Edison Park, first violinist with the Chicago Symphony orchestra.

All of these people carry on this community activity in addition to their regular work, as an avocation and hobby. Playing members gather each Tuesday evening at Maine township high school for rehearsals. The board of directors meets the second Saturday evening of each month at the homes of the various board members.

'Heart Of Europe' Travel Tcpic Nov. 8

Members of the Travel and Adventure lecture series at Arlington Heights high school will hear Edward Hart Tuesday, Nov. 8, at 8 p.m. when he narrates the color pictures "The Heart of Europe," the last film made by the popular Ray Eggersted before his death.

The skill of Mr. Eggersted's selection of subject matter into which he move humor, drama, art, adventure and education won for his films the universal enthusiasm of educational institutions, museums, churches, lecture series and clubs. Through the reproductions of nature's vast wonderland of forests, parks, mountains, rivers and lakes, and the adventures and living experiences of people in their occupations, skills and crafts, their gayety, laughter and song he brought to the lecture-movie platform his artistic achievements without parallel in the entertainment and education field.

Mr. Hart's experiences as a lecturer and guide in the field of travel and scouting and his hobbies of skiing, mountain climbing, sailing and photography give him the background to present the delightful experiences in travelogue presentation.

The film journey of "Heart of Europe" includes visits to Innsbruck, Salzburg, Vienna, Milan, Venice, Rome, the Bay of Naples, Isle of Capri, Paris and the French Riviera, Zurich, Geneva, Interlaken, Lugano, Lake Luzerne and the glorious and magnificent scenic grandeur of the Austrian, Italian, French and Swiss Alps. The customs and costumes of the people, their festivals and musicals, are shown from skiing in the Alps to regattas on the blue waters of the Mediterranean Sea. The scenes are perfectly synchronized to the music of the masters.

Favorites For Flavor

Versatility is the keynote of Mrs. Grover D. Jungbluth's cookery, and her extensive recipe repertoire includes Italian, Chinese, German and many other types of cooking.

Experimenting with new recipes and baking is her hobby, and she loves it. A current addition to Mrs. Jungbluth's collection is "The Italian Cook Book," which she highly recommends for excellent recipes and fascinating reading.

It is from this book that she has chosen a recipe which she and her family thoroughly enjoy. It is an Italian method for preparing fillet of beef, an "all in one" dish which combines tender beef fillets and tasty eggplant with a savory tomato sauce.

This dish can be made quickly, is different and delicious. All you need to accompany it is a tossed salad and a green vegetable, if desired.

To top off this dinner Mrs. Jungbluth suggests serving an ice cream sundae, perhaps using an apricot topping or any other of your choice, and little German cookies called Berlinerkranzer.

These crispy cookies are unusual, but easy to prepare. Brushed with egg white and sprinkled with sugar before baking, they are attractive in appearance and appealing to taste.

The Jungbluths live at 308 E. Circle, Prospect Heights. They have 3 daughters: Karen, 13, Kathy, 8, and Eileen, 5.

This good cook is active in many community activities. She is a member of the Women's Guild of the Prospect Heights Community church, the parents' committee of the Prospect Heights kindergarten, the girl scout organization and is a troop mother for the brownies.

1 large egg, beaten
½ cup flour
About 1½ cups olive oil
1 clove garlic
4 Italian tomatoes, fresh or canned
3 tablespoons parsley, chopped
Salt and pepper to taste

Dip eggplant slices in flour and egg. Fry in olive oil until golden. Remove and place in warm casserole or serving dish.

Saute garlic in 4 tablespoons oil. Remove garlic. Add tomatoes and cook over medium flame about 10 minutes. Season with salt and pepper.

Sprinkle fillets with salt and pepper and broil about 1 inch from flame 2 minutes on each side. They will be rare.

Place fillet on each slice of eggplant in serving dish. Cover with sauce and sprinkle parsley on top. Serves 6.

Berlinerkranzer

½ cup sugar
2 hard-cooked egg yolks
2 egg yolks, unbeaten
3½ cups flour, sifted
1 cup softened butter

Work sugar into hard-cooked egg yolks until mixture is a paste. Gradually blend in raw egg yolks. Then add flour and butter alternately and kneed into a soft dough.

Bake for about 10 minutes in 400 degree oven.

October 22 Kathleen George, daughter of Marie and Paul George became a teenager when she celebrated her 13th birthday. Kathleen used a Halloween theme for her party and requested that all guests come in costume. Those who obliged were Ronnie Barnes, Bill Evans, and John Parkin of the Greens and 15 of Kathleen's schoolmates who live in other sections of Arlington Heights. Sandwiches and cupcakes and cokes satisfied their hungry urge between games and dancing in the basement which was decorated for the occassion.

The Olive st. birthday club met last Thursday to celebrate Jill Kaye's birthday. Those present when your reporter entertained for Jill were Martha Lees, Gloria Gildemeister, Alice Nelson, and Betty Johnson. Members of the birthday club who were unable to attend were Mary Sherden, Terry Lynch, and Kay Boehm.

Visitors

Those in attendance were dressed in blue jeans or casual clothes to participate in the merrymaking. Bill Griffith won the prize as the best "sitter-downer" in musical chairs. Four lovelies, Ray Herr, Jake Herr, Ed Klicker, and Ralph Elwart were the ones whose names were drawn to be properly made up as contestants in the "ladies" beauty contest. The contestants paraded to a musical background for the judging and unanimous applause proclaimed Ray Herr the winner. Refreshments were cider, doughnuts and coffee. The pumpkin and corn shock decorations were won by Jessie Quill and 3 Hickory ave. residents took away the extra doughnuts during the raffle at the party's close.

Guests at the Maurice Umbdenstock home, 801 N. Hickory, October 29 were Mr. and Mrs. Amos Nicholsen and sons of Aurora and October 30 Mr. and Mrs. William Helt of Wheaton.

Mrs. Robert Carter, 1002 N. Beverly, entered Passavant hospital October 30 for a 10-day stay.

Election And Meeting

The election meeting for the board of directors in Virginia Terrace Improvement association will be held next Monday at 8:30 p.m. at the VFW hall. The secret ballot which the members received through the mail can be brought to the meeting or delivered, prior to the meeting, to Mrs. Kenneth Williams, 1215 North Race st. The meeting will begin promptly and ballots, to be counted, must be cast before 9 p.m. to be included. The results will be announced at the meeting.

A program is being planned for the evening and residents are asked to come and support the board of directors in their activities.

Halloween Parties

The costumes of the guests were based on titles of records and the records were brought by each couple and played during the evening. Guests at the affair were Marion and Grover Hartig, Pat and Dick Gorman, Nancy and Jack Griffith, Muriel and Charles Gunther, Ruth and John Calhoun, Pierrette and Walter Leckie, Jeanne and Marvin Hayes, Joan and Edwin Donath, Alice and Dick Brown, Paula and Bill Dean and Shirley and Tom Murtaugh.

The Bob Devers, 1430 N. Race, and the Jack Griffiths, 1436 N. Race, had a big Halloween party Monday night. The party initiated the Devers new carport porch. Children of the Bob Devers, the Jack Griffiths, the George Murrays, the Dick Gormans, the Tom Murtaughs, the Bob Horters, the John Manfrins, the Ken Gersteins, the Ray Kelloggs and the John Calhouns had roasted wieners, hot chocolate and donuts served on a big banquet table from 4:30 to 5:30. After their wiener roast the children went "trick or treating" and Claire Dever, Nancy Griffith and Mona McKiernan, who had helped the children, then joined the other couples for their party. The affair ended with everyone sitting around the bonfire singing songs. They all agreed, according to the report, that the decorations and good time added up to a very successful party.

The children's "trick or treat" Monday evening for the hospital drive was very successful and Elaine Petrucci and Barbara Castile want to thank all who cooperated in the project. The amount collected in Virginia Terrace was $25.80.

Cub scouts of pack 234 enjoyed bobbing for apples and playing games at their Halloween parties Monday evening. Den 1 met at the Robert Huebner home, 1546 N. State rd. and den 4 fathered at the Walter Meyer home, 1643 N. Vail.

"Hospital Pennies"

Hospital pennies are still coming in with the early returns amounting to $7.42 collected by Ricky Dettmann, Sharon Rothenbach, Mike, Donald, and Ronald East and Janet, Betty and Vicki Neveu. Halloween was a busy night in the knolls with the children gathering their treats and pennies. Some of the older ones were waxing windows, which certainly was not appreciated by those having to remove it.

From The Police Blotter . . .

Chief of Police Carl H. Skoog reported little damage by Halloween pranksters this year, although several had to spoil what might have been a perfect record by breaking windows in 2 homes, damaging windows in a business establishment and opening 5 fire hydrants in the village.

Fire hydrants were also reported opened in the villages of Palatine, Mt. Prospect and Des Plaines. This kind of vandalism is uncalled for, says the chief, and parents should be held responsible for the damage. It is their duty to teach their children right from wrong, and damaging public and private property is certainly wrong.

John Gustitus, 400 S. Dryden, reported someone tossed a brick through the windshield of his auto while it was parked at his home October 25.

Theft of a pair of brown sun glasses and a card case out of the glove compartment of his car was reported by C. H. Moore.

Police were called to pick up a man sitting on the railroad tracks between Chatham and Mayfair. He was found to be intoxicated. Two other men were picked up for intoxication and disorderly conduct. Both were fined in traffic court Monday night.

A picture window was found broken in a new home under construction on N. Mitchell, south of Thomas, by Arlington police officers.

Police recovered a stolen auto parked at the intersection of Derbyshire and Mayfair in Stonegate. It belonged to E. J. Kivilion, Chicago.

A resident in the 800 block on S. Beverley, told police someone tried to gain entrance to his home. A window in the back door had been broken.

More than 100 cases were heard in traffic court this week. Most of the violations were for speeding, while others were booked for no driver's license, no license plates, failure to yield right-of-way, unnecessary noise, and failure to stop for stop signs.

Wedgewood Terrace

New folks in Wedgewood include the Richard Sachtschales, who moved to the community from Des Plaines where they had had a decade of residence. Their new home is at 103 W. Euclid.

Since Mr. Sachtschale is a mason contractor, his home has been built by him.

Interested in the building line, also, is the Sachtschales' older son, Richard Jr., who is a sophomore at the University of Illinois at Navy pier, where he is studying architectural engineering. Brother Jim has not specialized yet since he is a sophomore at the Arlington Heights high school. He is interested in baseball however.

At 3 Oxford place, the former home of the Joseph De Pasquales, the Carl Sippels now live, and they moved in from Chicago about the middle of October. Originally the Sippels come from the east, their home town being Pittsburgh.

Mr. Sippel is a salesman for Waxide Paper company, makers of printed cellophane wrappers.

Keeping things humming around the new home are Jeffrey and Greg, the Sippel sons. Jeffrey is the older and will be 3 in December. Greg was just a year when they moved in.

Mrs. Sippel says that she used to sew, play golf or swim when she was not so busy keeping up with her young ones. Her husband still indulges in the sport of golf.

Q. Is it required that a bride return all her first calls, or just those she prefers?

A. The bride should return all these calls, and as early as possible. It would be very rude to return some, and omit others.

This Week With PTA

Take Note: Go Vote

The PTA wishes to remind parents of elementary school children that they will still be parents when the time comes for these same children to enroll in high school. A "yes" vote at the polls for the high school referendum will result in the construction of a new school on Foundry rd. to accomodate 2,500 students. A "no" vote will result in overcrowding and sub-standard schooling and Arlington Heights township high school losing its standing among the accredited schools of the state. Failure to go to the polls is the same as a "no" vote - so to educate our children, go to the polls on November 5.

Bike Inspection Results Shocking

Mrs. L. D. Crockett, safety chairman and the Arlington Heights police are reluctant to believe that parents don't really care that their children are risking their lives on unsafe equipment, but the fact remains that of the 866 bikes inspected during the past week, 408, or nearly 50 per cent. were rejected for the lack of some safety requirement. As noted by an article elsewhere in this edition, mechanical defects are not the only safety hazard facing our children. The children themselves have been growing more and more lax about observing the rules of the road. Again the parents obligation is plain - these children of ours must be coached and coached again in the fundamentals of safe bike riding. As a special service to parents, this month's Foreword will include a set of safety rules for cyclists. Parents are urged to use this set of rules to the fullest extent, and the police are asked to enforce them.

Police recovered a stolen auto parked at the intersection of Derbyshire and Mayfair in Stonegate. It belonged to E. J. Kivilion, Chicago.

A resident in the 800 block on S. Beverley, told police someone tried to gain entrance to his home. A window in the back door had been broken.

More than 100 cases were heard in traffic court this week. Most of the violations were for speeding, while others were booked for no driver's license, no license plates, failure to yield right-of-way, unnecessary noise, and failure to stop for stop signs.

Wedgewood Terrace

New folks in Wedgewood include the Richard Sachtschales, who moved to the community from Des Plaines where they had had a decade of residence. Their new home is at 103 W. Euclid.

Since Mr. Sachtschale is a mason contractor, his home has been built by him.

Interested in the building line, also, is the Sachtschales' older son, Richard Jr., who is a sophomore at the University of Illinois at Navy pier, where he is studying architectural engineering. Brother Jim has not specialized yet since he is a sophomore at the Arlington Heights high school. He is interested in baseball however.

At 3 Oxford place, the former home of the Joseph De Pasquales, the Carl Sippels now live, and they moved in from Chicago about the middle of October. Originally the Sippels come from the east, their home town being Pittsburgh.

Mr. Sippel is a salesman for Waxide Paper company, makers of printed cellophane wrappers.

Keeping things humming around the new home are Jeffrey and Greg, the Sippel sons. Jeffrey is the older and will be 3 in December. Greg was just a year when they moved in.

Mrs. Sippel says that she used to sew, play golf or swim when she was not so busy keeping up with her young ones. Her husband still indulges in the sport of golf.

Q. Is it required that a bride return all her first calls, or just those she prefers?

A. The bride should return all these calls, and as early as possible. It would be very rude to return some, and omit others.

Take Note: Go Vote

The PTA wishes to remind parents of elementary school children that they will still be parents when the time comes for these same children to enroll in high school. A "yes" vote at the polls for the high school referendum will result in the construction of a new school on Foundry rd. to accomodate 2,500 students. A "no" vote will result in overcrowding and sub-standard schooling and Arlington Heights township high school losing its standing among the accredited schools of the state. Failure to go to the polls is the same as a "no" vote - so to educate our children, go to the polls on November 5.

Bike Inspection Results Shocking

Mrs. L. D. Crockett, safety chairman and the Arlington Heights police are reluctant to believe that parents don't really care that their children are risking their lives on unsafe equipment, but the fact remains that of the 866 bikes inspected during the past week, 408, or nearly 50 per cent, were rejected for the lack of some safety requirement. As noted by an article elsewhere in this edition, mechanical defects are not the only safety hazard facing our children The children themselves have been growing more and more lax about observing the rules of the road. Again the parents obligation is plain - these children of ours must be coached and coached again in the fundamentals of safe bike riding. As a special service to parents, this month's Foreword will include a set of safety rules for cyclists. Parents are urged to use this set of rules to the fullest extent, and the police are asked to enforce them.

COMMONWEALTH EDISON COMPANY and its Public Service Company Division hereby give notice to the public that there has been filed with the Illinois Commerce Commission on October 18, 1955, Schedule 8-R, Information and Requirements for the Supply of Electric Service, which will cancel and supersede information and requirements now effective in Chicago and in Public Service Company Division territory.

THIS IS YOUR V.F.W.

by GEORGE MILLER

The Veterans of Foreign Wars recently held their National Encampment in Boston, Mass., and even with the great flood hindering this Encampment, over 7,000 delegates were in attendance. Before the many items of business that faced the convention were taken up, the delegates showed that they were in Boston for real serious business by giving $10,000 to the American Red Cross to help provide relief for the flood victims of the disaster area in the New England and Eastern states.

Following is a few of the major items which the VFW delegates mandated their National Officers to carry out.

1. To do everything in the scope of their power and the power of the organization to keep the sovereign rights of the United States Government from being diluted by membership in any international alliance or world federation or weakened in any manner by international treaties.

2. That the United States should continue to vigorously oppose the admission of Red China to membership in the United Nations.

3. CONTINUED EXPOSURE of communist front organizations that seek to sabotage the American system of government.

4. To vigorously fight for just and proper treatment of the country's disabled, aging and needy veterans.

5. Urging enactment of a system of pension payments for WWI veterans based on the established pattern of pensions for Spanish American War vets.

6. Condemn any policy that aims to combine veteran benefits with Social Security benefits or proposals to transfer VA responsibilities to other federal agencies.

7. BENEFITS for veterans of the Korean conflict on equal basis with the veterans of WW II.

These are but a few of over 1300 resolutions adopted by the delegates with regards to the government, veteran rights and organization changes.

The delegates listened to such great men as Vice President Richard M. Nixon, Rev. Dr. Billy Graham, Major General Lewis B. Hershey, Director of Selective Service; Harold Russell, Past Comdr. of AMVETS, Gen. Nathan F. Twining-Chief of Staff-U.S. Air Force, and many others.

The delegates also had their fun taking time out for a famous Boston Baked Bean Dinner, their parades and as usual a little fun raising for all to enjoy.

THE NATIONAL Encampment is a very important part of the VFW for here the delegates choose the National leaders for the coming year. The new National Commander is Timothy J. Murphy of Mass., Sr. Vice Comdr. Cooper T. Holt of Tenn., Jr. Vice Comdr. Richard L. Roudebush of Indiana. These men will be the spokesmen for this great organization this coming year.

It is not too late to join, so why not do it now. Just go to the Arlington Post 981 club house at Yale and Northwest Highway where you will find someone that will be happy to sign you up.

Join the organization pledged to God - Country - Community and to the task of seeing just treatment for those who need aid after service. (KP

Mr. Kelly presented a program for primary students and another for upper grade students. He stressed the meaning of conservation and told of the many wonders which can be observed in Cook county's forest preserves during his primary assembly. Upper graders were told of the importance of conservation and many facts regarding the balance of life. Both programs were sparked by 2 films of the wild life that can be observed throughout the year in our Forest Preserves. Much of this material was filmed in Cook and Lake counties.

A good time was had by all who attended the classroom Halloween parties which were held in all classrooms the afternoon of October 28. The fourth annual costume parade preceded the parties, and parents were given an opportunity to see a gala display of spooky costumes pass in review. Illinois Bell Expects To Occupy New Addition December 1

Workmen began forming the roof of the 2-story and basement addition to Illinois Bell's central office building in Arlington Heights last week.

Robert E. Kozeliski telephone company manager said the structure is now about 40 per cent complete.

THE ADDITION which will double the size of the present structure will permit adding considerable dial equipment to provide more service for residents in Arlington Heights, Mount Prospect, Rolling Meadows and other communities now served from the building.

W. F. Hessler, Illinois Bell engineer who is supervising construction, estimates that the addition will be completed and ready for occupancy by Dec. 1.

Besides permitting addition of dial equipment the addition will include space for information and dial equipment, the addition will enlargement of the present business office.

Basic construction of the building is reinforced concrete with brick exterior to match the present building. The present structure was completed in 1952 when Arlington Heights and surrounding area was first given dial service.

"THE AREA has grown so phenomenally since then we've simply grown out of our skin," Kozeliski said. "The last possible piece of dial equipment will be squeezed into the present building next month and should be ready for service by December.

"Any future equipment — and we've ordered carloads of it — will be placed in the new addition.'

He said the first of the equipment to go into the addition was scheduled for arrival in mid-January. It should be operative at least in part by the end of February he said.

"Extra room for equipment means we will be able to take care of some orders for service now being held for lack of central office facilities. While it still takes considerable outside cable work to match the central office equipment this is a long first step toward providing service for those waiting," Kozeliski explained.

Cake Box Offers Free Coffee Cakes for Hospital Coffees

With the "Kuarter Kaffee Klatsches" sponsored by the Palatine Nurses club reaching a new high of $3,000 this week, still another offer to prolong the parties comes from Walter Aronson, owner of the Cake Box bakeries in both Arlington Heights and Palatine.

For the next 2 weeks the Cake Box in both towns will offer a free coffee cake to be served at coffees for the hospital. Any women planning to hold a coffee should call the bakery and tell them she would like a coffee cake to serve as many people as she plans to have. The bakery would like to be notified of the order at least a day in advance.

AMONG contributions received for the hospital fund this week was $101.97 from the Pre-Hi MYF of the Palatine Methodist church, which collected the money Saturday night in a special round of "Tricks or Treats and Hospital Pennies." This money was figured in the $1800 total announced this week for the hospital pennies campaign.

Brownie troop 268 of Palatine, in charge of Mrs. Ray Bertram and Mrs. Frank Haley, also turned in $6.82 they collected in the tricks or treats campaign.

Still another brownie troop brought in $5.50 for the hospital fund, it had raised by giving a talent show at Dryden school, Arlington Heights. It was troop 50 and is sponsored by the Arlington Heights Nurses club.

Leon Rosenblatt, 1007 N. Salem ave., Arlington Heights, contributed $5 for the hospital last week. He stressed that everything possible should be done to get the hospital built in this area.

THIS IS YOUR V.F.W.

by GEORGE MILLER

The Veterans of Foreign Wars recently held their National Encampment in Boston, Mass., and even with the great flood hindering this Encampment, over 7,000 delegates were in attendance. Before the many items of business that faced the convention were taken up, the delegates showed that they were in Boston for real serious business by giving $10,000 to the American Red Cross to help provide relief for the flood victims of the disaster area in the New England and Eastern states.

Following is a few of the major items which the VFW delegates mandated their National Officers to carry out.

1. To do everything in the scope of their power and the power of the organization to keep the sovereign rights of the United States Government from being diluted by membership in any international alliance or world federation or weakened in any manner by international treaties.

2. That the United States should continue to vigorously oppose the admission of Red China to membership in the United Nations.

3. CONTINUED EXPOSURE of communist front organizations that seek to sabotage the American system of government.

4. To vigorously fight for just and proper treatment of the country's disabled, aging and needy veterans.

5. Urging enactment of a system of pension payments for WWI veterans based on the established pattern of pensions for Spanish American War vets.

6. Condemn any policy that aims to combine veteran benefits with Social Security benefits or proposals to transfer VA responsibilities to other federal agencies.

7. BENEFITS for veterans of the Korean conflict on equal basis with the veterans of WW II.

These are but a few of over 1300 resolutions adopted by the delegates with regards to the government, veteran rights and organization changes.

The delegates listened to such great men as Vice President Richard M. Nixon, Rev. Dr. Billy Graham, Major General Lewis B. Hershey, Director of Selective Service; Harold Russell, Past Comdr. of AMVETS, Gen. Nathan F. Twining-Chief of Staff-U.S. Air Force, and many others.

The delegates also had their fun taking time out for a famous Boston Baked Bean Dinner, their parades and as usual a little fun raising for all to enjoy.

THE NATIONAL Encampment is a very important part of the VFW for here the delegates choose the National leaders for the coming year. The new National Commander is Timothy J. Murphy of Mass., Sr. Vice Comdr. Cooper T. Holt of Tenn., Jr. Vice Comdr. Richard L. Roudebush of Indiana. These men will be the spokesmen for this great organization this coming year.

It is not too late to join, so why not do it now. Just go to the Arlington Post 981 club house at Yale and Northwest Highway where you will find someone that will be happy to sign you up.

Join the organization pledged to God - Country - Community and to the task of seeing just treatment for those who need aid after service. (KP

Illinois Bell Expects To Occupy New Addition December 1

Workmen began forming the roof of the 2-story and basement addition to Illinois Bell's central office building in Arlington Heights last week.

Robert E. Kozeliski telephone company manager said the structure is now about 40 per cent complete.

THE ADDITION which will double the size of the present structure will permit adding considerable dial equipment to provide more service for residents in Arlington Heights, Mount Prospect, Rolling Meadows and other communities now served from the building.

W. F. Hessler, Illinois Bell engineer who is supervising construction, estimates that the addition will be completed and ready for occupancy by Dec. 1.

Besides permitting addition of dial equipment the addition will include space for information and dial equipment, the addition will enlargement of the present business office.

Basic construction of the building is reinforced concrete with brick exterior to match the present building. The present structure was completed in 1952 when Arlington Heights and surrounding area was first given dial service.

"THE AREA has grown so phenomenally since then we've simply grown out of our skin," Kozeliski said. "The last possible piece of dial equipment will be squeezed into the present building next month and should be ready for service by December.

"Any future equipment — and we've ordered carloads of it — will be placed in the new addition.'

He said the first of the equipment to go into the addition was scheduled for arrival in mid-January. It should be operative at least in part by the end of February he said.

"Extra room for equipment means we will be able to take care of some orders for service now being held for lack of central office facilities. While it still takes considerable outside cable work to match the central office equipment this is a long first step toward providing service for those waiting," Kozeliski explained.

Cake Box Offers Free Coffee Cakes for Hospital Coffees

With the "Kuarter Kaffee Klatsches" sponsored by the Palatine Nurses club reaching a new high of $3,000 this week, still another offer to prolong the parties comes from Walter Aronson, owner of the Cake Box bakeries in both Arlington Heights and Palatine.

For the next 2 weeks the Cake Box in both towns will offer a free coffee cake to be served at coffees for the hospital. Any women planning to hold a coffee should call the bakery and tell them she would like a coffee cake to serve as many people as she plans to have. The bakery would like to be notified of the order at least a day in advance.

AMONG contributions received for the hospital fund this week was $101.97 from the Pre-Hi MYF of the Palatine Methodist church, which collected the money Saturday night in a special round of "Tricks or Treats and Hospital Pennies." This money was figured in the $1800 total announced this week for the hospital pennies campaign.

Brownie troop 268 of Palatine, in charge of Mrs. Ray Bertram and Mrs. Frank Haley, also turned in $6.82 they collected in the tricks or treats campaign.

Still another brownie troop brought in $5.50 for the hospital fund, it had raised by giving a talent show at Dryden school, Arlington Heights. It was troop 50 and is sponsored by the Arlington Heights Nurses club.

Leon Rosenblatt, 1007 N. Salem ave., Arlington Heights, contributed $5 for the hospital last week. He stressed that everything possible should be done to get the hospital built in this area.

Q. Is it ever proper for a girl to ask a man to dance with her?

A. Only if the man is her husband, brother, brother-in-law, cousin, or perhaps an old childhood friend.

Our Saviour Church Luther League Elects New Officers

Luther League of Our Saviour United Lutheran church has elected Miss Sandra Vogel to serve as its president for the coming year. Directing activities of the young people's organization with her will be Thomas Von Boeckmann, vice president, and Miss Robin Posselt, who was elected to the office of secretary-treasurer.

. The Rev. John P. Petersen, pastor, has announced that new members will be received into the congregation December 18. Persons interested in joining with the congregation are asked to get in touch with him either at the morning worship Sunday or by calling Cl. 5-1012.

Pastor Petersen will offer a course on "The Basic Teachings of the Christian Church" which will begin within the next 2 weeks. It is open to persons who desire information about the Lutheran church, to present Lutherans who desire a systematic presentation of the church's teachings, and to non-Lutherans preparing for church membership. The exact meeting time will be announced next week.

The sacrament of holy batism was administered to infant members of the congregation at the morning worship last Sunday by the pastor: Sandra Marie Brettner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brettner, and Christine Carol Heim, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Heim.

Which is Cleaner?

FLAME-TYPE ELECTRIC

RESULTS OF RECENT IMPARTIAL RESEARCH:

Engineers of the Colburn Laboratories, one of Chicago's leading independent research organizations, report: "We made comparisons of the amount of soil produced during use of 3 modern flame-type ovens and 3 modern electric ovens. Over 60 tests were made. More than a thousand measurements of soil deposits were taken by precise photoelectric instruments. These readings showed the flame-type ovens deposited an average of twice as much greasy soil as did the electric ovens." (All of the ranges tested were top-name brands.)

The answer: Electric cooking keeps your kitchen twice as clean!

Your kitchen keeps that freshly decorated look a lot longer when you use a clean-cooking, modern electric range. But there are other reasons why you'll like electric cooking.

For example, did you know that nothing cooks faster than today's high-speed electric surface units? And temperature controls are so accurate you can keep mashed potatoes warm without fear of scorching them.

You'll love the way cakes rise high and how evenly they brown in your electric oven, too. Even prepared mixes turn out tasting moist and tender as homemade in a modern electric oven.

A fast, clean-cooking electric range is an extra-good buy right now. With our New Share-the-Cost Installation Plan, you save important money on installation . . . and the modernized wiring makes your appliances work better. Get details from any appliance dealer.

New electric ranges low as $2.16 a week, complete, installed!

Bike Riders Must Know 'Rules Of The Road'

Parents are being called to task this week for not checking to see that the bike their youngster is riding is in good repair, safety wise, or making sure their child knows the 'Rules of the Road" before venturing out on the streets with their bikes.

In a recent safety check of bikes at Arlington Heights schools, conducted by the PTA safety committee and the police department, it was found that more than 200 of 800 bikes were unsafe to ride. Bikes must pass a safety test in order to get a bike license.

Several bike-auto accidents have occurred in the village the past few weeks and in most instances were caused because the child on the bike did not ride it properly or give the correct signals in making a turn. It is the parents' duty to see his child knows the rules, which are the same for a bike rider as an autoist, before he is allowed to take it out in traffic.

"Autoists, on the other hand, should respect the bike rider's signal as he would another motorists," warned Chief of Police Carl H. Skoog.

Eight hundred sixty-six bicycles at 5 public elementary schools were inspected last week by the Police department in cooperation with the PTA safety committee. Luminous tape, which was applied to each bike, was purchased jointly by the PTA and the village. Pictured above at the South school are, left to right, Jimmy Lippert, patrol boy; Rhonda Roberts, Sergeant Johnson and Mrs. L. D. Crockett, PTA safety chairman. Many bicycles were rejected for mechanical defects and the lack of sounding devices. —Campbell Photo

BACKSTAGE

Thumbnail sketches of personalities associated with "Harvey," the PTA sponsored comedy by Mary Chase appearing at the Arlington Heights Junior high school gymnasium, November 4 and 5, 8:30 p. m. It is being presented by Village Theatre, Inc., and directed by Mary Tindall.

Sally Opela

"Kelly" the flippant nurse in "Harvey" is portrayed by Sally Opela, a busy, industrious housewife in real life. Besides having "1 husband, 3 kids, 1 dog and 7 puppies (for sale)" Sally finds time to act as Bible leader of Presbyterian's Woman's Circle 9, associate Den Mother, 4th grade room mother and Wilson school PTA member. Sally has appeared in Village Theatre productions of "Call it a Day," "George Washington Slept Here," "Sleeping Beauty" and "Jack and the Beanstalk." She has been production manager of several 3-act plays and has directed talent bank shows.

Kay Hawley

It's hard to believe that Kay Hawley had no theatrical experience before her association with Village Theatre, but a flair for the bright lights will out. Kay appeared in Village Theatre's first production "Night Must Fall" and followed with featured roles in "Blithe Spirit," "You Can't Take it With You," "State of the Union," "Ladies in Retirement," "George Washington Slept Here," "Man Who Came to Dinner," and "Life With Father." She is appearing as Mrs. Chumley in "Harvey." She directed 3 children's shows — "Jack and the Beanstalk," "Hansel and Gretel" and "Cinderella."

Kay's talents also include writing. Besides the script for "Sleeping Beauty" she has written various 1-act plays for church and PTA, historical plays for Arlington Heights Womans club and the Presbyterian church. She was co-director of the 1955 PTA talent show.

Al Wilcox

A resident of Arlington Heights for 5 years, Al Wilcox who plays Dr. Chumley in "Harvey" is a member of Toastmasters club and a Sunday school teacher at St. John church, Mt. Prospect. He will be remembered for his excellent portrayal of Oliver T. Erwenter in last spring's Village Theatre production of "Silver Whistle" and for star-roles in "Male Animal" and "Man Who Came to Dinner."

In his "spare time" Al is a chemical engineer.

Harriet Smith

A real trooper is Harriet Smith who plays "Mrs. Chauvenet." She has her M.A. degree from Northwestern university where she majored in speech and taught dramatics at Batavia and Riverside-Brookfield high schools; was director of recreational dramatics program in Cleveland. While in Cleveland Harriet was a member of South-Lynd Players and appeared in "The Show Off" and "The Torchbearers." Since her association with Village Theatre, Harriet has added a professional touch to the casts of "Ladies in Retirement," "Cinderella" and "Silver Whistle" in which she has had lead roles.

Junior Women Hold Mosquito Abatement Fund Card Parties

Members of the public health and welfare committee of Arlington Heights Junior Womans club are opening their homes November 3 to hold desert card parties. All profits of the parties are to go toward the club's active interest in the community's aim in building funds for mosquito abatement, one of the many local organizations to benefit through the Junior Womans club.

Bike Riders Must Know 'Rules Of The Road'

Parents are being called to task this week for not checking to see that the bike their youngster is riding is in good repair, safety wise, or making sure their child knows the 'Rules of the Road'' before venturing out on the streets with their bikes.

In a recent safety check of bikes at Arlington Heights schools, conducted by the PTA safety committee and the police department, it was found that more than 200 of 800 bikes were unsafe to ride. Bikes must pass a safety test in order to get a bike license.

Several bike-auto accidents have occurred in the village the past few weeks and in most instances were caused because the child on the bike did not ride it properly or give the correct signals in making a turn. It is the parents' duty to see his child knows the rules, which are the same for a bike rider as an autoist, before he is allowed to take it out in traffic.

"Autoists, on the other hand, should respect the bike rider's signal as he would another motorists,'' warned Chief of Police Carl H. Skoog.

To Celebrate World Communion Day Friday

World Community day, sponsored by the National Council of Church Women, will be celebrated Friday at the Congregational church in Des Plaines, Graceland and Marion sts.

The program will start at 10:30 a.m. and include luncheon. After lunch, Mrs. Alfred Abeles of the Wilmette Community church will speak on displaced persons.

Donations of good used clothing, particularly for boys 16 years old and for men, are requested.

No reservations are necessary, and all interested women are invited and urged to attend. (AM

Cards Travel To York Saturday With 2nd Place At Stake

KICKIN' IT AROUND

by Bob Paddock

WEST SUBURBAN LEAGUE honors are being carried at Wisconsin by Tom Peters of Glenbard, currently sophomore right end, who is playing a good game whenever he has the chance to play. A teammate is Dick Popp of Barrington, another end in the adequate supply of good men at Wisconsin, with both of them hard put to make the opening lineup.

Tom Peters

Tom won freshman numerals last year as co-captain of the frosh eleven. Up to the Ohio State game this fall he had played only 31½ minutes but injury to regular right end Dave Howard gave Tom his big chance. Howard was injured in first 3 minutes against the Buckeyes, with Peters taking over the remaining 57 minutes.

Peters performed creditably, kicking an extra point and snaring a pass from quarterback Jim Miller for 17 yards. Peters has snagged 3 passes to date. Badger coaches say Peters "has the ability and size to develop into one of the better ends Wisconsin has had with work and experience." Peters currently stands 6' 2", weighs 197. He was all-league in high school football and basketball both junior and senior years, and a state shot put record holder in track.

Barrington's Dick Popp hasn't seen any action thus far this season, but has remained a squad member. He's rated a good prospect for the future, however.

BOB EDWARDS, Glenbard back, calls scoring 2 touchdowns against Arlington sophomores 2 years ago his greatest thrill . . . He was quoted in the school paper "I hope I can do the same against the varsity this year" . . . He did tally once, though the Cards won the game . . . Recent York-Glenbard soph game provided 4 touchdowns in 5 minutes of play.

Arlington's Jon Weisenbach, a freshman, made 3 of 4 conversions on a muddy field Monday, an outstanding record for a yearling, as Heights won, 20-7.

Proof that West Suburban cross country competition is rough is borne out by the finish in district runs Saturday . . . At Evanston Maine copped first, at LaGrange it was Hinsdale, LaGrange and Glenbard in that order . . . In the league meet it was Glenbard, Hinsdale, LaGrange and Maine . . . Scene is changing at Heights where wrestling, basketball and gymnastics are now gaining attention . . . Mt. Prospect Midget Gridders Lose, 27-0

by BETTY KIRCHHOFF

Des Plaines Midget heavyweights defeated the Mt. Prospect Midgets 27-0 Saturday morning at Rand Park. Everything was against the local boys, including the weather. There was a drizzle throughout the game that kept the football nice and slippery and hard to handle.

Mt. Prospect went all out to win but they couldn't get very far when they ran up against boys that weighed 175 to 185 pounds. Schmidts, one of the big players for Des Plaines, came up with nice runs that accounted for 2 of the victors' touchdowns.

Next Saturday Mt. Prospect will meet the Park Ridge eleven at Park Ridge in their final game of the season.

Palatine Cinch To Take Sixth In Conference

This weekend the football schedule in the Northwest conference officially comes to an end. Friday night Ela-Vernon is the favorite in what stacks up as a good doubleheader at Palatine. The same night Grayslake is favored to win at Fenton and hold tight to second place in the final standings.

Saturday afternoon Glenbrook is slated to cop their 18th straight victory in one of the longest streaks in the state in the season finale at Wauconda. This will be a double bill starting at 12:30. Saturday evening Antioch is a heavy favorite to win at Grant High in Fox Lake and duplicate last year's 5-2 record for third place.

PALATINE, back to near full strength with both Dilks and Rhode in action, is expected to give Ela-Vernon all they can handle. Ela is a strong defensive team and is not likely to score many touchdowns. However Palatine has shown little scoring punch until the last two weeks but has scored four of their six touchdowns for the season in the last two games.

The Pirates have been second only to Bensenville in weakness of defense, allowing opponents an average of 21 points a game. One wonders how many more points would have been scored except for the hard tackling of little Jim McCreery, Palatine's ace line backer. McCreery leads the team by a wide margin in tackling having made as many as 23 in one game.

ELA-VERNON proved vulnerable Saturday to a good passing attack when Glenbrook pounced them through the air. The Pirates showed better passing in the last two games and their scores for the season have been through the air.

Regardless of the outcome of Friday's game Palatine will finish in sixth place. Ela has a chance to move up to fourth if they can beat Palatine and then dump Fenton in a makeup game next week for a mid season postponement.

PAUL HENRY has taken over the varsity football coaching at Fenton for the closing games of the season. The Bisons appeared improved in the muddy game with Grant while gaining a 6-6 tie and hope to spring a surprise on powerful Grayslake this Friday. Coach Rooney's team appears to have too much weight and class for the light undermanned Bisons but upsets do happen.

Wauconda has bogged down the past two games and earlier was rated the best chance of any team to push the highly touted Glenbrook Spartans. Wauconda has lacked reserve strength a weakness which has been much in evidence of late. Glenbrook will probably win as they please and score enough so that Bob Boyd can break his own conference scoring record set last year.

GLENBROOK'S TEAM has not been giving Boyd special consideration as far as scoring opportunities are concerned but he has averaged almost the equivalent of two touchdowns a game. Probably the most valued player on the Glenbrook team is Duane Harm, quarterback, whose deadly passing, fine ball handling, and hard running has made him a rival of Gene Jaskot of Wauconda for the role of finest ball player in the conference.

Antioch has had a great season with little Paul Kessenich doing a superb job of coaching with limited material. The Sequoits are a spirited team with lots of the drive and zip which makes for successful football. A 5-2 record for Antioch will be the result of a win at Grant Saturday night. Antioch was figured no better than second division this year but they improved every game. If their Grayslake game had come later in the season they might even have captured second place from the Rams.

Ken Korcek annd John Cummins don't gain the headlines, due to their being guards, but both have been reliable, steady performers for the Arlington Heights high school Cardinals. Both are smart competitors, are quick to diagnose coming plays. Cummins has been improving as a defensive stalwart ever since the LaGrange game.

Goose Tatum Heads Cage Bill At Heights Friday

RIGINAL
RLEM

Tatum

The incomparable Goose Tatum, and the beautiful ball handling of Marques Haynes, will headline the basketball program of Arlington Heights Jaycees Friday night, Nov. 4, in Arlington Heights high school gym when the Harlem Magicians oppose New York Olympians.

An all-star cast, with 7'1" Bill Spivey leading the Olympians, will perform its best to the enjoyment of fans. Halftime entertainment is also included.

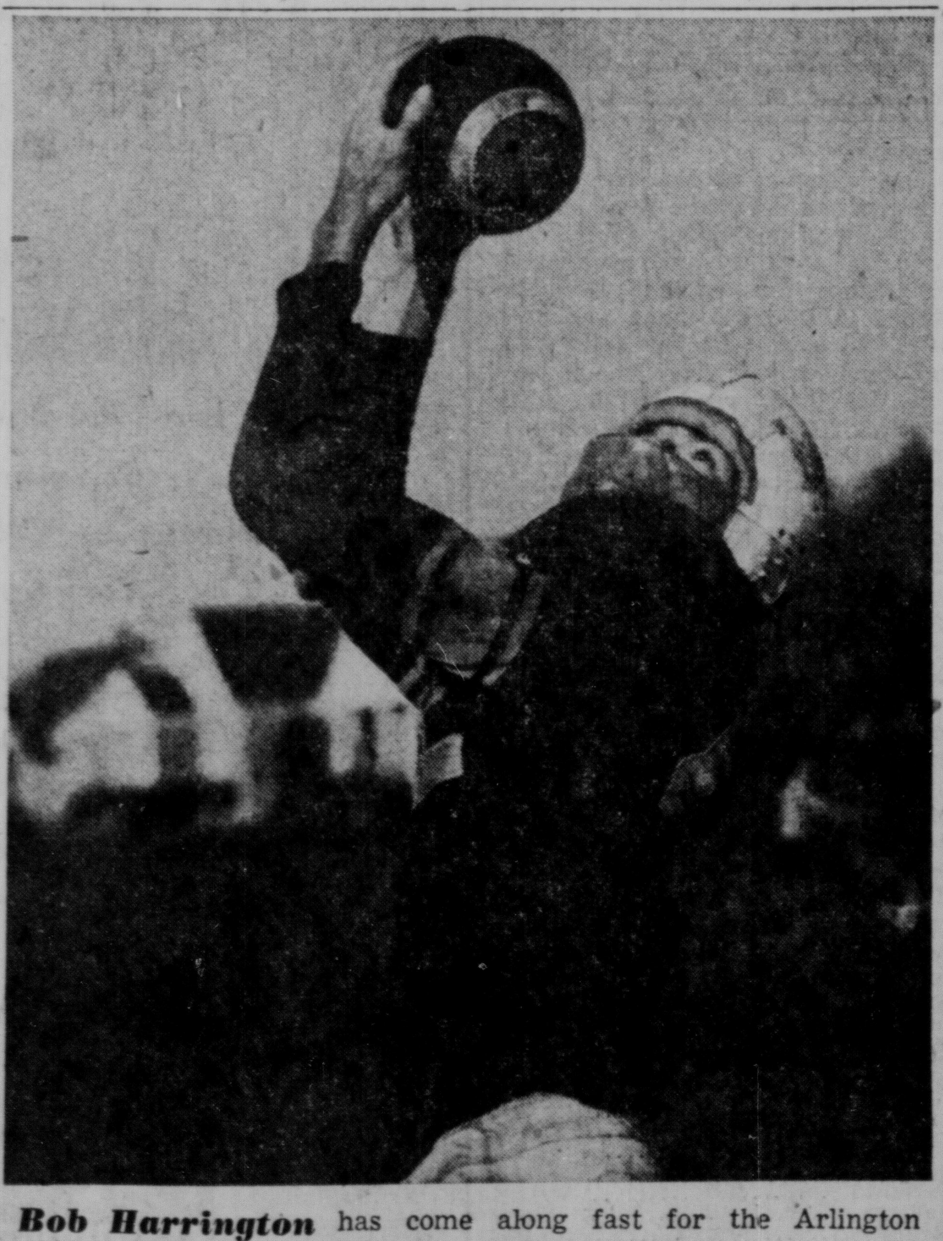
THE MAGICIANS have been organized the past year, thrilling fans throughout the country with their antics much as the Harlem Globetrotters have done. Tatum and Haynes were stars with the Trotters for several seasons, until they decided to organize their own team. They'll be present Friday night with admission set at $1.75 for adults, $1 for students. Game time will be 8 p.m.



Bob Harrington has come along fast for the Arlington gridders this year. He rates one of the best defensive ends in the league, with no team able to get outside his end more than 2 or 3 times. Two of those times Bob held them to no gain. As an offensive end, Bob has gained recognition as a good blocker and fair receiver.

1st Wrestling Call Tuesday At Heights

First call for wrestlers at Arlington Heights high school will be made this week with boys reporting Tuesday, Nov. 8. Frosh-soph candidates will report to Coach Maurice Kellogg at 9:30 a.m. in varsity locker room. Junior and senior candidates will check in to Coach Dick Mudge Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the varsity locker room.

Equipment will be issued and lockers assigned Wednesday, Nov. 9, with initial practices scheduled for Thursday, Nov. 10. Coaches and managers have been getting equipment ready and will be ready for what is hoped to be the largest squads in history.

TO HELP DRAW plenty of freshmen, a frosh slate is being organized, in addition to varsity and frosh-soph schedules. Four meets are already cinched, with 6 more in the tentative stage. These will give more boys experience and a chance to participate in high school athletics.

Captain of the varsity squad is Jack Ebert. Frosh-sophs will continue the policy of electing a captain for each meet. Workouts will again be held in the foyer of the gym. Complete schedule will be released next week.

Arlington Midjets To Play All-Star Game Saturday

Lions are champs in midget football league of Arlington Heights park district, winning the title in a playoff with the Cardinals.

This Saturday morning 2 all-star teams composed of members of the Lions and Bears versus Cardinals and Packers will meet in the final game of this year's slate. Game time will be 10 a.m. on the high school field.

Tying for regularly scheduled competition were both Lions and Cardinals with 6-1-1 records. Cards whipped the Packers Friday night and the Lions beat the Bears. Saturday morning the Lions tripped the Cardinals, 6-0, in the playoff.

PARK DISTRICT program has included 18 games this fall, with more than 140 boys participating. All equipment should be turned into the 4 coaches this Saturday afternoon. Parents are urged to see that this is done so the moth balls can be used now, instead of waiting until next spring.

A gneral get-together for those participating, and their dads, will be held Saturday, Nov. 12, at the fieldhouse with certificates to be awarded all boys. Special awards will be given the winners. Special speaker is planned, with movies also included. Festivities will get underway at 7:30 p.m.

Bill finished third in the district, won by Maine. The first 5 Cardinals in the money included Wayne Haemker 43rd, Dick Koopman 50th, Alan Hutchinson 56th and Les Vaughan 65th. Team total was 217, a point ahead of Evanston for seventh place.

ARLINGTON harriers beat Riverside and Palatine this past week, the R-B squad falling, 24-36, and the Pirates succumbing, 24-31. Bill Palmer copped firsts in each meet on the Heights course, winning the R-B affair in 9:53 and the Palatine contest in 9:57.

Arlington Must Keep Pace For 5-2 Record

The time has come for all good football players to come to the aid of their school—and beat York—with second place at stake.

That is the situation facing the Cardinal football team Saturday afternoon at Elmhurst. If the Heights eleven can win it'll mean second in West Suburban football, for the first time.

Another first will be whipping York, a team that has been tied but never beaten by Arlington.

THE LOCALS came close last year, 31-25. The year before it was 13-7 with a 13-6 score prevailing in '51. In between there was a 7-7 tie. With those scores in mind, the Cardinals are determined this time to swing the pendulum to the victory side.

When LaGrange and Maine tied last weekend, Arlington's mathematical chance of a tie for first went by the board. Now if Hinsdale whips LaGrange, as expected, Cardinals will have sole possession of second place, a half game ahead of LaGrange.

If the Lions beat Hinsdale Saturday, the Red Devils and Cards will tie for second. In this case Arlington will be listed second on the record books with the help of the alphabet. York has won just 2 games to date but will be determined to stop Heights for victory No. 3.

THE HEIGHTS eleven should be at full strength for the Elmhurst affair, John Sujack, No. 1 breakaway runner, will be ready after a slight groin injury in the Riverside game. The line will be intact, ready to open the holes as it has been doing all season, providing headlines for the backs and sports writers.

If Cardinals win it will mean the best football record complied thus far in West Suburban competition. Past records:

KICKIN' IT AROUND

by Bob Paddock

WEST SUBURBAN LEAGUE honors are being carried at Wisconsin by Tom Peters of Glenbard, currently sophomore right end, who is playing a good game whenever he has the chance to play. A teammate is Dick Popp of Barrington, another end in the adequate supply of good men at Wisconsin, with both of them hard put to make the opening lineup.

Tom Peters

Tom won freshman numerals last year as co-captain of the frosh eleven. Up to the Ohio State game this fall he had played only 31½ minutes but injury to regular right end Dave Howard gave Tom his big chance. Howard was injured in first 3 minutes against the Buckeyes, with Peters taking over the remaining 57 minutes.

Peters performed creditably, kicking an extra point and snaring a pass from quarterback Jim Miller for 17 yards. Peters has snagged 3 passes to date. Badger coaches say Peters "has the ability and size to develop into one of the better ends Wisconsin has had with work and experience." Peters currently stands 6' 2", weighs 197. He was all-league in high school football and basketball both junior and senior years, and a state shot put record holder in track.

Barrington's Dick Popp hasn't seen any action thus far this season, but has remained a squad member. He's rated a good prospect for the future, however.

Goose Tatum Heads Cage Bill At Heights Friday

RIGINAL

Tatum

The incomparable Goose Tatum, and the beautiful ball handling of Marques Haynes, will headline the basketball program of Arlington Heights Jaycees Friday night, Nov. 4, in Arlington Heights high school gym when the Harlem Magicians oppose New York Olympians.

An all-star cast, with 7'1" Bill Spivey leading the Olympians, will perform its best to the enjoyment of fans. Halftime entertainment is also included.

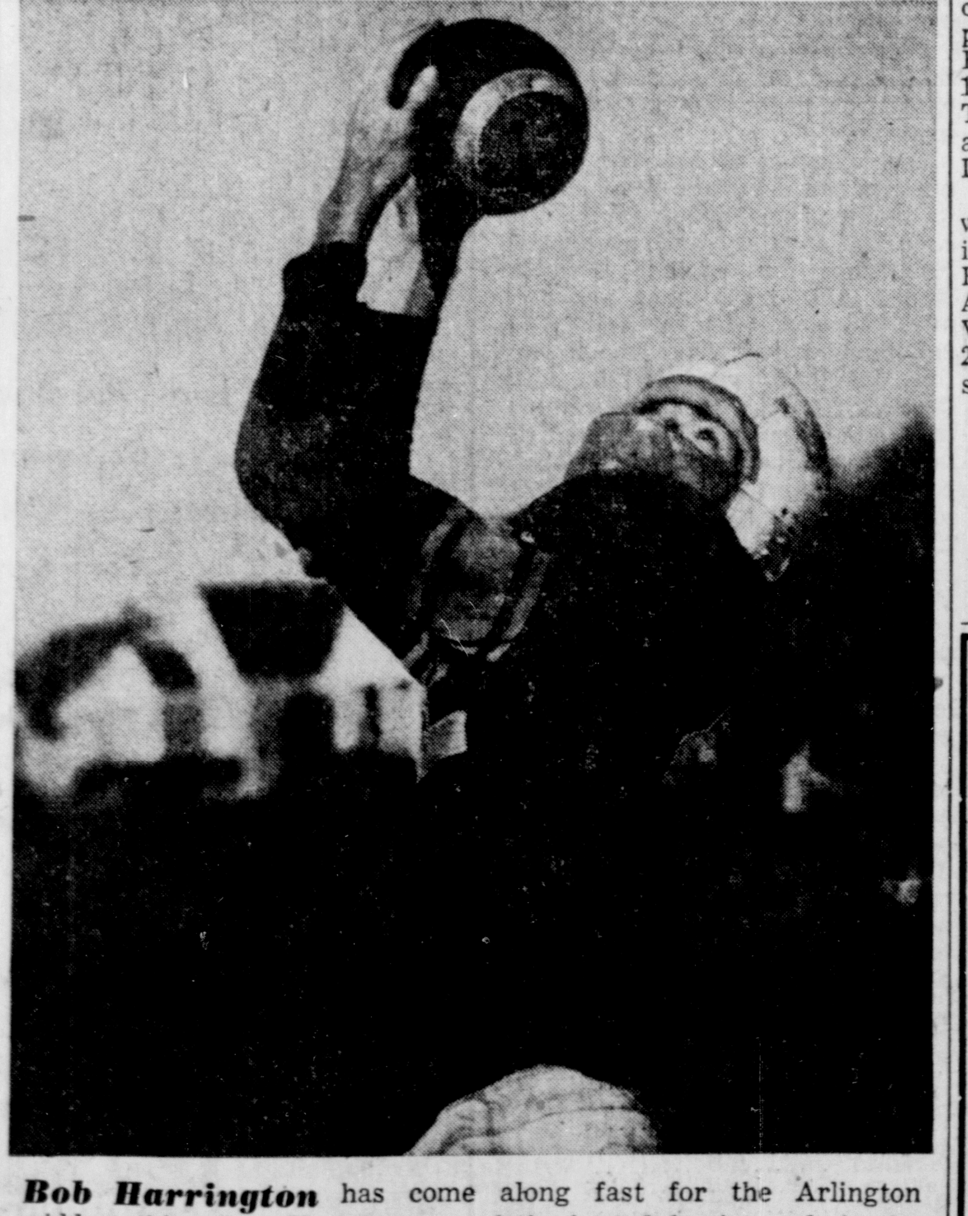
THE MAGICIANS have been organized the past year, thrilling fans throughout the country with their antics much as the Harlem Globetrotters have done. Tatum and Haynes were stars with the Trotters for several seasons, until they decided to organize their own team. They'll be present Friday night with admission set at $1.75 for adults, $1 for students. Game time will be 8 p.m.



Bob Harrington has come along fast for the Arlington gridders this year. He rates one of the best defensive ends in the league, with no team able to get outside his end more than 2 or 3 times. Two of those times Bob held them to no gain. As an offensive end, Bob has gained recognition as a good blocker and fair receiver. —Staff Photo

Arlington Must Keep Pace For 5-2 Record

The time has come for all good football players to come to the aid of their school—and beat York—with second place at stake.

That is the situation facing the Cardinal football team Saturday afternoon at Elmhurst. If the Heights eleven can win it'll mean second in West Suburban football, for the first time.

Another first will be whipping York, a team that has been tied but never beaten by Arlington.

THE LOCALS came close last year, 31-25. The year before it was 13-7 with a 13-6 score prevailing in '51. In between there was a 7-7 tie. With those scores in mind, the Cardinals are determined this time to swing the pendulum to the victory side.

When LaGrange and Maine tied last weekend, Arlington's mathematical chance of a tie for first went by the board. Now if Hinsdale whips LaGrange, as expected, Cardinals will have sole possession of second place, a half game ahead of LaGrange.

If the Lions beat Hinsdale Saturday, the Red Devils and Cards will tie for second. In this case Arlington will be listed second on the record books with the help of the alphabet. York has won just 2 games to date but will be determined to stop Heights for victory No. 3.

THE HEIGHTS eleven should be at full strength for the Elmhurst affair, John Sujack, No. 1 breakaway runner, will be ready after a slight groin injury in the Riverside game. The line will be intact, ready to open the holes as it has been doing all season, providing headlines for the backs and sports writers.

If Cardinals win it will mean the best football record complied thus far in West Suburban competition. Past records:

MAC SAYS

DOUGLAS HILDEBRANDT and Alan Eck are attracting attention down at Miami university at Coral Gables, Florida, according to press reports from the school. Hildebrandt played end and tackle for Palatine's second place Northwest conference team last year and made the all-league eleven. This writer considers him the equal of any Pirate lineman and possibly the best Palatine high has ever developed. Eck was a standout ball carrier whose play was marked by long runs and consistent scoring. He sparked the offense for the Pirates last year and was a leading all-conference selection.

Alan Eck

A press release from Coral Gables states that Hildebrandt was the defensive star of Miami's 19-0 victory over Florida State university's "B" team as the University of Miami freshmen opened their season. "Hildebrandt played end and proved devastating as he piled up Florida State plays, tumbling blockers and ball carriers into a heap time after time," according to the report. Speaking of Alan Eck they say that "he is the fastest back on the freshman squad but that as defensive skill makes itself known more quickly than offense on frosh squads, Eck has really not made his bid as yet." Freshmen scrimmage the varsity at Miami, spending most of their time on defense. Eck and Hildebrandt are attending Miami on football scholarships which take care of tuition, board, room, and incidentals.

Bob Nolan of Wauconda is a regular end on the Miami varsity, a position he has held three years. Nolan was an all-conference tackle at Wauconda in his senior year. He holds the Northwest conference basketball scoring record while playing center for the Bulldogs, averaging close to 25 points a game. At Miami Nolan has played only football.

ALL THE SUBURBAN CONFERENCES of the Chicago area have title games coming up this weekend or had them decided the past week. The New Trier at Evanston clash Saturday will decide the big Suburban League. Waukegan's surprise 18-0 defeat of undefeated Evanston last Saturday moved New Trier into a tie with the Wild kits. Strangely enough New Trier's only defeat was also to Waukegan in the league opener back in September. Waukegan has a 4-2 record. Evanston was rated number one team in Chicagoland prior to Saturday's upset.

Another highlight in suburban play next Saturday will be the Hinsdale-LaGrange game with the winner getting an undisputed title. Each has one loss and LaGrange a tie last week with Maine. Hinsdale's only loss was, to Arlington Heights in the first league game of the season.

In the North Suburban everything rests on the Zion-Benton game at Crystal Lake Friday night. Each team has a tie game and no losses. Zion beat Barrington 6-0 last week to eliminate the Bronchos whose only other loss was to Crystal Lake in the opener. Zion won the title last year but Crystal Lake has been the favorite all season and there is no reason to change that opinion.

IN THE SOUTH SUBURBAN Blue Island beat Leyden last week and moved into the drivers seat with only Thornton Fractional and Argo to play, low teams in the standings. Sycamore with an outstanding team is on the verge of claiming it all in the Little Seven where Wheaton no longer is included in the official football schedule. Bremen is still the undefeated leader in the new Southwest Suburban Conference.

Elgin just about clinched the Big Eight by ousting East Aurora from a first place tie through their first defeat of the season at the watch city Friday night, 20-7.

Glenbrook has clinched the Northwest conference with an undefeated record which has now reached 17 straight going back to October 1953. In fact, Glenbrook has lost only two games in the three years the school has been in existence in the Northwest Conference and has suffered only one loss with their frosh-soph team, that a 13-0 setback at the hands of Palatine this year.

FENTON'S GAME FRIDAY at home with Grant set some sort of a Northwest Conference record. Forty-seven towels were used during the game to keep three footballs clean, which were alternated in the game. It kept 2 boys busy on the side lines cleaning and drying balls. The game was played in a steady rain on a field which was quite void of grass in the main playing area.

Frank Novatny has been appointed acting athletic director at Fenton high for the rest of the year with Paul Henry varsity football coach. Citizens of the Bensenville community are planning to start a sports booster club with an organization meeting November 16 at 8:00 p. m. William Redmond is temporary chairman.

Next Monday, November 7, the football and basketball coaches of the Northwest conference will hold a dinner meeting at Phil Johnson's on Waukegan road. Wednesday, November 9, the Northwest principals will meet at Fenton high in Bensenville with the main order of business a discussion and evaluation of the conference athletic program. Monday, November 14, athletic directors and basketball coaches will meet at Fenton high to draw up a two year basketball schedule for the league.

SATURDAY OF THIS WEEK, November 5, wrestling coaches from approximately 60 Illinois high schools, will gather at the University of Illinois for a fall clinic on the eve of the start of the wrestling practice season. Speakers, according to B. R. Peterson, wrestling coach of the University of Illinois, will be Bill Koll, head coach of Iowa State teachers college and a member of the 1948 Olympic team; Cliff Meyers, head coach at Bloomington, and a former intercollegiate champion; and Robert Shelton, assistant professor of physical education and a specialist in physical therapy.

Wrestling has become a major high school sport in the suburban area and one of the finest activities on the athletic program from the standpoint of competition and physical development.

After reading about the 330 pound football giant at Dundee high school we note that Crystal Lake has one who looks more like a football prospect to us. The Dundee lad was only five feet eight tall for all his weight and a junior. At Crystal Lake they have a freshman standing six feet five weighing 281 pounds who at 14 is so big the school got equipment, except for shoes, from the Chicago Cardinals professional team. Shoes had to be made to order for this young giant wears a size 14½.

THIS COLUMNIST has sent a questionnaire to Northwest conference coaches seeking nominations from their squads for an all-conference team to be selected by this newspaper. From the nominations coaches will be asked to submit their personal selections from the league for a first and second team.

We shall tabulate the results and, using the facts about the players submitted by their own coaches, prepare a list of the 22 boys in the league who were most proficient and most valuable to their respective teams. We shall guarantee every school in the conference will have at least one player named to the all-star suad which we hope to publish in the issue of November 17.

Fenton Splashes To 6-6 Tie With Grant On Bison Field

by BILL RIPPERGER

Rain poured down on the Fenton Bisons and the Grant Bulldogs, Friday, as they fought to a 6-6 deadlock on Bensenville's Memorial Field. The rains came midway in the second period of the game which was the first homecoming affair for the Fentonites.

The Bulldogs scored late in the first period when Anthony Scott recovered a Bison fumble on Fenton's 18-yard line. Power plays moved the ball closer to the goal line where Gaylor carried for the touchdown. The conversion attempt failed.

THE BISON TD came during the rains of the second period. Fullback Tom Philiben carried the pigskin 40 yards to tie the score. The point after touchdown was no good and the score remained tied at half time.

The playing field was very muddy in the second half and neither team was able to develop much offensive power. Final score was a 6-6 tie.

The Bisons attempted to win the game in the third quarter by catching Grant on a safety, but were unsuccessful. Bob Gullborg punted from his 50 to the Grant 1 foot line. Fenton used a 9-man line attempting to get the safety, but without luck.

Strong Passing Attack Gives Antioch Win Over Palatine

by TERRY MOORE

The Antioch Sequoits, behind a strong passing attack, defeated the Palatine Pirates 33-12 at Antioch Saturday night. The Palatine offense was aided somewhat by the return of halfback John Dilks to the starting lineup. Dilks was injured in the first game of the season and has seen limited action since then.

Palatine opened the scoring in the first quarter, when after exchanging punts, they marched 41 yards in 9 plays for a touchdown. Bob Coates began the drive by running for 8 yards through the Antioch line. Dilks ran 4 yards for a first down on the Antioch 29. The combination of Dilks and Coates again paid off as the Pirates drove for another first down on the Antioch 16. A 5 yard penalty against Palatine, a 3 yard gain by Dilks, and a 2 yard run by John Grabowy put the ball on the 16 yard line. On the next play Dilks passed to Steve Cornwell in the end zone for the touchdown. The extra point try was missed.

IMMEDIATELY afterwards, Antioch scored their first touchdown. After returning the Palatine kickoff to the Pirate 41, Bill Layton ran 11 yards for a first down. After a 1 yard gain Don Schroeder ran 29 yards for the touchdown. Frank Walsh kicked the extra point giving Antioch a 7-6 lead.

Near the end of the first half Jim Scully returned a Palatine punt 23 yards to the Pirate 20. On the next play Schroeder gained seven yards. A 13 yard pass from Albert Reckers to Walsh resulted in Antioch's second touchdown. The extra point try was missed making the score 13-6.

In the third quarter Antioch drove from midfield to score their third touchdown. After two running plays Reckers passed to Sidney Parker for a 28 yard gain and a first down on the Pirate six. A five yard penalty against Palatine and a one yard plunge by Layton gave Antioch a touchdown. Walsh kicked the extra point.

IN BEGINNING of the last period the Sequoits scored on a 13 yard run by Schroeder after Reckers threw a pass to Lonnie Christensen which resulted in a 53 yard gain. Walsh kicked the extra point.

The Pirates then took the following kickoff and drove down to the Antioch 24 only to have a pass intercepted by Jim Scully who returned the ball to the Antioch 16. Two plays later, however, Palatine recovered a fumble on the Antioch 18. Two running plays brought the ball down to the 8 yard line. On the next play Jim Hess went over for a touchdown. The extra point try was missed making the score 27-12.

Antioch scored their last touchdown in the final minutes of play. Reckers passed to Christensen for a five yard touchdown. The extra point try by Walsh was missed resulting in the final score of 33-12.

Fenton Frosh-Sophs In Scoreless Tie

by MAX ZOLLNER

Fenton's frosh-sophs battled Grant to a scoreless tie Friday night on Memorial Field in Fenton's first homecoming game.

Both the Bulldogs and the Bisons fought hard but were hampered by the muddy and slippery field.

Grant threatened to score in the fourth quarter as they marched to Fenton's 10-yard line. A fine goal line stand by the Bisons halted the march.

With this ti the Bisons now have a win-loss record of 3 victories, 2 defeats and 1 tie.

Palatine Frosh Lose To Fenton

by GEOFFREY JOHN

Palatine's freshmen team lost their fifth game of the year to Fenton high by the score of 13-0. The ball game was played on Palatine's gridiron Tuesday night, Oct. 25.

Palatine and Fenton were in a 0-0 deadlock with a few minutes till the end of the half when Bill Coates punted from his own fifteen yard line to the 29 yard line. D. Orio of Fenten gathered the ball in and romped 29 yards for the touchdown. The conversion attempt failed. With just a little time left in the game, Ward of Fenton ran 20 yards around right end for Fenton's second touchdown. Reeves then threw a pass to Dierking for the extra point.

Palatine's offense was not as good as usual nor was their blocking. Fenton's blocking was good and it aided them in getting their touchdowns.

Pirate Frosh Beat Antioch

by GEOFFREY JOHN

Palatine won their second freshman game of the season by defeating Antioch 23-6 on Palatine's gridiron.

Don Funston of Palatine kicked off and ran down the field in time to tackle Jim McGee in the end zone for a safety and two points. Following the kickoff Palatine forced Antioch to punt and took over. Nine plays later Tom Weitzel plunged over from the 2 yard line. He then proceeded to make the extra point. The score remained 9-0 in Palatine's favor until the last quarter when Dick Behrans ran 76 yards for Antioch's only touchdown. The extra point attempt failed.

Palatine bounced right back as Bill Coates ran 25 yards around end for Palatine's second touchdown. Tom Weitzel ran the extra point. With less than two minutes left in the game Bill Coates started around end and threw a pass to Dick Welty for 45 yards. Tony Mastroanni made the conversion.

Palatine looked very good in both running and passing. Bill Coates and Tom Weitzel did excellent running. Also, their defense was doing exceptionally well compared with other games.

Glenbrook Dumps Ela For 7th Straight

Glenbrook racked up their seventeenth straight gridiron victory Saturday as they beat a tough Ela-Vernon eleven 30-19 at Lake Zurich. Not since mid October of 1953 has the Glenbrook varsity tasted defeat. Saturday's win clinched the Northwest Conference title for the second year in a row. The Spartans have only Wauconda (3-3) between them and a second straight undefeated season.

Saturday the Glenbrook boys scored in every period. In the first quarter Bob Bacon got things underway as he did the week before at Grayslake by scoring on an 18 yard run. In the second quarter Bob Boyd ran one over from 28 yards out. In the third the Spartans got two touchdowns as Bacon passed to Al Colburn for 20 yards for a tally and Duane Harm pitched an 18 yard strike to Bob Boyd in the end zone. Harm threw a 30 yard aerial to Bill Reed for the final tally.

Palatine Frosh-Sophs Blast Antioch, 42-6

GEOFFREY JOHN

Palatine's frosh-soph team continued their winning ways by mauling Antioch 42-6 for Palatine's sixth straight victory of the year. The ball game was played on Antioch's gridiron in considerable mud.

Antioch won the toss of the coin and elected to receive. After their first play from scrimmage Mike Millay recovered a fumble and Palatine took over. On the very next day Dick Wisner ran around left end 35 yards for Palatine's first touchdown. Dick then proceeded to make the extra point.

FOLLOWING the kick off Antioch again fumbled and Jim Elderidge recovered. Bob Nordin then ran for 21 yards followed by a 4 yard gain by Dave Hodgson and finally Dan Lemanski plunged over from the 1 yard line for the touchdown. After being penalized 20 yards Dick Wisner threw a pass to Jordan Danforth for the conversion. Finally Antioch got rolling and in a series of twelve plays which covered 51 yards. Roger Lang ran twelve yards around end for the touchdown. The conversion attempt failed.

MAC SAYS

by G. A. McElroy

Alan Eck

DOUGLAS HILDEBRANDT and Alan Eck are attracting attention down at Miami university at Coral Gables, Florida, according to press reports from the school. Hildebrandt played end and tackle for Palatine's second place Northwest conference team last year and made the all-league eleven. This writer considers him the equal of any Pirate lineman and possibly the best Palatine high has ever developed. Eck was a standout ball carrier whose play was marked by long runs and consistent scoring. He sparked the offense for the Pirates last year and was a leading all-conference selection.

A press release from Coral Gables states that Hildebrandt was the defensive star of Miami's 19-0 victory over Florida State university's "B" team as the University of Miami freshmen opened their season. "Hildebrandt played end and proved devastating as he piled up Florida State plays, tumbling blockers and ball carriers into a heap time after time," according to the report. Speaking of Alan Eck they say that "he is the fastest back on the freshman squad but that as defensive skill makes itself known more quickly than offense on frosh squads, Eck has really not made his bid as yet." Freshmen scrimmage the varsity at Miami, spending most of their time on defense. Eck and Hildebrandt are attending Miami on football scholarships which take care of tuition, board, room, and incidentals.

Bob Nolan of Wauconda is a regular end on the Miami varsity, a position he has held three years. Nolan was an all-conference tackle at Wauconda in his senior year. He holds the Northwest conference basketball scoring record while playing center for the Bulldogs, averaging close to 25 points a game. At Miami Nolan has played only football.

ALL THE SUBURBAN CONFERENCES of the Chicago area have title games coming up this weekend or had them decided the past week. The New Trier at Evanston clash Saturday will decide the big Suburban League. Waukegan's surprise 18-0 defeat of undefeated Evanston last Saturday moved New Trier into a tie with the Wild kits. Strangely enough New Trier's only defeat was also to Waukegan in the league opener back in September. Waukegan has a 4-2 record. Evanston was rated number one team in Chicagoland prior to Saturday's upset.

Another highlight in suburban play next Saturday will be the Hinsdale-LaGrange game with the winner getting an undisputed title. Each has one loss and LaGrange a tie last week with Maine. Hinsdale's only loss was, to Arlington Heights in the first league game of the season.

In the North Suburban everything rests on the Zion-Benton game at Crystal Lake Friday night. Each team has a tie game and no losses. Zion beat Barrington 6-0 last week to eliminate the Bronchos whose only other loss was to Crystal Lake in the opener. Zion won the title last year but Crystal Lake has been the favorite all season and there is no reason to change that opinion.

IN THE SOUTH SUBURBAN Blue Island beat Leyden last week and moved into the drivers seat with only Thornton Fractional and Argo to play, low teams in the standings. Sycamore with an outstanding team is on the verge of claiming it all in the Little Seven where Wheaton no longer is included in the official football schedule. Bremen is still the undefeated leader in the new Southwest Suburban Conference.

Elgin just about clinched the Big Eight by ousting East Aurora from a first place tie through their first defeat of the season at the watch city Friday night, 20-7.

Glenbrook has clinched the Northwest conference with an undefeated record which has now reached 17 straight going back to October 1953. In fact, Glenbrook has lost only two games in the three years the school has been in existence in the Northwest Conference and has suffered only one loss with their frosh-soph team, that a 13-0 setback at the hands of Palatine this year.

FENTON'S GAME FRIDAY at home with Grant set some sort of a Northwest Conference record. Forty-seven towels were used during the game to keep three footballs clean, which were alternated in the game. It kept 2 boys busy on the side lines cleaning and drying balls. The game was played in a steady rain on a field which was quite void of grass in the main playing area.

Frank Novatny has been appointed acting athletic director at Fenton high for the rest of the year with Paul Henry varsity football coach. Citizens of the Bensenville community are planning to start a sports booster club with an organization meeting November 16 at 8:00 p. m. William Redmond is temporary chairman.

Next Monday, November 7, the football and basketball coaches of the Northwest conference will hold a dinner meeting at Phil Johnson's on Waukegan road. Wednesday, November 9, the Northwest principals will meet at Fenton high in Bensenville with the main order of business a discussion and evaluation of the conference athletic program. Monday, November 14, athletic directors and basketball coaches will meet at Fenton high to draw up a two year basketball schedule for the league.

SATURDAY OF THIS WEEK, November 5, wrestling coaches from approximately 60 Illinois high schools, will gather at the University of Illinois for a fall clinic on the eve of the start of the wrestling practice season. Speakers, according to B. R. Peterson, wrestling coach of the University of Illinois, will be Bill Koll, head coach of Iowa State teachers college and a member of the 1948 Olympic team; Cliff Meyers, head coach at Bloomington, and a former intercollegiate champion; and Robert Shelton, assistant professor of physical education and a specialist in physical therapy.

Wrestling has become a major high school sport in the suburban area and one of the finest activities on the athletic program from the standpoint of competition and physical development.

After reading about the 330 pound football giant at Dundee high school we note that Crystal Lake has one who looks more like a football prospect to us. The Dundee lad was only five feet eight tall for all his weight and a junior. At Crystal Lake they have a freshman standing six feet five weighing 281 pounds who at 14 is so big the school got equipment, except for shoes, from the Chicago Cardinals professional team. Shoes had to be made to order for this young giant wears a size 14½.

THIS COLUMNIST has sent a questionnaire to Northwest conference coaches seeking nominations from their squads for an all-conference team to be selected by this newspaper. From the nominations coaches will be asked to submit their personal selections from the league for a first and second team.

We shall tabulate the results and, using the facts about the players submitted by their own coaches, prepare a list of the 22 boys in the league who were most proficient and most valuable to their respective teams. We shall guarantee every school in the conference will have at least one player named to the all-star suad which we hope to publish in the issue of November 17.

Fenton Splashes To 6-6 Tie With Grant On Bison Field

by BILL RIPPERGER

Rain poured down on the Fenton Bisons and the Grant Bulldogs, Friday, as they fought to a 6-6 deadlock on Bensenville's Memorial Field. The rains came midway in the second period of the game which was the first homecoming affair for the Fentonites.

The Bulldogs scored late in the first period when Anthony Scott recovered a Bison fumble on Fenton's 18-yard line. Power plays moved the ball closer to the goal line where Gaylor carried for the touchdown. The conversion attempt failed.

THE BISON TD came during the rains of the second period. Fullback Tom Philiben carried the pigskin 40 yards to tie the score. The point after touchdown was no good and the score remained tied at half time.

The playing field was very muddy in the second half and neither team was able to develop much offensive power. Final score was a 6-6 tie.

The Bisons attempted to win the game in the third quarter by catching Grant on a safety, but were unsuccessful. Bob Gullborg punted from his 50 to the Grant 1 foot line. Fenton used a 9-man line attempting to get the safety, but without luck.

Strong Passing Attack Gives Antioch Win Over Palatine

by TERRY MOORE

The Antioch Sequoits, behind a strong passing attack, defeated the Palatine Pirates 33-12 at Antioch Saturday night. The Palatine offense was aided somewhat by the return of halfback John Dilks to the starting lineup. Dilks was injured in the first game of the season and has seen limited action since then.

Palatine opened the scoring in the first quarter, when after exchanging punts, they marched 41 yards in 9 plays for a touchdown. Bob Coates began the drive by running for 8 yards through the Antioch line. Dilks ran 4 yards for a first down on the Antioch 29. The combination of Dilks and Coates again paid off as the Pirates drove for another first down on the Antioch 16. A 5 yard penalty against Palatine, a 3 yard gain by Dilks, and a 2 yard run by John Grabowy put the ball on the 16 yard line. On the next play Dilks passed to Steve Cornwell in the end zone for the touchdown. The extra point try was missed.

IMMEDIATELY afterwards, Antioch scored their first touchdown. After returning the Palatine kickoff to the Pirate 41, Bill Layton ran 11 yards for a first down. After a 1 yard gain Don Schroeder ran 29 yards for the touchdown. Frank Walsh kicked the extra point giving Antioch a 7-6 lead.

Near the end of the first half Jim Scully returned a Palatine punt 23 yards to the Pirate 20. On the next play Schroeder gained seven yards. A 13 yard pass from Albert Reckers to Walsh resulted in Antioch's second touchdown. The extra point try was missed making the score 13-6.

In the third quarter Antioch drove from midfield to score their third touchdown. After two running plays Reckers passed to Sidney Parker for a 28 yard gain and a first down on the Pirate six. A five yard penalty against Palatine and a one yard plunge by Layton gave Antioch a touchdown. Walsh kicked the extra point.

IN BEGINNING of the last period the Sequoits scored on a 13 yard run by Schroeder after Reckers threw a pass to Lonnie Christensen which resulted in a 53 yard gain. Walsh kicked the extra point.

The Pirates then took the following kickoff and drove down to the Antioch 24 only to have a pass intercepted by Jim Scully who returned the ball to the Antioch 16. Two plays later, however, Palatine recovered a fumble on the Antioch 18. Two running plays brought the ball down to the 8 yard line. On the next play Jim Hess went over for a touchdown. The extra point try was missed making the score 27-12.

Antioch scored their last touchdown in the final minutes of play. Reckers passed to Christensen for a five yard touchdown. The extra point try by Walsh was missed resulting in the final score of 33-12.

Fenton Frosh-Sophs In Scoreless Tie

by MAX ZOLLNER

Fenton's frosh-sophs battled Grant to a scoreless tie Friday night on Memorial Field in Fenton's first homecoming game.

Both the Bulldogs and the Bisons fought hard but were hampered by the muddy and slippery field.

Grant threatened to score in the fourth quarter as they marched to Fenton's 10-yard line. A fine goal line stand by the Bisons halted the march.

With this ti the Bisons now have a win-loss record of 3 victories, 2 defeats and 1 tie.

Palatine Frosh Lose To Fenton

by GEOFFREY JOHN

Palatine's freshmen team lost their fifth game of the year to Fenton high by the score of 13-0. The ball game was played on Palatine's gridiron Tuesday night, Oct. 25.

With just a little time left in the game, Ward of Fenton ran 20 yards around right end for Fenton's second touchdown. Reeves then threw a pass to Dierking for the extra point.

Palatine's offense was not as good as usual nor was their blocking. Fenton's blocking was good and it aided them in getting their touchdowns.

Pirate Frosh Beat Antioch

by GEOFFREY JOHN

Palatine won their second freshman game of the season by defeating Antioch 23-6 on Palatine's gridiron.

Don Funston of Palatine kicked off and ran down the field in time to tackle Jim McGee in the end zone for a safety and two points. Following the kickoff Palatine forced Antioch to punt and took over. Nine plays later Tom Weitzel plunged over from the 2 yard line. He then proceeded to make the extra point. The score remained 9-0 in Palatine's favor until the last quarter when Dick Behrans ran 76 yards for Antioch's only touchdown. The extra point attempt failed.

Palatine bounced right back as Bill Coates ran 25 yards around end for Palatine's second touchdown. Tom Weitzel ran the extra point. With less than two minutes left in the game Bill Coates started around end and threw a pass to Dick Welty for 45 yards. Tony Mastroanni made the conversion.

Palatine Frosh-Sophs Blast Antioch, 42-6

GEOFFREY JOHN

Palatine's frosh-soph team continued their winning ways by mauling Antioch 42-6 for Palatine's sixth straight victory of the year. The ball game was played on Antioch's gridiron in considerable mud.

Antioch won the toss of the coin and elected to receive. After their first play from scrimmage Mike Millay recovered a fumble and Palatine took over. On the very next day Dick Wisner ran around left end 35 yards for Palatine's first touchdown. Dick then proceeded to make the extra point.

FOLLOWING the kick off Antioch again fumbled and Jim Elderidge recovered. Bob Nordin then ran for 21 yards followed by a 4 yard gain by Dave Hodgson and finally Dan Lemanski plunged over from the 1 yard line for the touchdown. After being penalized 20 yards Dick Wisner threw a pass to Jordan Danforth for the conversion. Finally Antioch got rolling and in a series of twelve plays which covered 51 yards. Roger Lang ran twelve yards around end for the touchdown. The conversion attempt failed.

Following Antioch's touchdown Don Teegan threw a pass in the flat to Dick Wisner who ran 44 yards for the touchdown. Dan Lemanski then added the extra point. At the half the score was 21 to 6.

ANTIOCH and Palatine had a number of long drives but they were always stalled. Finally Dan Lemanski took a pitchout from Dick Wisner and preceeded to out run the defense as he went 41 yards for the touchdown. Jordan Danforth made the extra point. Palatine's last two touchdown's came on a 4 yard run by Don Teegan with Dave Hodgson making the extra point while. Jim Elderidge, on an end around play went for 2 yards for the final score. Skippy Mudlaff made the conversion. The game ended with Palatine coming out on top again by the score of 42-6.

Palatine's running attack showed up very well as they gained 196 yards to Antioch's 63. In total yardage Paltine had 329 yards to Antioch's 97. Palatine's great weakness was penalties as they had 95 yards to Antioch's 25.

Arlington Frosh-Sophs Drub Riverside, 38-13, Amid Cheers

The frosh-sophs arrived Friday. That was the often heard comment on Arlington Heights high school gridiron as Coach Bill Beckman's second year squad dumped Riverside-Brookfield, 38-13, scoring in all 4 quarters to turn the trick.

Howie Berg tallied 4 of the Heights touchdowns, once on a pass. Larry Smith scored once, as did Ed Schumacher.

BUT IT WAS the blocking, the concerted team effort, the spirit that made the difference. The local sophomores have been coming closer all the time, including that 6-6 tie with Glenbard a week earlier.

After that one Coach Beckman, with a half smile after weeks of worry, said "maybe next week I'll have a big smile for you."

And smile Bill did Friday night after his boys had drubbed R-B in good fashion. Heights gained 305 yards rushing, a nice comfortable figure. The Card sophomores made 14 first downs, attempted nary a single pass.

Who needs passes when you can gain 305 yards on the ground at sophomore level?

HOWIE BERG ran 65 yards for the first Arlington TD, aided by a terrific cross body block by Ed Kelley. Berg later ran 35 yards for the second score. In the second period it was Berg again on a 42 yard touchdown jaunt.

Ed Schumacher scored No. 4 on a 3-yard plunge after a sustained 50-yard drive. Bob Lockwood kicked the extra point to make it 25-6. The visitors had scored in the opening quarter.

Berg tallied again in the third period after a 40-yard run. In the final segment Larry Smith took a handoff and went the final 10 yards with Lockwood's kick good.

BILL FISCHER called a good game for Heights. Best runners for the night were Berg, Schumacher, Kelley and Smith. Big help was the blocking up front, particularly downfield.

Coach Beckman cleared the bench in the last quarter.

A Letter From Wally Grace To Heights Fans

To all Arlington fans:

The fall sports program in Arlington Heights high school will be concluded this week. The home football schedule ended last Friday night.

In behalf of all the boys participating in our fall sports and their coaches, permit me to thank you for your loyal support. A new spirit seems to have been born.

A special thanks to the Cardinals Booster club for sponsoring banquets, supplying us with oranges, and above all imbuing us with old-time spirit. Also, it is indeed gratifying to see so many parents who no longer have students in school, attend our games.

While our total receipts for football will be approximately $300 less than last year, I'm inclined to believe that this was due to the fact that it rained on three of our four home dates.

I cannot conclude this little "thank you" note without paying a special tribute to the dads (as well as other fans) for sticking it out in the rain last Friday night clear to the final whistle. Could that be one of the many reasons why we had a winning football team this year?

I hope you will support our winter sports program as enthusiastically as you have our fall program.

Wilson School Softball Team Wins 2 Games

Wilson grade school Wildcats, north of Arlington Heights, played hosts to the Wheeling school October 26, winning the softball game 15-14. Wheeling got off to an early lead on walks to Fitzpatrick and Linneweh, 2 base hits by Christ and Massa and singles by Billy Cunningham and Tom Conroy. Wildness on the part of the Wilson pitcher gave Wheeling a 6-4 lead.

IN THE 4TH INNING Warren Walter relieved Don Markus as pitcher while Markus played short stop with Linneweh going to left field in Walter's place. Good clutch pitching by Walter held Wheeling while Wilson went on to lead 12-9.

In the 6th inning Wheeling tied the score 12-12, which held until the final inning when Wilson scored 3 runs to lead 15-12. Wheeling got 1 man on base and scored him on a home run to trail by 1 run. The next batter singled, following man popped out and Walter got the final man to ground out to end the rally.

Wheeling was coached by Marion Myiteck and Wilson by Robert Sidenius. Batting order: Fitzpatrick, Linneweh, Christ, Massa, Billy Cunningham, Conroy, Walter, Steiger and Markus.

WILSON WILDCATS played Our Lady of the Wayside October 31, again at Wilson school grounds. It was hardly the weather for a ball game, but Wilson forged into an early lead and maintained the lead throughout the game. The game had to be called at the end of the 5th inning with Wilson leading 11-4. Batting order was Markus, Fitzpatrick, Christ, Massa, Conroy, Cunningham, J. Kingsley, D. Kingsley and Walter.

Wild Game Giblets

Livers, hearts and gizzards from game are tidbits as eagerly sought by hungry hands as are the same pieces in chicken. They can serve the same purposes as chicken giblets; that is cut up for gravies or the dressings, or fried right along with the game.

Or they can be accummulated and used as a budget extender in the form of creamed giblets on rice or toast. I keep an empty half-pint cream carton in the freezer section of the ice box in which I drop the giblets from squirrels, rabbits, ducks, coots and other game.

When sufficient have accummulated, they are cooked, cut up and mixed with mushrooms and pimento in a cream sauce and served on toast points. (Sp

Arlington Frosh Trip Riverside As 52 Boys Play

Arlington's freshmen gridders completed the most successful year in history Monday night, drubbing Riverside, 20-7, and using all 52 boys in the process. This gave Coach Curtis Larsen's boys a 7-1 record for the season, the only loss being to Hinsdale. Victims were Niles, Palatine, Maine, Downers, Glenbard, LaGrange and Riverside.

Second time Arlington had the ball under the lights the freshmen marched 60 yards, setting the stage for a pass from Jeff Heintz to Bob Barbour for a 25-yard touchdown. Jon Weisenbach kicked the extra point.

In the second quarter Barbour scored again on a 15-yard pass play. Arlington started from the 50 after an exchange of punts with a pass from Heintz to Barbour the climax. Weisenbach's kick went wide.

DICK BADER counted the third TD for the local yearlings, a short lob pass with Bader racing 50 yards for the score. The opportunity came just 2 plays after Heights recovered an R-B fumble. Weisenbach converted the extra point.

Coach Larsen cleared the bench the final 6 minutes, sending in subs a team at a time, Riverside scored with 2 minutes left on a 15-yard pass to Jirik. Ratner kicked the extra point.

Arlington looked good most of the time, in spite of the mud. Line play was OK. Operating best on both offense and defense were Dave Buren, Barbour, Heintz, Allen Sander and Jim Morris. Jesse Nelf did a good job on defense.

Sizzling On The College Grid

No national records are maintained on fumble recoveries but Indiana certainly would rank at or near the top if there were.

The alert Hoosiers have recovered 13 of 16 opponents' fumbles, allowing Michigan State, Notre Dame, Iowa, Villanova and Northwestern to retain the ball only three times on their own miscues. Recovery of six of their own 12 fumbles give the Hoosiers an overall recovery performance of 19 in 28 chances.

Co-Capt. and tackle Bob Skoronski has been the top man in coming up with a loose ball, covering six fumbles in the first five games. Fullback Les Kun, fullback John Bartkiewicz, end Bob Fee and guard Ted Karras each have two.

WHEN MICHIGAN STATE invades Ross-Ade stadium Saturday to battle Purdue, it will be taking on a team that has shown little respect for state teams since the Spartans have entered Big 10 gridiron wars.

State has faced the Boilermakers twice as a conference foe and dropped both games.

The first defeat was a startling 6-0 upset when the Spantans were on their way to the Rose Bowl as freshmen in the conference. The win snapped Michigan State's 28-game victory streak, and was the only smear on what would have been the Spartans' third straight undefeated season.

Last year State saw altogether too much of Purdue's sensational passer Lenny Dawson, and bowed 27-13. Dawson completed nine out of 14 passes for 273 yards and three touchdowns.

MICHIGAN and Illinois continue a rivalry famed for upsets as they tangle for the forty-first time in Memorial stadium Saturday afternoon. While no victories have been sweeter for Illini than the four they have achieved in the last five years, the best-remembered upset occurred in 1939.

All-American Tommy Harmon and company roared into Champaign on a 165-point scoring record, and Illinois proceeded to rip the Harmon myth, 16-7. That was an Illinois team which won only two conference games during the season, but against Michigan it was invincible. A 47-yard sleeper pass, Jimmy Smith to George Rettinger, and a three-yard plunge by Smith produced two Illinois touchdowns. Mel Brewer, present Illini freshman coach, booted a 22-yard field goal and a conversion.

Another memorable occasion in the series came October 18, 1924, when the two teams dedicated Memorial Stadium before 66,609 fans. "Red" Grange was at his all-time peak that day. In the first ten minutes, he had his hands on the ball just six times, and he scored four touchdowns on runs of 95, 66, 55, and 40 yards. He scored again in the third quarter, and passed for Illinois' sixth touchdown in the final period. He played 41 minutes, gained 402 yards, carried the ball 21 times, and completed six passes for 64 yards.

PURDUE'S eight leading ball carriers all have been averaging four yards or better a crack on running plays from scrimmage in six games so far this season.

Co-captain Bill Murakowski, work horse fullback, has been setting both the ground gaining and scoring pace. Murakowski, who has a fast getaway speed and is dangerous in a broken field, has netted 411 yards in 101 rushes for an average of 4.06 yards and has scored three touchdowns.

Purdue's junior ends, Lamar Lundy and Bob Khoenle, are tied for the leadership in the pass catching department in six games so far this season with 13 each.

Lundy is leading in the yardage column with 184 while Khoenle has been responsible for 124 yards.

RETURN TO ACTION of three backfield regulars who missed last week's game with Ohio State because of injuries boosts Northwestern's hopes for its engagement with Wisconsin at Dyche stadium Saturday, Nov. 5.

The trio, Dale Pienta, quarterback, and halfbacks Jerry Weber and Ollie Lindborg, suffered injuries in the Indiana game two weeks ago that prevented them from playing against the Buckeyes.

All three have figured prominently in the Wildcat attack this fall and without them the Purple was unable to muster a sustained offense against the Buckeyes.

Weber's return is particularly welcome since the hard running senior ranks as Northwestern's leading ground gainer despite having missed two games because of injuries. The veteran right halfback has rolled up 198 yards in 45 carries for a 4.4 average.

Lindborg, probably the fastest player in the Wildcat backfield, will add punch to the left half spot where the veteran Jim Troglio has been carrying on despite a knee injury that has cut down his effectiveness.

Sophomore Ralph Jones, a small but speedy runner, may also see increased service Saturday after his performance against the Buckeyes. The 5'6" 165 pounder saw his first action of the year last Saturday and responded with a gain of 27 yards in five carries for a 5.4 average.

Trap Shooting Tourney

Maywood sportsmen's club is extending an invitation to all trapshooters to compete in a tournament this Sunday, Nov. 6. Entry fee of $12 will cover shells, targets and trophies, in the tourney to decide which gun club has the outstanding trapshooters in the area.

Trophies will be given to high in each class, high handicap score and high overall, with all ties to be shot off. Included on the program is a "ranch breakfast" from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m.

Rain Fails To Stop Cards Against Riverside, 13-6

Rain killed the statistics, murdered the scorebook, and dampened the fans, but failed to stop Arlington Heights high school Cardinals in fashioning another victory on the home field Friday night, this time over Riverside-Brookfield, 13-6. The win gave Heights a good chance to cop second, though first is now impossible.

A gratifying large number of fans remained to watch the entire game, in spite of a steady downpour starting shortly after the game began. They saw Cards score in the first and third quarters, and Riverside in the fourth, with Lew Green's toe providing insurance on 1 conversion.

Green dropped the ball while trying to punt, however, with Riverside recovering on the 1-foot line in the waning minutes of the game. Four plays later the visitors were across.

RIVERSIDE fumbled in the opening quarter, with Heights recovering on the R-B 40. Eight plays later, including 6 carries by John Sujack, the Cardinals were on the 15, from where Ashley Haase tallied. R-B advanced to midfield, then punted, with Heights being held. A bit later Arlington fumbled on its own 25 but took over when Riverside failed to make a first down within the 10.

Local spirits went high as Coach "Bus" Ormsbee's boys advanced steadily until held midfield. This went on until the middle of the third period when Riverside fumbled and Harrington dashed 27 yards and the touchdown.

SUJACK WAS HURT on the opening kickoff of the second half, and was held from remainder of the game. His groin injury was not serious, though, and he'll be available for action against York this week.

In final minutes of the game Riverside recovered the dropped punt attempt at the 1-foot line. Heights held 3 times but Anderson of R-B went across on the fourth.

Steady downpour hurt offense of both teams, though Heights defense looked exceptional at times. Bob Harrington looked good on both offense and defense, as did John Cummins. Attendance was good, considering the weather, though gate receipts for the 4 home games was down $300 from last year. It rained or threatened 3 of the 4 nights.

Arlington's freshmen gridders completed the most successful year in history Monday night, drubbing Riverside, 20-7, and using all 52 boys in the process. This gave Coach Curtis Larsen's boys a 7-1 record for the season, the only loss being to Hinsdale. Victims were Niles, Palatine, Maine, Downers, Glenbard, LaGrange and Riverside.

Second time Arlington had the ball under the lights the freshmen marched 60 yards, setting the stage for a pass from Jeff Heintz to Bob Barbour for a 25-yard touchdown. Jon Weisenbach kicked the extra point.

In the second quarter Barbour scored again on a 15-yard pass play. Arlington started from the 50 after an exchange of punts with a pass from Heintz to Barbour the climax. Weisenbach's kick went wide.

DICK BADER counted the third TD for the local yearlings, a short lob pass with Bader racing 50 yards for the score. The opportunity came just 2 plays after Heights recovered an R-B fumble. Weisenbach converted the extra point.

Coach Larsen cleared the bench the final 6 minutes, sending in subs a team at a time, Riverside scored with 2 minutes left on a 15-yard pass to Jirik. Ratner kicked the extra point.

Arlington looked good most of the time, in spite of the mud. Line play was OK. Operating best on both offense and defense were Dave Buren, Barbour, Heintz, Allen Sander and Jim Morris. Jesse Nelf did a good job on defense.

Sizzling On The College Grid

No national records are maintained on fumble recoveries but Indiana certainly would rank at or near the top if there were.

The alert Hoosiers have recovered 13 of 16 opponents' fumbles, allowing Michigan State, Notre Dame, Iowa, Villanova and Northwestern to retain the ball only three times on their own miscues. Recovery of six of their own 12 fumbles give the Hoosiers an overall recovery performance of 19 in 28 chances.

Co-Capt. and tackle Bob Skoronski has been the top man in coming up with a loose ball, covering six fumbles in the first five games. Fullback Les Kun, fullback John Bartkiewicz, end Bob Fee and guard Ted Karras each have two.

WHEN MICHIGAN STATE invades Ross-Ade stadium Saturday to battle Purdue, it will be taking on a team that has shown little respect for state teams since the Spartans have entered Big 10 gridiron wars.

State has faced the Boilermakers twice as a conference foe and dropped both games.

The first defeat was a startling 6-0 upset when the Spantans were on their way to the Rose Bowl as freshmen in the conference. The win snapped Michigan State's 28-game victory streak, and was the only smear on what would have been the Spartans' third straight undefeated season.

Last year State saw altogether too much of Purdue's sensational passer Lenny Dawson, and bowed 27-13. Dawson completed nine out of 14 passes for 273 yards and three touchdowns.

MICHIGAN and Illinois continue a rivalry famed for upsets as they tangle for the forty-first time in Memorial stadium Saturday afternoon. While no victories have been sweeter for Illini than the four they have achieved in the last five years, the best-remembered upset occurred in 1939.

All-American Tommy Harmon and company roared into Champaign on a 165-point scoring record, and Illinois proceeded to rip the Harmon myth, 16-7. That was an Illinois team which won only two conference games during the season, but against Michigan it was invincible. A 47-yard sleeper pass, Jimmy Smith to George Rettinger, and a three-yard plunge by Smith produced two Illinois touchdowns. Mel Brewer, present Illini freshman coach, booted a 22-yard field goal and a conversion.

Another memorable occasion in the series came October 18, 1924, when the two teams dedicated Memorial Stadium before 66,609 fans. "Red" Grange was at his all-time peak that day. In the first ten minutes, he had his hands on the ball just six times, and he scored four touchdowns on runs of 95, 66, 55, and 40 yards. He scored again in the third quarter, and passed for Illinois' sixth touchdown in the final period. He played 41 minutes, gained 402 yards, carried the ball 21 times, and completed six passes for 64 yards.

PURDUE'S eight leading ball carriers all have been averaging four yards or better a crack on running plays from scrimmage in six games so far this season.

Co-captain Bill Murakowski, work horse fullback, has been setting both the ground gaining and scoring pace. Murakowski, who has a fast getaway speed and is dangerous in a broken field, has netted 411 yards in 101 rushes for an average of 4.06 yards and has scored three touchdowns.

Purdue's junior ends, Lamar Lundy and Bob Khoenle, are tied for the leadership in the pass catching department in six games so far this season with 13 each.

Lundy is leading in the yardage column with 184 while Khoenle has been responsible for 124 yards.

RETURN TO ACTION of three backfield regulars who missed last week's game with Ohio State because of injuries boosts Northwestern's hopes for its engagement with Wisconsin at Dyche stadium Saturday, Nov. 5.

The trio, Dale Pienta, quarterback, and halfbacks Jerry Weber and Ollie Lindborg, suffered injuries in the Indiana game two weeks ago that prevented them from playing against the Buckeyes.

All three have figured prominently in the Wildcat attack this fall and without them the Purple was unable to muster a sustained offense against the Buckeyes.

Weber's return is particularly welcome since the hard running senior ranks as Northwestern's leading ground gainer despite having missed two games because of injuries. The veteran right halfback has rolled up 198 yards in 45 carries for a 4.4 average.

Lindborg, probably the fastest player in the Wildcat backfield, will add punch to the left half spot where the veteran Jim Troglio has been carrying on despite a knee injury that has cut down his effectiveness.

Sophomore Ralph Jones, a small but speedy runner, may also see increased service Saturday after his performance against the Buckeyes. The 5'6" 165 pounder saw his first action of the year last Saturday and responded with a gain of 27 yards in five carries for a 5.4 average.

Trap Shooting Tourney

Maywood sportsmen's club is extending an invitation to all trapshooters to compete in a tournament this Sunday, Nov. 6. Entry fee of $12 will cover shells, targets and trophies, in the tourney to decide which gun club has the outstanding trapshooters in the area.

Trophies will be given to high in each class, high handicap score and high overall, with all ties to be shot off. Included on the program is a "ranch breakfast" from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m.

Rain Fails To Stop Cards Against Riverside, 13-6

Rain killed the statistics, murdered the scorebook, and dampened the fans, but failed to stop Arlington Heights high school Cardinals in fashioning another victory on the home field Friday night, this time over Riverside-Brookfield, 13-6. The win gave Heights a good chance to cop second, though first is now impossible.

A gratifying large number of fans remained to watch the entire game, in spite of a steady downpour starting shortly after the game began. They saw Cards score in the first and third quarters, and Riverside in the fourth, with Lew Green's toe providing insurance on 1 conversion.

Green dropped the ball while trying to punt, however, with Riverside recovering on the 1-foot line in the waning minutes of the game. Four plays later the visitors were across.

RIVERSIDE fumbled in the opening quarter, with Heights recovering on the R-B 40. Eight plays later, including 6 carries by John Sujack, the Cardinals were on the 15, from where Ashley Haase tallied. R-B advanced to midfield, then punted, with Heights being held. A bit later Arlington fumbled on its own 25 but took over when Riverside failed to make a first down within the 10.

Local spirits went high as Coach "Bus" Ormsbee's boys advanced steadily until held midfield. This went on until the middle of the third period when Riverside fumbled and Harrington dashed 27 yards and the touchdown.

SUJACK WAS HURT on the opening kickoff of the second half, and was held from remainder of the game. His groin injury was not serious, though, and he'll be available for action against York this week.

In final minutes of the game Riverside recovered the dropped punt attempt at the 1-foot line. Heights held 3 times but Anderson of R-B went across on the fourth.

Steady downpour hurt offense of both teams, though Heights defense looked exceptional at times. Bob Harrington looked good on both offense and defense, as did John Cummins. Attendance was good, considering the weather, though gate receipts for the 4 home games was down $300 from last year. It rained or threatened 3 of the 4 nights.

Q. What is the most popular boutonniere for ushers at a church wedding?

A. The white carnation is probably the most popular.

The new scoreboard has been a welcome addition to the athletic plant at Arlington Heights high school. Football games were easily charted, down by down, with the public helping the "A" club foot the bill through various methods. Guiding lights of the scoreboard are Rusty Dowell and Don Pfyfe, seen here in a moment during halftime. —Staff Photo

Q. What is the most popular boutonniere for ushers at a church wedding?

A. The white carnation is probably the most popular.

The HUNGRY SPORTSMAN

By Eddie Meier

Roast Quail With Oyster-Mushroom Stuffing

A dinner of roast quail is a perfect end to an afternoon spent hunting over the dogs and an oyster-mushroom stuffing sets off these fine flavored birds in excellent fashion.

Such a stuffing is simple to make. Merely fill the cavity with whole oysters (which have been sprinkled lightly with salt and pepper) and button mushrooms. Sew the opening with a few loops of thread or skewer with a toothpick. Some persons use the oysters just as they come from the container but I prefer rinsing them under water first. The natual juices make the finished product a bit too "oystery!"

After the birds have been stuffed, placed on rack in pan and bake in a very hot oven (500 degrees) for 15 minutes. Then reduce heat to moderate (350 degrees) and continue baking until brown. Baste birds frequently with butter or bacon drippings to which a little red wine or water has been added.

"MORE THAN MEETS THE EYE"

There may hav been "More Than Meets the Eye" in the performance by the Palatine Players, but the visual result was a valiant attempt to resurrect dead material. Certainly this play was an inadequate vehicle for the well-known abilities of these actors.

The story revolves around Stanley Nichols, a struggling young writer, who tops fame and fortune with his children's stories under the pen name of Grandma Lettie. When "she" is votec "grandmother of the year," Stanley is forced to impersonate her for the benefit of his unwitting publisher and assorted journalistic characters. The publisher proposes to "her," members of the fourth estate become suspicious, and marital relations become strained. He finally admits the true identity of Grandma and is recognized for the good writer he is. In general, the play is a wordy takeoff on "Charley's Aunt."

Jim McGahan, as Stanley, gave needed comic relief when impersonating Grandma. We had the impression his performance would have seemed more convincing with a better script.

As his wife, Gladys Kuhn waded diligently through a morass of lines, that effectively prevented her giving credence to the part.

Mary Francis Cormier gave a humorous and professional rendition of Maud, the maid. With her many well-timed entrances, she did much to keep the play moving.

The teen-agers were portrayed by Cleis Jensen and Larry Brewer in a technically acceptable manner, and late in the play they caught a spark that carried conviction to their roles. This same spark would have helped Nancy Cameron as Nora, the neighbor, but she resigned herself to a colorless rendition of a thankless part.

Easy on the eyes was Bonnie Kirby, Life magazine reporter, who could— and did— model fashions elegantly. She wasn't convincing as a reporter, but who cares? Her photog partner was characterized well by Leon Stevens, who unfortunately failed to project some of his few clever lines.

Jim Bonsteel was convincing as the stodgy publisher. His proposal to Grandma was the comic highlight of the play.

The single set was tastefully designed. However, the mechanical presentation was hampered by uniformly bright flat illumination and the few attempts at lighting variation were awkward.

When we entered the excellent auditorium used by the Players, we were given a program that, for artistry and content, rivaled the best we have received at loop theatres. Copies of the publication should be sent to all such theatre groups as a model of competence.

We were first nighters. Perhaps the blue pencil was used diligently to delete the deadwood before the next performance. However, it is perhaps appropriate that at this time of the year we recognize the material for what it is—a turkey!

Roast Quail With Oyster-Mushroom Stuffing

A dinner of roast quail is a perfect end to an afternoon spent hunting over the dogs and an oyster-mushroom stuffing sets off these fine flavored birds in excellent fashion.

Such a stuffing is simple to make. Merely fill the cavity with whole oysters (which have been sprinkled lightly with salt and pepper) and button mushrooms. Sew the opening with a few loops of thread or skewer with a toothpick. Some persons use the oysters just as they come from the container but I prefer rinsing them under water first. The natual juices make the finished product a bit too "oystery!"

After the birds have been stuffed, placed on rack in pan and bake in a very hot oven (500 degrees) for 15 minutes. Then reduce heat to moderate (350 degrees) and continue baking until brown. Baste birds frequently with butter or bacon drippings to which a little red wine or water has been added.

Words & Music

By Erica Floyd

"MORE THAN MEETS THE EYE"

There may hav been "More Than Meets the Eye" in the performance by the Palatine Players, but the visual result was a valiant attempt to resurrect dead material. Certainly this play was an inadequate vehicle for the well-known abilities of these actors.

The story revolves around Stanley Nichols, a struggling young writer, who tops fame and fortune with his children's stories under the pen name of Grandma Lettie. When "she" is votec "grandmother of the year," Stanley is forced to impersonate her for the benefit of his unwitting publisher and assorted journalistic characters. The publisher proposes to "her," members of the fourth estate become suspicious, and marital relations become strained. He finally admits the true identity of Grandma and is recognized for the good writer he is. In general, the play is a wordy takeoff on "Charley's Aunt."

Jim McGahan, as Stanley, gave needed comic relief when impersonating Grandma. We had the impression his performance would have seemed more convincing with a better script.

As his wife, Gladys Kuhn waded diligently through a morass of lines, that effectively prevented her giving credence to the part.

Mary Francis Cormier gave a humorous and professional rendition of Maud, the maid. With her many well-timed entrances, she did much to keep the play moving.

The teen-agers were portrayed by Cleis Jensen and Larry Brewer in a technically acceptable manner, and late in the play they caught a spark that carried conviction to their roles. This same spark would have helped Nancy Cameron as Nora, the neighbor, but she resigned herself to a colorless rendition of a thankless part.

Easy on the eyes was Bonnie Kirby, Life magazine reporter, who could— and did— model fashions elegantly. She wasn't convincing as a reporter, but who cares? Her photog partner was characterized well by Leon Stevens, who unfortunately failed to project some of his few clever lines.

Jim Bonsteel was convincing as the stodgy publisher. His proposal to Grandma was the comic highlight of the play.

The single set was tastefully designed. However, the mechanical presentation was hampered by uniformly bright flat illumination and the few attempts at lighting variation were awkward.

When we entered the excellent auditorium used by the Players, we were given a program that, for artistry and content, rivaled the best we have received at loop theatres. Copies of the publication should be sent to all such theatre groups as a model of competence.

We were first nighters. Perhaps the blue pencil was used diligently to delete the deadwood before the next performance. However, it is perhaps appropriate that at this time of the year we recognize the material for what it is—a turkey!

At Mount Mary

Take 200 or more very green freshmen, stir well with enthusiasm and a desire to please, throw in a 1926 Charleston and some well-aged "mellerdrammer," add a can can or two and a marimba solo, mix with lilting voices and dancing feet, season well with red hot rhumba and a dash of mambo and serve with Scotch, Bonnie Lasses and all

That was the recipe for "Mulligan Stew" served by the freshmen of Mount Mary college in the gym Thursday, Oct. 27, at 8 p.m.

Local girls who took part in the show and were invested with academic garb included Mary Schmidt, Mt. Prospect; Roberta Meyer, Mt. Prospect; and Patricia Sczygiel, Bensenville. (CC

At MCC Spanish becomes more than lessons in grammar. In Mexican homes — where students learn to enjoy such native dishes as tacos con guacamole and chili relenos — the language becomes and idiomatic approach to international understanding.

Classes at Mexico City college, however, are taught almost entirely in English and include such diversified departments as anthropology, international relations, business administration, art, and creative writing. Founded some fifteen years ago, the school offers the American BA, BFA, MA, and MFA degrees and a two-year course leading to a Certificate in Foreign Trade.

Glaser was graduated from Dundee community high school, and received his BS degree from Northwestern university. He is a veteran of World War II and previously was employed with Marshall Field and Company. At Mexico City college he is gaining an idiomatic mastery of Spanish and becoming familiar with Latin American customs and culture.

Glaser, among a quarterly average of around 900 students from nearly every State in the Union, is studying for the same degree he could receive at home, but has the heightened advantage of living in a foreign atmosphere where the striking contrasts of Mexico range from pre-historic pyramids to some of the most advanced architectural structures in the world.

At Morningside

At Mount Mary

Take 200 or more very green freshmen, stir well with enthusiasm and a desire to please, throw in a 1926 Charleston and some well-aged "mellerdrammer," add a can can or two and a marimba solo, mix with lilting voices and dancing feet, season well with red hot rhumba and a dash of mambo and serve with Scotch, Bonnie Lasses and all

That was the recipe for "Mulligan Stew" served by the freshmen of Mount Mary college in the gym Thursday, Oct. 27, at 8 p.m.

Local girls who took part in the show and were invested with academic garb included Mary Schmidt, Mt. Prospect; Roberta Meyer, Mt. Prospect; and Patricia Sczygiel, Bensenville. (CC

As his part in the student managed self-help work program, he serves this year as an assistant. Last year he served as Construction head, overseeing all campus construction and maintenance, which includes the construction of a new science hall being built by the students.

At Mexico City

Richard P. Glaser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gust A. Glaser of Fieldale Farm, Palatine, has joined the increasingly popular fall migration to Mexico City college, the only American liberal arts college south of the Rio Grande. This term there are 765 men enrolled and 199 women.

At MCC Spanish becomes more than lessons in grammar. In Mexican homes — where students learn to enjoy such native dishes as tacos con guacamole and chili relenos — the language becomes and idiomatic approach to international understanding.

Classes at Mexico City college, however, are taught almost entirely in English and include such diversified departments as anthropology, international relations, business administration, art, and creative writing. Founded some fifteen years ago, the school offers the American BA, BFA, MA, and MFA degrees and a two-year course leading to a Certificate in Foreign Trade.

Glaser was graduated from Dundee community high school, and received his BS degree from Northwestern university. He is a veteran of World War II and previously was employed with Marshall Field and Company. At Mexico City college he is gaining an idiomatic mastery of Spanish and becoming familiar with Latin American customs and culture.

Glaser, among a quarterly average of around 900 students from nearly every State in the Union, is studying for the same degree he could receive at home, but has the heightened advantage of living in a foreign atmosphere where the striking contrasts of Mexico range from pre-historic pyramids to some of the most advanced architectural structures in the world.

At Morningside

Lawrence Hapke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hapke of Palatine has enrolled for the fall term at Morningside college in Sioux City.

Lawrence is a sophomore at Morningside, majoring in Math, is a member of the varsity football squad, and of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity.

Better Understanding Goal Of Farm-City Meetings

by JOHN H BICKET
Assistant Farm Adviser

Confusion and lack of understanding may be the best way to identify the position of feeling existing between farm and city residents of this county, state and nation. We have just completed a week of effort on a nation wide basis to improve this situation.

During farm-city week people met on common ground around a luncheon table and elsewhere in an effort to arrive at a better understanding of what happens on the other side of this question. People in all walks of life were striving to separate the facts from the many ideas and opinions which exist and hinder the truth from being known by all.

IT IS GOOD to have concentrated efforts on such a question but it should not stop here. Individuals everywhere must strive to know the full facts concerning the question.

It is just recently that figures have become available on the increased price of farm land. This is true — but it is not true that the talk about the rough economic situation of farms is false. Prices farmers receive for their commodities are down and the margins are very narrow. It is partially because of this that the price of land has increased.

HOW HAS this happened? Many farmers need more land to make their operation more efficient. This has accounted for 1/3 to 2/5 of all land purchases in 1954-55. Easier credit has been possible in some areas. Crop prospects looked good up to the end of July. In some areas business and professional men have been important buyers.

Finally, it is necessary in every case to look farther than the situation itself. Look for and evaluate the causes. (Fm

Flying Saucers Spoil The Grapes, So Law Prohibits All Landings

by BILL DILLINGHAM

Americans or Martians who come to Europe in their flying saucers must not land at Chateauneuf-du-Pape. A town ordinance recently signed by the mayor makes it illegal.

Although this might seem humorous to outsiders, the villagers take a very serious view of the matter. Because flying saucers and flying cigars have been seen circulating in the sky above Chateauneuf-du-Pape, the mayor has given warning that any such vehicle that lands within the town's jurisdiction will be confiscated by the authorities. There is also a one-thousand-franc fine for the pilot.

THE REASON for this hostile attitude toward extra-earthly tourists lies with the delicate state of the villagers' vineyards. The landing and taking off of such vehicles, it is said, will destroy the grapes for seasons to come. And it is the grapes of this area from which is made, allegedly, the best wine in the world.

This law comes in answer to "the mystery of Chateauneuf." Some time ago one of the local farmers awoke one morning to find that a section of his vineyard had been destroyed "by a large vehicle." Somebody later added that they had seen a flying cigar overhead during the night. The obvious conclusion, and one which Chateauneufers accepted after hashing it out at the village inn, was that the damage was done by the mysterious cigar.

EVEN THE VINES have not been the same since. The quality has dropped way below the standard necessary for superior grapes. A kind of "mutation" has taken place, farmers are convinced.

Town fervor, of course, has been at a high pitch during the recent weeks. The major deemed it suitable and necessary to sign such a law. Now the people have returned to a calmer state of mind, confident that as long as the law forbids their presence, the mysterious invaders will not return.

Average Home Owner to Have Lower Tax Bill in 1955

County Assessor Frank Keenan Thursday said the 1955 quadrennial assessment will show increases in Cook County of more than $1 billion for tax purposes.

Keenan said the increased valuations will provide added revenue for educational and other local government needs. At the same time, he said, the 1955 tax bill of the average home owner, both in Chicago and suburban Cook County, should be slightly lower than the current bills. The 1955 tax bills are received by the tax payer in April, 1956.

Keenan based his $1 billion figure on an increase of $400 million over 1954 in the 30 suburban townships; estimate of a similar increase in Chicago assessments; an increase in personal property valuations yet to be completed; and an equalizing factor for tax purposes to be determined by the State Department of Revenue.

KEENAN SAID the increases reflect the great development of the Chicago area and improved methods and increased efficiency in the operation of his office. During examination of the suburban areas, Keenan used a helicopter for aerial mapping of the county. Hundreds of pieces of improved property that had been listed as vacant were uncovered and put on the tax rolls.

Keenan said he is confident the reassessments are a fair and equitable valuation. He emphasized that the valuations are subject to review by the Board of Tax Appeals and the Department of Revenue. The 1955 total for all of Cook County was approximately $11 billion dollars after equalization.

Best Cure For Suicidal Trees

Trees frequently have suicidal tendencies.

They sometimes strangle themselves with girdling roots.

A girdling root is one that wraps around the base of the trunk or around another root instead of growing outward as it should. As it increases in diameter, it presses more tightly until circulation may be cut off, according to D. B. Magruder, field representative of Davey Tree Expert Co.

Girdling roots may develop either above or below the ground. Those above ground are quite obvious. Below ground they are difficult to locate, but the results can be seen above ground, even though the actual girdling cannot.

Periodic examination for this trouble is advisable, especially in the case of young trees that have been growing for several years on small lots or under other restricted conditions.

Possible indications of girdling roots are poor leaf growth; early defoliation; sparse crown development, particularly on one side; undersized leaves; frequent scorching and other characteristics of poor circulation.

Salute Leaders For Work During 4-H Week

Volunteer local club leaders in North Cook county will be sharing the spotlight with their 4-H club members during National 4-H achievement day Saturday, November 12, and during the county 4-H achievement day program November 10.

Assistant farm adviser John H. Bicket says national 4-H achievement day observance would not be complete without giving recognition to the work of local club leaders.

"4-H CLUB WORK in North Cook county would not be so successful as it has been over the years in teaching our young people how to learn by doing without the faithful interest, hard work and continual efforts of the local leaders," Bicket says.

There are 24 leaders of agricultural 4-H clubs. Many of these club leaders are the parents of 4-H boys and girls and share their problems with them. But many are not, and they are helping with club work because they want to have a hand in helping boys and girls to be better farmers.

Pete Cirella, Arlington Heights, Arlington Ranchers 4-H club; Dyoll Babbitt and Walter Johnson, Barrington Pioneers; Arthur Busse, and William Linneman, Elk Grove 4-H club, with Barbara Golden as Junior leader of Elk Grove; and Mrs. Phylis Koops and Mrs. Hugh Robinson, 4-H Scouts 4-H club.

Albert A. Koskela and Earl Saville, Golden Harvest and Palatine Potato 4-H clubs; George F. Klein Jr. and Sherman Schubbe (Jr. Leader) Hanover Hawks 4-H club; Victor Pohlman and Clark Foss (Jr. Leader) Junior Farmers; Eugene Daley, Maryville 4-H; Robert Herrman, Claire Neff, Medinah Ramblers 4-H; Joseph Geers, Northview 4-H; Harold Bergman and Herbert Plote, Palatine Twp. 4-H; Edwin Benhart and Harvey Hortik, Schaumburg 4-H; Ivan O. Reid and Ivan O. Reid, Jr., Washington 4-H; Gene Hughes and Albert Drewes, Wheeling 4-H club. (4-H

Arlington Plant Breeder To Be Honored

Chicago Horticultural society, at its annual meeting Monday, November 14, at 2 p.m., at its meeting hall, 116 S. Michigan ave., will honor some of the nation's leading plant breeders, who will include Carl Klehm, Algonquin rd., Arlington Heights.

Few people recognize what plant breeders do in order to produce a finer variety of a flower or vegetable. By extensive study of existing varieties, a plant breeder decides upon certain "parents" and grows a number of these varieties. As they burst into flower, he transfers pollen from one parent to the pistil of the other, often protecting the flower from contamination by bees or other insects, and gives care to the plant until seed is formed. Detailed records are kept of each cross, and the resulting seeds are planted next season to determine the result.

Carl Klehm is a member of a family long known as outstanding peony growers, and has won for himself a commanding respect in the development of new peony varieties. Among these are "Emma Klehm," "Charles White," "Vivid Rose" and "Pink Lemonade." (DL

QUITE CONTRARY
BY MARY

There are certain household tasks that give us both a frustration complex and a sense of great accomplishment. The frustration comes from the fact that we must take each member of our family on a tour and show them our labor fruits. They would never notice them otherwise.

There is only one word which describes such jobs as cleaning the refrigerator, stove, attic, basement, garage and that is crumby.

We go along for months and sometimes years stuffing things into the attic so that slowly but surely the front of it fills up to the point where no one can enter it without risking life and limb. Then comes the day that we are filled with virtue and energy and we tackle the job.

All the junk that must be thrown away we carefully move to the dirty garage as that place is already so cluttered that a little more won't matter. So then the attic is clean. Eventually the gentleman of our household will no longer allow the garage doors to be opened as he is too ashamed of us and our sloppy ways.

This calls for more energy and more virtue which we finally dredge up from the dregs and take care of the family eyesore. After we are through, the car once more has a place to lay her or his head. We heartily wish someone would invent collapsible bicycles to insure the car always having a place to rest.

Of course, in the meantime, all the residue from the garage has found its way down into the basement. This makes it very unhandy when the little woman has to go down there to wash and dry the clothes. We go along for quite a while with our eyes shut to the general melee that would confront us if we happened to peek.

With our virtue still unsullied but with a noticeable slump in our energies, we have at last tackled the last stronghold of junk. We admit that the parkway looks a little like a public dump but the trash removers will come eventually and we will be so clean that the children will hate it until the general air of good natured slovenliness returns and things are normal once more.

They believe that cleanliness is not next to anything except discomfort. They may be right as we find that carrying this halo makes our neck so stiff.

Outlook Bright For Christmas Shopping

Eight weeks until Christmas! Soft goods people, who have been watching houses, automobiles and household appliances make off with an unusual percentage of spendable dollars this year, feel they'll be coming into their own from now until the end of the year.

Actually, department store sales elsewhere than in the East (which has had more than its share of bad luck with weather this year) are already some 8 per cent ahead of 1954. This is the widest year-to-year jump since 1949-to-1950; however, last year was not a particularly good year from the standpoint of the ratio of sales to disposable income.

Personal incomes are at an all-time high. More significantly, perhaps, more people have money they didn't expect to have. Factory workers, for example, have added more than an hour a week to working time since mid-year. With wage increases, this has given the average worker an August-to-August increase in weekly pay of $6.05. (BB

Bits O' Business

Zinc rose half a cent to 13½ cents a pound, up from 12½ cents six weeks ago . . . Treasury 90-day notes sold a yield 2.333 per cent, highest rate since mid-1953 . . . Automobile assemblies crossed the 130,000 mark last week, with changeovers to 1956 models completed by the Big Three . . . Housing starts in September, at 113,000, were off 8 per cent from the August total. (BB

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

Man's true nature as a child of God will be set forth at Christian Science services this Sunday, November 6.

The Lesson-Sermon on the subject "Adam and Fallen Man" will include the account of Christ Jesus' healing of the man "which had a spirit of an unclean devil" as recorded in Luke (4).

Among the correlative passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy is the following (259:6 The): "The divine nature was best expressed in Christ Jesus, who threw upon mortals the truer reflection of God and lifted their lives higher than their poor thought-models would allow,—thoughts which presented man as fallen, sick, sinning, and dying."

The Golden Text is from Ephesians (5:8): "Ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

Man's true nature as a child of God will be set forth at Christian Science services this Sunday, November 6.

The Lesson-Sermon on the subject "Adam and Fallen Man" will include the account of Christ Jesus' healing of the man "which had a spirit of an unclean devil" as recorded in Luke (4).

Among the correlative passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy is the following (259:6 The): "The divine nature was best expressed in Christ Jesus, who threw upon mortals the truer reflection of God and lifted their lives higher than their poor thought-models would allow,—thoughts which presented man as fallen, sick, sinning, and dying."

The Golden Text is from Ephesians (5:8): "Ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light."

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

from Patty McArdle

Dear Peg:

Whew! It's a relief to have this day over. I hopped on a merry-go-round as soon as I got out of bed this morning and I haven't been able to get off until just a few minutes ago, when at last I said "good night" and turned out the lights in the girls' room. Two Halloween parties in one day have done in this old witch!

It was fun picking up our nursery school children this morning, as they were all dressed in costumes for their Halloween party. With one exception, the children all ran to the car, eager for me to guess who they were. I was so surprised when Cathy, who had been talking about the party for days, started to cry when she saw all the masked occupants of the car. Only after everyone had removed their masks and promised to leave them off, would she get into the car. With Cathy keeping a sharp eye on her friends—just in case anyone might reach for his mask—the trip went smoothly until we reached nursery school. Then, of course, the children wanted to put on their masks and scare Mrs. McDonald. I told them that they could, but that I would have to go ahead with Cathy, so that she wouldn't have to look at them. Holding Cathy's hand, I led the way into the house with all the clowns, goblins and gypsies following. Mrs. McDonald was very frightened and the clowns, goblins and gypsies were very delighted.

AFTER OUR MORNING PRAYER, we read Halloween stories and poems and played games until snacktime. Their little tables were set for a Halloween party with favors, Halloween napkins and candy and a special treat of cider and doughnuts. We had invited the mothers to the party and at about this time they started to arrive. Nell and I were pleased with the comments on how attractively the room was decorated for Halloween. We had carved two pumpkin faces while the children watched, the day before, and those we placed on the mantel and filled them with red and gold fall leaves. At various spots around the room, we had scotch-taped cardboard witches, black cats and pumpkin heads.

I had only a few minutes, between the time I dropped off the last nursery-schooler and the time I was to be at school to pick up Megan. It was a fast trip home, a faster lunch and a hurried putting on of Megan's "Mary dress" (we were to be back at school at 1:00 p. m.). Bridget's costume — as "Mary's Little Lamb" was in need of repair, since she had worn it all morning. I had patiently sewn little wads of cotton all over her white flannel, one piece suit and hood (used last year as a rabbit). A few hanging wads had to be quickly resewn.

The girls looked so cute — Bridget in her white fleece and pink satin bow and Megan in her pink full-skirted dress trimmed with ruffles and black velvet bows and beneath which ruffly pantalets showed. She wore a pink bonnet on her head and carried a school book under her arm.

THE ENTIRE SCHOOL paraded around the school yard, and then each class went to its own room for a party and the judging. The children enjoyed the party and when the judges arrived, they excitedly lined up and walked around the room for them. A little girl dressed as the Statue of Liberty won. I thought Megan would be disappointed and on the way home I explained carefully that she and Bridget had won last year and everyone must have a chance to win — it wouldn't be fair if the same child won every year, etc. Then, I noticed that all Megan was concentrating on was the separating of the black jelly beans from the less desirable ones, in the sack of candy she brought from the party. Finally, she said, "Mama, I don't care if we won or not. I have my beautiful dress.

Apparently, she meant just that, for she wore the dress to bed tonight. It took a while to convince her that she would be uncomfortable in the bonnet. In the bed across from her a little lamb curled up and went to sleep.

Patty

NEEDLE in the GROOVE

by PAUL LITTLE

This week, we've three splendid new Epic 12-inch discs to spin on our new Garrard manual turntable, using the Pickering 190D arm and 350 wide-range cartridge for concert-hall realism in the living room. Epic, as you know, is Columbia's foreign subsidiary, and rapidly making record history with its high artistry and brilliant hi-fi reproduction.

By way of tribute to the 200th anniversary of Mozart's birth, Epic's Mozart Jubilee director Bernhard Paumgartner directs the Vienna Symphony, Vienna Chamber Choir and such outstanding soloists as soprano Ilse Hollweg and tenor Waldemar Kmentt in highlights from "Thamos, King of Egypt." Mozart wrote this music on commission by T. P. von Gebler's heroic drama of the same name when he was only 17, revised it six years later. The story deals with the triumph of faith, a them Mozart was to use so wonderfully in "The Magic Flute" (best recording of which is Columbia's with Herbert von Karajan conducting). It is noble, beautiful music, magnificently sung and performed, with spacious, rich sound.

SECOND EPIC 12-inch lp of note pairs the brilliant, familiar Paganini First Violin Concerto in D. Minor with the same composer's newly discovered Fourth in D Minor, with Arthur Grumiaux, the brilliant young Belgian violinist, soloist with the Lamoureux Orchestra in the latter score; Herman Krebbers plays the First Concerto with the Vienna Symphony under Willem van Otterloo, one of Europe's finest conductors. Paganini was a violinist of legendary powers; indeed, it was said that he was in league with the devil to possess such virtuosity.

His Fourth Concerto was first played in Paris in 1830, but the score was lost and not found till a rag dealer came across the orchestral parts in a pile of papers purchased from Paganini's descendants in 1936. Natale Gallini, a collector of musical memorabilia, finally found the missing violin score in 1954, gave it to his conductor son Franco as a 35th birthday present. It was Grumiaux who premiered the concerto in Paris in November of that year, and Franco Gallini conducts the recording! Truth, as they say, is often stranger than fiction! A wonderful violin disc, brilliant, melodious!

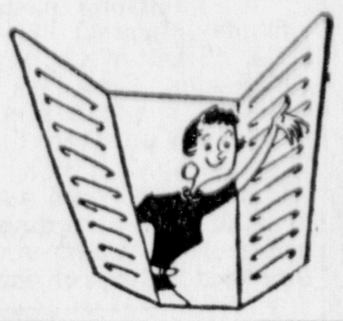
JUST AROUND THE CORNER



from Patty McArdle

Dear Peg:

Whew! It's a relief to have this day over. I hopped on a merry-go-round as soon as I got out of bed this morning and I haven't been able to get off until just a few minutes ago, when at last I said "good night" and turned out the lights in the girls' room. Two Halloween parties in one day have done in this old witch!

It was fun picking up our nursery school children this morning, as they were all dressed in costumes for their Halloween party. With one exception, the children all ran to the car, eager for me to guess who they were. I was so surprised when Cathy, who had been talking about the party for days, started to cry when she saw all the masked occupants of the car. Only after everyone had removed their masks and promised to leave them off, would she get into the car. With Cathy keeping a sharp eye on her friends—just in case anyone might reach for his mask—the trip went smoothly until we reached nursery school. Then, of course, the children wanted to put on their masks and scare Mrs. McDonald. I told them that they could, but that I would have to go ahead with Cathy, so that she wouldn't have to look at them. Way Back When

"Our Aim: To Fear God, Tell The Truth, and Make Money," — H. C. Paddock. 1898-1935

Happenings 10, 20, 30, 40, And 50 Years Ago This Week

Fifty Years Ago

November 3, 1905

Editor Paddock now furnishes steady employment to 4 men and 2 ladies besides extra help and pays all good wages, weekly, except to himself who works the hardest, puts in the most hours and draws the least money.

Mrs. Young and Miss Daisy Paddock were delegates to the Queen Esther Circle district convention at Harvard Thursday and Friday.

People better look out and not help themselves to other people's coal or there will be trouble.

A meeting will be held Saturday in the room under the bank to consider the best way to promote the location of a factory at Palatine. A concern employing 75 or 100 men would be a great thing for the town.

Pete Martin, the champion post hole digger, must have left here for parts unknown as we have not heard from him since.

Only one saloon in Schaumburg now.

Farmers will have lots of oats and corn this year and will give Nerge Brothers plenty grinding to do if they will start up their mill.

H. H. Quindel quit biz at the old stand Nov. 1 and turned the keys of the hotel and saloon over to John Fenz who will open a hardware and farm machinery store there next spring in charge of Herman Fenz and Herman Gieseke, tinner.

Forty Years Ago

November 5, 1915

Mr. Fred Jaquet picked a luscious ripe strawberry from his patch in the village October 30. He says that is the first time in his life he could find ripe strawberries after Jack Frost had cut the corn crop.

Mt. Prospect is the first postoffice in this vicinity to have a woman mail carrier. She is Mrs. Zelda Bennett, wife of the regular carrier. Mr. Bennett is on his vacation this week and his wife is taking his place. He secured the appointment for his wife after he was unable to secure a man assistant.

Now that August Hackbarth has disposed of his house we shall expect to see a new business block on that corner. August seems to insist that the business center of Palatine shall be north of the tracks even if he has to do all the building.

Either thanks to the "general goodness" of the younger generation or to fear of the police officers, few Halloween pranks occurred in Palatine. The Enterprise office had faith in the boys and left a paper burner out in the street where it surely must have been a great temptation.

The C & NW and the PLZ & W changed time Sunday taking off the summer trains.

William Busse and Son have orders ahead that will take all the famous Buick Sixes they can get on their contract until next April. They expect to deliver three cars a week during November.

The sudden death last week of J. G. Wieneke was a shock to the community.

Thirty Years Ago

November 6, 1925

This week Cook county adopted rules to govern new subdivisions. Wide highways are to be preserved, generous sized lots and building setbacks provided and a stern and vigilant supervision of wildcat subdividers assured in Cook county as a result of county commissioners adopting a set of regulations governing subdivision of land.

Mt. Prospect is coming to the front as a city. The old Burke farm is changing fast from a farming property to a fully developed city section. The H. Roy Berry company is developing this property and has planned extensive operations in and around Mt. Prospect and has several subdivisions adjacent to Arlington Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Horstman, Arlington Heights, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with a happy family gathering.

The Palatine Lions club will be host to all football fans who desire to hear the play by play details of the great Illinois-Chicago game at Champaign. Through the courtesy of Lion M. E. Plate, who will furnish the radio, and A. C. DDayten set, and operate it and th village officials, who have donated the hall, football fans will have the opportunity to hear the play by play story of the game, hear the yells and songs and even the whistle of the referee.

Two well-known families were united in marriage when Miss Lucille Hammerschmidt, Elmhurst, and Chester H. Franzen, Bensenville, were married this week.

Dan Bergman says he does not know who is going to pay for it but he could not stand the appearance of the railroad property west of his residence. A lot of dirt had been dumped on this place and Mr. Bergman hired a man and team to level it off The Enterprise suggests that the place be named Bergman Park and Dan be appointed guardian and caretaker.

Twenty Years Ago

November 1, 1935

Arlington Heights is faced with a peculiar problem. The government has given it nearly $90,000 to expend for park purposes and it has no park to expend it on. A citizen's committee spent Tuesday inspecting a number of sites. How and by what method the village expects to procure title to the needed property has not been determined. There are many local men now on relief who are looking forward to project checks to pay for their groceries this coming winter.

Every so often the Arlington theater will announce a one day show when adults and children alike will pay 10 cents to get into the show plus a food item of not less than 15 cents value. The theater will retain the 10 cents to cover operating expenses and the accumulation of groceries will be turned over to local charities.

This week bond holders asked payment of Mt. Prospect and demanded an accounting of special assessment funds. The holders of special assessment bonds of the village of Palatine rejoiced as the village authorized the division of $40,000 in special assessment funds on hand to the various bond holders.

Du Page farmers voted 217 to 15 in favor of AAA, federal farm program.

Christ Schoenbeck is leaving the Schoenbeck farm which has been in the family 75 years and moving to Arlington Heights. At an auction this week, Christ and John showed a little machine which was used by their parents nearly 75 years ago for washing clothes. It was not for sale.

Ten Years Ago

November 2, 1945

Herman C. Landeck, who served St. Peter Lutheran church in Arlington Heights as a teacher, choir director and organist for 29 years, died suddenly in his home. Mr. Landeck had put in 44 years in Lutheran schools. He showed exceptional talents in music at an early age.

Construction is under way on a 77 x 135 addition to the plant of the Arlington Seating company. The company decided a year ago to adopt modern designs for its product and to manufacture it complete. Roland Ziehn, an expert in the handling of steel, has become superintendent of the plant.

Rev. Robert Cowan Grady, new pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Arlington Heights, will preach his first sermon here November 4. He comes from Cleveland, Ohio.

Palatine citizens are completing arrangements for a grand Victory parade November 11. World War II veterans are asked to appear in uniform to constitute Commander Cahill's staff at the head of the parade.

Heroic action of neighbors saved the house and furnishings of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Botterman of Schaumburg when fire broke out in the attic of their home. The $2,000 blaze was extinguished by the Roselle fire department and farmers who carried water in milk cans from neighboring wells.

Three-Fourths Of Students Work To Attend U. Of Illinois

"Including summer jobs, at least three-fourths of the students attending the University of Illinois earn part to all of their college expenses," says dean Gerald W. Peck, who has directed student employment here for 18 years.

"More than half the students have some sort of job during the school year," he says. New placements run about 5,500 a year, but many of the 18,000 students on this campus having once been placed return to the same jobs year after year.

Some 2,000 men have meal jobs, working as waiters, dishwashers, or other helpers during meal hours and getting their own meals in return. This saves one of the largest items of student expense.

Traffic Judges Demand State Police Hold Licenses As Bond

A meeting of traffic judges with State's Attorney John Gutknecht unanimously recommended this week that state police demand bonds or drivers' licenses from those arresfed for driving violations.

This is now practiced by Chicago and Cook county sheriff's police.

COMMENTED Gutknecht: "Recent decrease in deaths in the Chicago area is due in no little measure to the fact that traffic tickets definitely now mean court appearances in Chicago and the sheriff's courts.

"At present," he said, "as many as 40 to 50 per cent of those arrested by state police fail to appear in some of the courts.

"I DO not feel myself justified," he concluded, "in continuing to prosecute cases against loyal citizens who freely appear — knowing that a large percentage of the defendants, because no bond is required, fail to appear."

In both Chicago and Cook County sheriff's courts, Gutknecht says, the percentage of appearances by defendants went up from 40 and 50 per cent to 90 per cent as soon as bond was required.

Escape through "Blood Alley" is outlined by John Wayne and Lauren Bacall to the trapped villagers of Chiru Shan in CinemaScope adventure-drama "Blood Alley" at Catlow theater, Barrington.

In the Shadow of + + + The Steeple

by William O. McGill

"The people have to find out that a church is 'where the Word of God is preached and heard and the sacraments rightly administered'," is the conclusion to which Joseph Haroutunian comes after a few months of sabbatical reflection of the mission and work of the ministry.

Dr. Haroutunian is professor of theology at McCormick Theological seminary. He is a deeply reflective student of the life and work of the church.

HE FEELS that the ministry in Protestant churches has become an intensely active affair. This leaves them with little time or inclination or aptitude to wrestle with the Word of God. They preach well, but the Gospel is not heard. When a man does all that is expected of him today he has neither the time nor the energy to grow in his understanding of the Bible.

"I do not think the people have any idea what it takes to preach the Gospel so that it shall work among them as the power of God for eternal life" says Dr. Haroutunian.

"Some are happy when they hear a familiar language of religion but they are not necessarily edified by it.

"Some think they should be reminded of their duty as Christians; but they find it hard to do it and are tempted to give it up. Still others are pleased when their ears are tickled with 'illustrations' thrown into a sermon more or less promiscuously; but they go away as they came in. In any case when the preacher is frustrated so are the people. But the latter have little or no idea that a grave injustice is being done to the man called to the office of the ministry."

IT MAY BE that there are some changes needed in the conventional activities of our churches.

"We may have to have less organization and more association. It may be that more can be done less formally; it is even conceivable that the Spirit of God can accomplish more among the people if they met more as Christians and held fewer meetings. In any case it is probable that church activity often becomes a susstitute for the Christian life. The preacher does not preach the Word of God because he is busy; and he is busy because he does not preach."

Test Garden Soil Early, Better Results

Before winterproofing garden tools, remember to do one job — test your garden soil. A soil test will get both you and your garden off to a faster start next spring.

Norman Oebker, University of Illinois gardening expert, gives some simple instructions for taking the soil test sample. For the average sized garden, pick the sample from about eight scattered spots.

At each spot dig a hole about shovel or spade depth. Take a thin slice from the side of the hole, all the way from top to bottom. You don't need much. Just be sure it includes soil from top to bottom.

Let the soil dry out in an ordinary room. Don't heat it. Then mix the eight slices together. Be sure they are thoroughly mixed. Then send about half a pint of the mixture to the soil laboratory.

You can get the test run at the University of Illinois. Mail the sample to Soil Testing Laboratory, Floriculture Building, University of Illinois, Urbana. Indicate what the soil will be used for —vegetables, flowers or lawn.

Cost of the service is one dollar. You'll get a report showing how much lime and how much of the major plant foods your soil needs.

Way Back When

"Our Aim: To Fear God, Tell The Truth, and Make Money," — H. C. Paddock. 1898-1935

Happenings 10, 20, 30, 40, And 50 Years Ago This Week

Fifty Years Ago

November 3, 1905

Editor Paddock now furnishes steady employment to 4 men and 2 ladies besides extra help and pays all good wages, weekly, except to himself who works the hardest, puts in the most hours and draws the least money.

Mrs. Young and Miss Daisy Paddock were delegates to the Queen Esther Circle district convention at Harvard Thursday and Friday.

People better look out and not help themselves to other people's coal or there will be trouble.

A meeting will be held Saturday in the room under the bank to consider the best way to promote the location of a factory at Palatine. A concern employing 75 or 100 men would be a great thing for the town.

Pete Martin, the champion post hole digger, must have left here for parts unknown as we have not heard from him since.

Only one saloon in Schaumburg now.

Farmers will have lots of oats and corn this year and will give Nerge Brothers plenty grinding to do if they will start up their mill.

H. H. Quindel quit biz at the old stand Nov. 1 and turned the keys of the hotel and saloon over to John Fenz who will open a hardware and farm machinery store there next spring in charge of Herman Fenz and Herman Gieseke, tinner.

Forty Years Ago

November 5, 1915

Mr. Fred Jaquet picked a luscious ripe strawberry from his patch in the village October 30. He says that is the first time in his life he could find ripe strawberries after Jack Frost had cut the corn crop.

Mt. Prospect is the first postoffice in this vicinity to have a woman mail carrier. She is Mrs. Zelda Bennett, wife of the regular carrier. Mr. Bennett is on his vacation this week and his wife is taking his place. He secured the appointment for his wife after he was unable to secure a man assistant.

Now that August Hackbarth has disposed of his house we shall expect to see a new business block on that corner. August seems to insist that the business center of Palatine shall be north of the tracks even if he has to do all the building.

Either thanks to the "general goodness" of the younger generation or to fear of the police officers, few Halloween pranks occurred in Palatine. The Enterprise office had faith in the boys and left a paper burner out in the street where it surely must have been a great temptation.

The C & NW and the PLZ & W changed time Sunday taking off the summer trains.

William Busse and Son have orders ahead that will take all the famous Buick Sixes they can get on their contract until next April. They expect to deliver three cars a week during November.

The sudden death last week of J. G. Wieneke was a shock to the community.

Thirty Years Ago

November 6, 1925

This week Cook county adopted rules to govern new subdivisions. Wide highways are to be preserved, generous sized lots and building setbacks provided and a stern and vigilant supervision of wildcat subdividers assured in Cook county as a result of county commissioners adopting a set of regulations governing subdivision of land.

Mt. Prospect is coming to the front as a city. The old Burke farm is changing fast from a farming property to a fully developed city section. The H. Roy Berry company is developing this property and has planned extensive operations in and around Mt. Prospect and has several subdivisions adjacent to Arlington Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Horstman, Arlington Heights, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with a happy family gathering.

The Palatine Lions club will be host to all football fans who desire to hear the play by play details of the great Illinois-Chicago game at Champaign. Through the courtesy of Lion M. E. Plate, who will furnish the radio, and A. C. DDayten set, and operate it and th village officials, who have donated the hall, football fans will have the opportunity to hear the play by play story of the game, hear the yells and songs and even the whistle of the referee.

Two well-known families were united in marriage when Miss Lucille Hammerschmidt, Elmhurst, and Chester H. Franzen, Bensenville, were married this week.

Dan Bergman says he does not know who is going to pay for it but he could not stand the appearance of the railroad property west of his residence. A lot of dirt had been dumped on this place and Mr. Bergman hired a man and team to level it off. The Enterprise suggests that the place be named Bergman Park and Dan be appointed guardian and caretaker.

Twenty Years Ago

November 1, 1935

Arlington Heights is faced with a peculiar problem. The government has given it nearly $90,000 to expend for park purposes and it has no park to expend it on. A citizen's committee spent Tuesday inspecting a number of sites. How and by what method the village expects to procure title to the needed property has not been determined. There are many local men now on relief who are looking forward to project checks to pay for their groceries this coming winter.

Every so often the Arlington theater will announce a one day show when adults and children alike will pay 10 cents to get into the show plus a food item of not less than 15 cents value. The theater will retain the 10 cents to cover operating expenses and the accumulation of groceries will be turned over to local charities.

This week bond holders asked payment of Mt. Prospect and demanded an accounting of special assessment funds. The holders of special assessment bonds of the village of Palatine rejoiced as the village authorized the division of $40,000 in special assessment funds on hand to the various bond holders.

Du Page farmers voted 217 to 15 in favor of AAA, federal farm program.

Christ Schoenbeck is leaving the Schoenbeck farm which has been in the family 75 years and moving to Arlington Heights. At an auction this week, Christ and John showed a little machine which was used by their parents nearly 75 years ago for washing clothes. It was not for sale.

Ten Years Ago

November 2, 1945

Herman C. Landeck, who served St. Peter Lutheran church in Arlington Heights as a teacher, choir director and organist for 29 years, died suddenly in his home. Mr. Landeck had put in 44 years in Lutheran schools. He showed exceptional talents in music at an early age.

Construction is under way on a 77 x 135 addition to the plant of the Arlington Seating company. The company decided a year ago to adopt modern designs for its product and to manufacture it complete. Roland Ziehn, an expert in the handling of steel, has become superintendent of the plant.

Rev. Robert Cowan Grady, new pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Arlington Heights, will preach his first sermon here November 4. He comes from Cleveland, Ohio.

Palatine citizens are completing arrangements for a grand Victory parade November 11. World War II veterans are asked to appear in uniform to constitute Commander Cahill's staff at the head of the parade.

Heroic action of neighbors saved the house and furnishings of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Botterman of Schaumburg when fire broke out in the attic of their home. The $2,000 blaze was extinguished by the Roselle fire department and farmers who carried water in milk cans from neighboring wells.

Three-Fourths Of Students Work To Attend U. Of Illinois

"Including summer jobs, at least three-fourths of the students attending the University of Illinois earn part to all of their college expenses," says dean Gerald W. Peck, who has directed student employment here for 18 years.

"More than half the students have some sort of job during the school year," he says. New placements run about 5,500 a year, but many of the 18,000 students on this campus having once been placed return to the same jobs year after year.

Some 2,000 men have meal jobs, working as waiters, dishwashers, or other helpers during meal hours and getting their own meals in return. This saves one of the largest items of student expense.

Traffic Judges Demand State Police Hold Licenses As Bond

A meeting of traffic judges with State's Attorney John Gutknecht unanimously recommended this week that state police demand bonds or drivers' licenses from those arrested for driving violations.

This is now practiced by Chicago and Cook county sheriff's police.

COMMENTED Gutknecht: "Recent decrease in deaths in the Chicago area is due in no little measure to the fact that traffic tickets definitely now mean court appearances in Chicago and the sheriff's courts.

"At present," he said, "as many as 40 to 50 per cent of those arrested by state police fail to appear in some of the courts.

"I DO not feel myself justified," he concluded, "in continuing to prosecute cases against loyal citizens who freely appear — knowing that a large percentage of the defendants, because no bond is required, fail to appear."

In both Chicago and Cook County sheriff's courts, Gutknecht says, the percentage of appearances by defendants went up from 40 and 50 per cent to 90 per cent as soon as bond was required.

Escape through "Blood Alley" is outlined by John Wayne and Lauren Bacall to the trapped villagers of Chiru Shan in CinemaScope adventure-drama "Blood Alley" at Catlow theater, Barrington.

In the Shadow of + + + The Steeple

by William O. McGill

"The people have to find out that a church is 'where the Word of God is preached and heard and the sacraments rightly administered'," is the conclusion to which Joseph Haroutunian comes after a few months of sabbatical reflection of the mission and work of the ministry.

Dr. Haroutunian is professor of theology at McCormick Theological seminary. He is a deeply reflective student of the life and work of the church.

HE FEELS that the ministry in Protestant churches has become an intensely active affair. This leaves them with little time or inclination or aptitude to wrestle with the Word of God. They preach well, but the Gospel is not heard. When a man does all that is expected of him today he has neither the time nor the energy to grow in his understanding of the Bible.

"I do not think the people have any idea what it takes to preach the Gospel so that it shall work among them as the power of God for eternal life" says Dr. Haroutunian.

"Some are happy when they hear a familiar language of religion but they are not necessarily edified by it.

"Some think they should be reminded of their duty as Christians; but they find it hard to do it and are tempted to give it up. Still others are pleased when their ears are tickled with 'illustrations' thrown into a sermon more or less promiscuously; but they go away as they came in. In any case when the preacher is frustrated so are the people. But the latter have little or no idea that a grave injustice is being done to the man called to the office of the ministry."

IT MAY BE that there are some changes needed in the conventional activities of our churches.

"We may have to have less organization and more association. It may be that more can be done less formally; it is even conceivable that the Spirit of God can accomplish more among the people if they met more as Christians and held fewer meetings. In any case it is probable that church activity often becomes a susstitute for the Christian life. The preacher does not preach the Word of God because he is busy; and he is busy because he does not preach."

With a heave and a ho this gigantic truck is righted at the intersection of Algonquin and Meacham rds., just south of Palatine. The truck overturned after colliding with a small pick-up truck that had failed to stop for a stop sign. No one was injured, though both trucks were badly damaged. Arlington Fender and Body shop cleared the wreckage.

Mr. and Mrs. William Schoepke and family of 11 children are pictured as they posed 26 years ago at a Des Plaines studio. Standing, left to right, are Lillian, Milton, Eleanor, Mildred, Arthur and Florence. Seated are William Jr., Willard, Mr. Schoepke, Dorothy, Mrs. Schoepke, Richard and Lorraine. All the children were born at the family home, 28 S. Vail ave., Arlington Heights and all were delivered by Dr. B. T. Best for the "standard" $25 fee. Dr. Best is still practicing in this area. Mr. and Mrs. Schoepke still reside at the old homestead purchased about 50 years ago by Mr. Schoepke before his marriage to Miss Amanda Winkelman of Des Plaines. The couple will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary in July, 1957.

BY LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

There is a law, part of God's innumerable natural laws which govern the universe—the Eternal Law of Justice. Throughout my life in my observation of people, I have seen this law at work and have marveled at how constant and inescapable it is.

Christ spoke of it as "whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap." I am sure that he had in mind more than carnal sin when he spoke, yet so often we are inclined to limit it with that interpretation. Definitely it applies as well to our personal relations with others.

GENTLE, good natured people almost always have a host of friends who habitually bring them their troubles, tell them their innermost secrets, seek their help. They are eager to do so because they feel that this person will never condemn them, will sympathize with them, try to help and advise them, and will keep their troubles to themselves. Thus, gentleness and good nature in an individual are rewarded by their being the recipients of the faith, confidence and love of others.

Gentle, kind people are eagerly helped by those who value their friendship. They are not restricted in life—and indeed often have success forced upon them by others out of gratitude for their help.

ANOTHER KIND of person who is well rewarded is the doer, the person with a flair or genius for certain kinds of accomplishment. Men who head great industries, religious organizations, and our government are the doers of the world. Their reward is recognition, a sense of accomplishment, wealth and power. Most people have the mental potentials for accomplishment, but only the minority are gifted with the will and energy which they must have to become leaders. Verily, they have their rewards.

What you contribute to mankind, you receive from the world. What you give in love and time, energy and sacrifice is returned many fold. This is the Eternal Law of Justice, constant, unavoidable, eternal.

Let Location Of House Rule Color Scheme

"Go ahead and use colors you like when color-styling the exterior of your home, but be practical about it, too," advises John Abbate, New York color stylist and interior decorator. "Don't be afraid of your color tastes but choose hues which contrast pleasingly or become an integral part of surroundings."

Abbate illustrates his thinking with a color scheme using complimentary colors to contrast against an urban background where there are no trees, shrubs, or natural beauty.

"A COLORFUL scheme is needed in the city," he says. "Suppose you choose a medium-gray asphalt shingle roof for a start. It's practical, long-wearing, and won't show soot and dirt. It's smart, too. Gay French blue siding would be a good complement, with white for window surrounds, shutters, and eaves trim. Then use bold and bright Chinese red to accent the front door.

"But while this might be smart in the city, it would probably look like a 'carnival poster' in the country. Country color schemes are better if subdued, allowing the house to merge with its background.

"YOU MIGHT begin with a deep green asphalt roof, move to pale green for siding, continue with pale citron yellow window and eaves trim, white shutters and flower boxes, and then use an apple green front door.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

BY LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

There is a law, part of God's innumerable natural laws which govern the universe—the Eternal Law of Justice. Throughout my life in my observation of people, I have seen this law at work and have marveled at how constant and inescapable it is.

Christ spoke of it as "whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap." I am sure that he had in mind more than carnal sin when he spoke, yet so often we are inclined to limit it with that interpretation. Definitely it applies as well to our personal relations with others.

GENTLE, good natured people almost always have a host of friends who habitually bring them their troubles, tell them their innermost secrets, seek their help. They are eager to do so because they feel that this person will never condemn them, will sympathize with them, try to help and advise them, and will keep their troubles to themselves. Thus, gentleness and good nature in an individual are rewarded by their being the recipients of the faith, confidence and love of others.

Gentle, kind people are eagerly helped by those who value their friendship. They are not restricted in life—and indeed often have success forced upon them by others out of gratitude for their help.

ANOTHER KIND of person who is well rewarded is the doer, the person with a flair or genius for certain kinds of accomplishment. Men who head great industries, religious organizations, and our government are the doers of the world. Their reward is recognition, a sense of accomplishment, wealth and power. Most people have the mental potentials for accomplishment, but only the minority are gifted with the will and energy which they must have to become leaders. Verily, they have their rewards.

What you contribute to mankind, you receive from the world. What you give in love and time, energy and sacrifice is returned many fold. This is the Eternal Law of Justice, constant, unavoidable, eternal.

Let Location Of House Rule Color Scheme

"Go ahead and use colors you like when color-styling the exterior of your home, but be practical about it, too," advises John Abbate, New York color stylist and interior decorator. "Don't be afraid of your color tastes but choose hues which contrast pleasingly or become an integral part of surroundings."

Abbate illustrates his thinking with a color scheme using complimentary colors to contrast against an urban background where there are no trees, shrubs, or natural beauty.

"A COLORFUL scheme is needed in the city," he says. "Suppose you choose a medium-gray asphalt shingle roof for a start. It's practical, long-wearing, and won't show soot and dirt. It's smart, too. Gay French blue siding would be a good complement, with white for window surrounds, shutters, and eaves trim. Then use bold and bright Chinese red to accent the front door.

"But while this might be smart in the city, it would probably look like a 'carnival poster' in the country. Country color schemes are better if subdued, allowing the house to merge with its background.

"YOU MIGHT begin with a deep green asphalt roof, move to pale green for siding, continue with pale citron yellow window and eaves trim, white shutters and flower boxes, and then use an apple green front door.

Vernon Meidell accepts the Will Loomis trophy for having the outstanding weekly in Illinois from Stuart R. Paddock, Jr., president of Cook County Suburban Publishers, donor of the trophy. The award is the top feature of Illinois Press association newspaper contests, recognizing general excellence and other merits such as best news story, best feature story, best use of illustrative material, best typography, etc.

Paddock Publications was just a half point from having Stu Paddock bring the trophy home to his own office. Meidell is publisher of Park Forest Star

Window Painting

We have just finished judging Halloween paintings in windows donated by public spirited merchants of Arlington Heights. A lot of thought and hard work must be combined with skill to make the completed paintings under the best of conditions. This Saturday was a nasty day to work outside, and you are all commended for finishing the job in spite of the cold, driving rain.

Everyone of the 210 windows was checked by the judges, even those not located in the center of town, and the range and originality of themes was surprising. Contests which occur every year are a challenge to the imagination to create new themes.

As described in your instructions and the press, each window was judged on these four points:

Originality, Quality of drawing, Composition, Over-all attractiveness.

Judges did not refer to the listings showing names of students and schools during the scoring; windows were identified and rated by number only until all entries had been judged. There was a wide variation in the amount of shelter available to keep rain off the paintings. Some were amply protected and others had partial shelter or none at all. This factor was carefully considered in the judging and allowance made for exposure.

No awards were made until all windows were judged and scored. Our hearty congratulations to the winners.

Nix To Statute

I feel that since the citizens of Arlington Heights shall vote on city manager under the provisions of the state statute very soon, one important point should be made. That is, if the referendum carries Nov. 19, Arlington Heights will have a new "form" of government.

To best explain this I'll parallel the situation to the federal government. Every four years the nation changes its government, not the "form," just the people in it. What is being attempted here is to change the "form." Imagine a senator in Washington being relieved of his committee membership, or a representative in Springfield having to hand over requests or complaints from his constituents to another person for action, if any. If the "form" is changed our trustees will lose their committee responsibility and sacrifice 100 per cent administrative authority. The city manager solely will decide whether requests or complaints have basis and his decision can't be changed by anyone, not even the mayor.

UNDER THE STATUTE form of city manager the major loses the right to recommend appointment of department heads and any board or local improvements. The board of trustees loses its balancing factor to study the major's recommendations and approve or disapprove his appointments. In other words the city manager ONLY has complete control of appointments and administration. His word is final and he "doesn't have to consult anyone about anything."

That briefly is just ONE aspect of the change in "form" of government asked by the proponents to the statute.

I doubt that the people of Arlington Heights will favor a "form" which tends to subordinate elected officials to that of an appointed official ... we wonder. I also doubt that the citizens of Arlington Heights will want to throw off the balance between elected executives and the elected legislature as so defined in the Constitution of the United States.

Village Manager

I read with a great deal of interest the "few facts" which our Arlington Heights village trustee, Forrest F. Davis, submitted in his letter appearing in the "Fence Post" Thursday, October 20, in support of his opposition to the adoption of the city manager form of government for Arlington Heights. Having had the opportunity to observe first hand the development of the city manager movement in Illinois and knowing how it is operating in a number of communities, I would like to comment on some of his statements which certainly lead to distorted and incorrect conclusions regarding this form of government.

Mr. Davis stated that in the event the managerial form of government is adopted it is in effect a contract which will not permit a change in our form of local government until 1961. This may be true, but there is nothing unusual in permitting a new form of government an opportunity to get properly established and to prove itself capable of doing an adequate job. This principle is recognized in the term of office given to elected officials. We must keep in mind, however, that the city manager cannot take refuge in this principle. It is not for him; he has no term of office and under the statute can be discharged at any time.

Trustee Davis says that the managerial form of government appears to be the most expensive type of government yet devised and cities in support thereof that in six communities smaller than Arlington Heights, in Cook County, having a city manager the tax rate has increased an average of 28 per cent from 1952 to 1954. These six communities are not named but he does single out Glenview, Homewood and Kenilworth as horrible examples of tax rate increases.

IN GLENVIEW, he stated, the village tax rate went up 65 per cent and this is about right. What Mr. Davis neglected to mention, however, is the fact that the library tax is included in this village tax and Glenview has under construction a $200,000 library building financed by a bond issue approved by the voters. The people of Glenview also voted for water main extensions and pumping plant improvements increasing the tax rate. Both of these projects, the library and the water plant improvements, were approved by a 5 to 1 vote.

The second named village, Homewood, is charged with an increase in the tax rate of 60 per cent over the 1952 rate. This increase was in a large measure brought about through increased levies for roads and bridges and the inclusion of municipal employees under the Illinois Municpal Retirement Fund. Another fact which must be considered is the tremendous population increase of Homewood which rose from 5,900 in 1950 to 10,600, determined by a special census in 1953.

The third was Kenilworth with an increase in the tax rate of 30 per cent over 1952. Again, it is obvious that trustee Davis neglected to ascertain the reason for the increase. It was brought about by the increased cost of fire protection which is obtained under contract with Winnetka, a larger police force and through wage increases for municipal employees.

It must be kept in mind it is not the city manager who increases the tax rate—it is done by the legislative branch—the village board or council or by the favorable vote of the people. Further, the question isn't how high or low your rate is but rather how much service you are getting for you tax dollar.

TRUSTEE DAVIS mentioned that the manager form of government is not a "cure-all" for any community's complex problems and I believe he is entirely correct in this statement. The solution to these problems can only be accomplished by interested citizens in a community through their duly elected representatives who should establish sound policies to be carried out by experts trained in the field of local government.

In conclusion, it is interesting to observe that since 1918, when the managerial form of government came into existence, 1,332 communities in the United States have adopted this form of government. Throughout this entire period only 57 cities and villages have abandoned this form of government. While the city manager form of government is not a "cure-all," it is evident that citizens in communities throughout the nation have thought well of the city manager plan once it was adopted and more municipalities are turning to this form every day.

Little League

As chairman of the benefit dance committee of the women's auxiliary of the Arlington Heights Little League, I want to thank you for your courtesy and generousity in providing us with the shipping tags which we used for name tags at that benefit.

We felt that the dance was quite successful in every way, and with all of our expenses paid as of today the women's auxiliary has realized $560.00 for the Little League organization in this community. You and your paper have contributed in many ways to the success of this program for the boys of Arlington Heights, and we are very appreciative of this additional courtesy.

Panel On Manager

The challenge by Mr. Bishop to debate the Arlington Heights village manager issue with me seems to be a grandstand play for publicity. Such a debate would certainly not attract a dozen people. A more reasonable procedure would be to invite a panel discussion with equal representation on both sides of the issue.

I have nothing to sell the people of Arlington Heights. But, I am confident, a change in our form of government will not cure any existing ills. I was village clerk from 1941 to 1953, and the level of government during my tenure of office was never as chaotic as it is now. I do not understand what Mr. Bishop means by not wanting to return to that level. We had good board members with common sense then..in fact, good enough to attract him to move her about 1945. What improvement have we had with a manager?

THE QUESTION of changing our form of government to managerial by statute should never be resolved on the basis of personalities. If any official is undesirable, he can be voted out at the next election. The issue before us is shall we adopt the managerial form of government? We can not vote it out before 1961 (4 years from the next municipal election) which is 4 years from April, 1957. That is law.

It is common practice in campaigns by pro-manager groups to single out a local official who opposes them in their effort to change our form of government, and attack most viciously. And it isn't news that the whispering campaign started on me some time ago, just as soon as I indicated I would not sit idly by and let the voters be hoodwinked with the manager propaganda.

I DO NOT propose to use the newspaper to air my personal difference of opinion with individuals or any member of the board of trustees. Mr. Bishop has a right to express his opinions. The issue is now up to the voters of Arlington Heights. Let's give the people the facts and they will decide it November 19.

Forrest F. Davis

Non-Voters

It is a sad state of affairs, when only a little over 1000 voters went to the polls last Saturday and voted for the park expansion plan bond issue out of a town of 16,000 or more people of which nearly one half are registered voters. There surely must have been a lot of community interested citizens or voters who died in their civic interest and pride that day.

Fortunately the vote was around 870 for and only 180 against this plan, but surely it is by no means a vote of confidence to your park board for such a poor turnout, in appreciation for the endless hours of time, thought and planning that they put in for your sound investment for our youth of today and tomorrow.

IF YOU WOULD transcribe the percentage of voters that voted as against the total of registered voters, we surely would come up with a very "puny" batting average. If that is the kind of an average we are going to have at the polls in vital community affairs, then all we can say is that its very very low in community interest and pride and something should be done about it to wake up the citizenry.

With two more very vital and important elections coming up very shortly this month, namely the high school bond issue November 5 and the village manager plan and new fire house on the north side, we had better all get out and vote "Yes" on all three issues so that we can go forward or else we will find ourselves on the downgrade. We may be the city of good neighbors, but when it comes time to go to the polls, we find ourselves very poor and very lackadaisical in this respect.

Barbershoppers

I was frankly incensed to find no mention of the barbershop concert of October 23 in the columns of your paper. It seems to me that such a large effort in behalf of the hospital is at least as deserving of news space as Halloween pennies or the grand closing of the Village Kooler.

My husband, as a barbershopper, worked hard to make the concert the success that it was. I also sold tickets as a member of womans' club. I think that we, along with all other members of both organizations, are entitled to some recognition of our efforts.

Aside from the fact that this was a hospital benefit, the concert was worthy of comment as one of the best community entertainments put on this year.

In The Future

A window lock that secures the sash when open or closed is so simple the housewife can attach it ... Seat coveralls of corduroy are available for your automobile for bad weather ... A new low-cost pump will move by the impeller method any liquid that doesn't corrode bronze or dissolve neoprene ... A high-gloss enamel dries within ten minutes without leaving brush marks, says its manufacturer, and won't lift off if applied over old paint ... A lightweight magnesium ladder converts from a six-foot step ladder to a nine-foot extension ladder.

Window Painting

We have just finished judging Halloween paintings in windows donated by public spirited merchants of Arlington Heights. A lot of thought and hard work must be combined with skill to make the completed paintings under the best of conditions. This Saturday was a nasty day to work outside, and you are all commended for finishing the job in spite of the cold, driving rain.

Everyone of the 210 windows was checked by the judges, even those not located in the center of town, and the range and originality of themes was surprising. Contests which occur every year are a challenge to the imagination to create new themes.

As described in your instructions and the press, each window was judged on these four points:

Originality, Quality of drawing, Composition, Over-all attractiveness.

To keep the scoring perfectly fair, points were deducted for paint spills, cans and debris left at or near the scene of the work.

Judges did not refer to the listings showing names of students and schools during the scoring; windows were identified and rated by number only until all entries had been judged. There was a wide variation in the amount of shelter available to keep rain off the paintings. Some were amply protected and others had partial shelter or none at all. This factor was carefully considered in the judging and allowance made for exposure.

No awards were made until all windows were judged and scored. Our hearty congratulations to the winners.

Nix To Statute

I feel that since the citizens of Arlington Heights shall vote on city manager under the provisions of the state statute very soon, one important point should be made. That is, if the referendum carries Nov. 19, Arlington Heights will have a new "form" of government.

To best explain this I'll parallel the situation to the federal government. Every four years the nation changes its government, not the "form,' just the people in it. What is being attempted here is to change the "form." Imagine a senator in Washington being relieved of his committee membership, or a representative in Springfield having to hand over requests or complaints from his constituents to another person for action, if any. If the "form" is changed our trustees will lose their committee responsibility and sacrifice 100 per cent administrative authority. The city manager solely will decide whether requests or complaints have basis and his decision can't be changed by anyone, not even the mayor.

UNDER THE STATUTE form of city manager the major loses the right to recommend appointment of department heads and any board or local improvements. The board of trustees loses its balancing factor to study the major's recommendations and approve or disapprove his appointments. In other words the city manager ONLY has complete control of appointments and administration. His word is final and he "doesn't have to consult anyone about anything."

That briefly is just ONE aspect of the change in "form" of government asked by the proponents to the statute.

I doubt that the people of Arlington Heights will favor a "form" which tends to subordinate elected officials to that of an appointed official ... we wonder. I also doubt that the citizens of Arlington Heights will want to throw off the balance between elected executives and the elected legislature as so defined in the Constitution of the United States.

Village Manager

I read with a great deal of interest the "few facts" which our Arlington Heights village trustee, Forrest F. Davis, submitted in his letter appearing in the "Fence Post" Thursday, October 20. in support of his opposition to the adoption of the city manager form of government for Arlington Heights. Having had the opportunity to observe first hand the development of the city manager movement in Illinois and knowing how it is operating in a number of communities, I would like to comment on some of his statements which certainly lead to distorted and incorrect conclusions regarding this form of government.

Mr. Davis stated that in the event the managerial form of government is adopted it is in effect a contract which will not permit a change in our form of local government until 1961. This may be true, but there is nothing unusual in permitting a new form of government an opportunity to get properly established and to prove itself capable of doing an adequate job. This principle is recognized in the term of office given to elected officials. We must keep in mind, however, that the city manager cannot take refuge in this principle. It is not for him; he has no term of office and under the statute can be discharged at any time.

Trustee Davis says that the managerial form of government appears to be the most expensive type of government yet devised and cities in support thereof that in six communities smaller than Arlington Heights, in Cook County, having a city manager the tax rate has increased an average of 28 per cent from 1952 to 1954. These six communities are not named but he does single out Glenview, Homewood and Kenilworth as horrible examples of tax rate increases.

IN GLENVIEW, he stated, the village tax rate went up 65 per cent and this is about right. What Mr. Davis neglected to mention, however, is the fact that the library tax is included in this village tax and Glenview has under construction a $200,000 library building financed by a bond issue approved by the voters. The people of Glenview also voted for water main extensions and pumping plant improvements increasing the tax rate. Both of these projects, the library and the water plant improvements, were approved by a 5 to 1 vote.

The second named village, Homewood, is charged with an increase in the tax rate of 60 per cent over the 1952 rate. This increase was in a large measure brought about through increased levies for roads and bridges and the inclusion of municipal employees under the Illinois Municpal Retirement Fund. Another fact which must be considered is the tremendous population increase of Homewood which rose from 5,900 in 1950 to 10,600, determined by a special census in 1953.

The third was Kenilworth with an increase in the tax rate of 30 per cent over 1952. Again, it is obvious that trustee Davis neglected to ascertain the reason for the increase. It was brought about by the increased cost of fire protection which is obtained under contract with Winnetka, a larger police force and through wage increases for municipal employees.

It must be kept in mind it is not the city manager who increases the tax rate—it is done by the legislative branch—the village board or council or by the favorable vote of the people. Further, the question isn't how high or low your rate is but rather how much service you are getting for you tax dollar.

TRUSTEE DAVIS mentioned that the manager form of government is not a "cure-all" for any community's complex problems and I believe he is entirely correct in this statement. The solution to these problems can only be accomplished by interested citizens in a community through their duly elected representatives who should establish sound policies to be carried out by experts trained in the field of local government.

In conclusion, it is interesting to observe that since 1918, when the managerial form of government came into existence, 1,332 communities in the United States have adopted this form of government. Throughout this entire period only 57 cities and villages have abandoned this form of government. While the city manager form of government is not a "cure-all," it is evident that citizens in communities throughout the nation have thought well of the city manager plan once it was adopted and more municipalities are turning to this form every day.

Little League

As chairman of the benefit dance committee of the women's auxiliary of the Arlington Heights Little League, I want to thank you for your courtesy and generousity in providing us with the shipping tags which we used for name tags at that benefit.

We felt that the dance was quite successful in every way, and with all of our expenses paid as of today the women's auxiliary has realized $560.00 for the Little League organization in this community. You and your paper have contributed in many ways to the success of this program for the boys of Arlington Heights, and we are very appreciative of this additional courtesy.

Panel On Manager

The challenge by Mr. Bishop to debate the Arlington Heights village manager issue with me seems to be a grandstand play for publicity. Such a debate would certainly not attract a dozen people. A more reasonable procedure would be to invite a panel discussion with equal representation on both sides of the issue.

I have nothing to sell the people of Arlington Heights. But, I am confident, a change in our form of government will not cure any existing ills. I was village clerk from 1941 to 1953, and the level of government during my tenure of office was never as chaotic as it is now. I do not understand what Mr. Bishop means by not wanting to return to that level. We had good board members with common sense then..in fact, good enough to attract him to move her about 1945. What improvement have we had with a manager?

THE QUESTION of changing our form of government to managerial by statute should never be resolved on the basis of personalities. If any official is undesirable, he can be voted out at the next election. The issue before us is shall we adopt the managerial form of government? We can not vote it out before 1961 (4 years from the next municipal election) which is 4 years from April, 1957. That is law.

It is common practice in campaigns by pro-manager groups to single out a local official who opposes them in their effort to change our form of government, and attack most viciously. And it isn't news that the whispering campaign started on me some time ago, just as soon as I indicated I would not sit idly by and let the voters be hoodwinked with the manager propaganda.

I DO NOT propose to use the newspaper to air my personal difference of opinion with individuals or any member of the board of trustees. Mr. Bishop has a right to express his opinions. The issue is now up to the voters of Arlington Heights. Let's give the people the facts and they will decide it November 19.

Forrest F. Davis

Non-Voters

It is a sad state of affairs, when only a little over 1000 voters went to the polls last Saturday and voted for the park expansion plan bond issue out of a town of 16,000 or more people of which nearly one half are registered voters. There surely must have been a lot of community interested citizens or voters who died in their civic interest and pride that day.

Fortunately the vote was around 870 for and only 180 against this plan, but surely it is by no means a vote of confidence to your park board for such a poor turnout, in appreciation for the endless hours of time, thought and planning that they put in for your sound investment for our youth of today and tomorrow.

IF YOU WOULD transcribe the percentage of voters that voted as against the total of registered voters, we surely would come up with a very "puny" batting average. If that is the kind of an average we are going to have at the polls in vital community affairs, then all we can say is that its very very low in community interest and pride and something should be done about it to wake up the citizenry.

With two more very vital and important elections coming up very shortly this month, namely the high school bond issue November 5 and the village manager plan and new fire house on the north side, we had better all get out and vote "Yes" on all three issues so that we can go forward or else we will find ourselves on the downgrade. We may be the city of good neighbors, but when it comes time to go to the polls, we find ourselves very poor and very lackadaisical in this respect.

In The Future

A window lock that secures the sash when open or closed is so simple the housewife can attach it ... Seat coveralls of corduroy are available for your automobile for bad weather ... A new low-cost pump will move by the impeller method any liquid that doesn't corrode bronze or dissolve neoprene ... A high-gloss enamel dries within ten minutes without leaving brush marks, says its manufacturer, and won't lift off if applied over old paint ... A lightweight magnesium ladder converts from a six-foot step ladder to a nine-foot extension ladder.

Barbershoppers

I was frankly incensed to find no mention of the barbershop concert of October 23 in the columns of your paper. It seems to me that such a large effort in behalf of the hospital is at least as deserving of news space as Halloween pennies or the grand closing of the Village Kooler.

My husband, as a barbershopper, worked hard to make the concert the success that it was. I also sold tickets as a member of womans' club. I think that we, along with all other members of both organizations, are entitled to some recognition of our efforts.

Aside from the fact that this was a hospital benefit, the concert was worthy of comment as one of the best community entertainments put on this year.

Should Take Care In Writing Agricultural Seed Contracts

Buying and selling agricultural seeds are important business transactions to many farmers. They are important from the standpoint of both economic and legal effect on the parties concerned.

Before a farmer buys certified seed, he generally reaches some kind of agreement on price, kind of seed and time of delivery. If the seed is to be delivered at a future date, a contract in writing is always advisable. If the purchase price exceeds $500, the agreement must be in writing to make it enforceable.

FOR MOST PART these simple contracts cause no trouble if the seed is adapted to the region and a reasonable price is paid for the certified seed. However, some legal difficulty is being experienced with a new kind of contract, usually called a "seed growers' agreement" or a "selling and commission agreement." Under this contract the grower buys certified seed from a company and agrees to produce certified seed on a certain number of acres.

The seed company agrees to produce certified seed on a certain number of acres. The seed company agrees to furnish the seed to the farmer (usually at a fancy price) and takes a first option to buy the certified seed he produces. In some cases the company contracts to "offer for sale" the grower's seed — and a few contracts actually agree to buy all of the certified seed that is produced — at a price above the market price.

ALL OF THESE contracts are probably legal and binding. The difficulty stems from these objectionable provisions in the grower contracts: (1) The seed company agrees only to "offer for sale" the grower's certified seed or to purchase the seed "if needed." In either case the company makes no guarantee either to sell the seed that is produced or to buy it. (2) The parts of the contract covering the seed company's responsibility to sell or buy the seed are vague and give the company a great deal of discretion. (3) The contract form commonly used by out-of-state companies is not adapted to Illinois law.

For example, a contract might state that the seed must be certified by the state of Illinois. The state of Illinois does not certify seed. This obligation has been delegated to the Illinois crop improvement association.

Grower contracts that bind the seed company to buy all of the certified seed grown are of course more favorable to the farmer. But such contracts place notice and certification obligations on the grower that he must follow or the company can break the contract. If a farmer has not grown certified seed before, it would be advisable for him to learn the requirements from the Illinois Crop Improvement Association at Urbana before signing a grower contract.

AT LEAST one out-of state seed company has failed to meet its contract. It is difficult for an Illinois farmer to take legal action against an out-of-state company. The best advice, therefore, is to do two things before signing a contract:

1. Make sure you are dealing with a reputable seed dealer. If necessary, write or call the college of agriculture at Urbana or the state department of agriculture at Springfield for information.
2. Read the contract carefully. If there are questionable clauses, ask the salesman to come back, and have the contract checked by an attorney in the meantime.

by CARL F. MEES

The duties and responsibilities of the state universities and land grant colleges of every state are many and extend to large numbers of people.

The agricultural extension service of the college of agriculture is the off campus educational arm which serves farm and urban people in problems of an agricultural nature.

Last week the extension service personnel from every county in the state attended the annual fall conference for extension workers in an effort to reorientate themselves and get information which will make them of better service to the local people in each county.

THE PROGRAM was a many sided affair, including everything from professional and service training to ways and means of improving their work with people back home in their respective counties.

High-lights of the program included an address by Harry J. Reid, dean of college of agriculture, Purdue university. Addresses by Fred Colby, associate state leader 4-H club work, state of Tennessee on, "What 4-H camping should be like," and reports from the department heads of the college of agriculture on the recent and most up-to-date research and findings.

WITH RISING consumer incomes, demand for farm products continues at a high level. However, with large supplies of many commodities, grower prices so far this year have averaged 4 per cent below the first seven months of 1954.

Cement is usually in short supply in late summer and fall. Present indications are that it will be short again next year. If you have plans for a structure requiring concrete, complete your plans this winter and do the work next spring before the demand for cement exceeds the supply.

Your window air conditioner needs a cover to protect it in winter and to prevent cold air from leaking into the house. Also, be sure the unit is disconnected and all shutters or dampers are tightly closed.

NOW IS A GOOD time to check the fan bearings, motor bearings and motor on your automatic, oil-fired furnace. If you have a forced warm-air heating system, replacing the filter will in many cases tremendously improve its efficiency. Filters can be cleaned effectively once with a vacuum cleaner, but generally they should be replaced every year.

When there's a contest between two or more automobiles and a farm tractor for the highway right-of-way, the tractor operator almost always loses. If you're driving a tractor, drive on the shoulder when possible. If conditions won't permit, keep an eye on traffic both in front and behind. Even though you have a right to be on the highway, it's better to move off the road and avoid an accident than to fight for your rights and end up injured or dead.

DID YOU NOTICE the price spread between grade A large and current receipt eggs during this past fall? Now's the time to order your chicks for early delivery so that you'll have lots of large eggs early next fall when the price is right.

How much feed do you use to produce a dozen eggs? Why not make a rough calculation next month. Weigh a day's feed at the beginning, middle and end of the month. Find the average and divide by the average dozens of eggs per day, calculated from your daily egg chart. If feed costs you four cents a pound, did you make any money? Enough to pay your other costs? If not — why?

Is your biggest problem price of eggs or cost of production?

Warehouse Law

Under the new Illinois warehouse law, you can use warehouse receipts on stored grain as collateral for operating funds, says a University of Illinois farm economist.

Corn Accidents

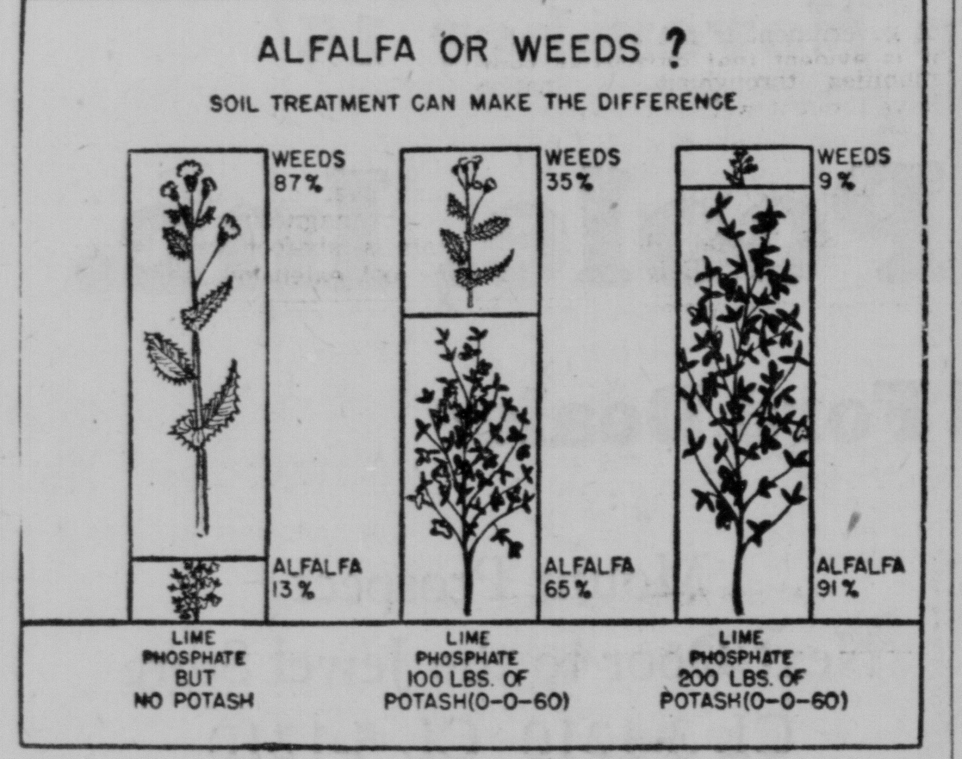
Records show that loose, poor-fitting clothing is often responsible for accidents around corn-harvesting machinery.

More Pigs

Good management and sanitation at farrowing time will help you get more pigs to market.

ALFALFA OR WEEDS ?

SOIL TREATMENT CAN MAKE THE DIFFERENCE



You must use plenty of potash on soils testing low in postassium if alfalfa is to hold its own against weeds and grass. If weeds and grass don't crowd out the alfalfa, it falls victim to winterkilling because of poor root growth in the fall and low root reserves.

The reason is that weeds and grasses are stronger feeders on soil potassium than alfalfa is. They will take what little available potassium there is in the soil right away from the alfalfa.

WEEDS and grasses are not only stronger feeders on soil potassium, but they are heavier feeders and will take up much larger amounts of potassium than alfalfa. Alfalfa is considered to be a heavy feeder compared with other crops. Each ton of alfalfa will use more than twice as much potassium as alfalfa will.

This stronger and heavier feeding power of bromegrass accounts for the fact that brome soon crowds alfalfa out of an alfalfa-brome mixture on soils that are short in potassium.

Big Demand For Veterinary Students Here

High school seniors seeking college training in a professional field where jobs are plentiful will find a big demand for veterinarians to help protect the nations public health and huge livestock industry, reports John H. Bicket county assistant farm adviser.

Dr. Robert Graham, dean of the University of Illinois college of veterinary medicine, says the college receives notices of about twice as many job openings as there are graduates to fill them.

Employment for veterinarians ranges from private practice to jobs in research, in the meat-processing industry and in all types of government health services. The "vigilance of veterinarians" is needed to keep meat production climbing, declares Dean Graham.

VETERINARY medicine is a 6-year course. Two years of preparatory work at any accredited college are required before enrollment in the four-year professional training in a veterinary college.

Graduate veterinarians must be able to diagnose, treat and control both animal and poultry diseases, as well as know about animal diseases that attack human beings.

The University of Illinois college of veterinary medicine gives preference to Illinois residents, but out-of-state students are accepted if there is room. A new veterinary science building finished in 1952 and a new large-animal clinic built this year have greatly improved professional training facilities.

A HIGH SCHOOL senior, pecially one with farm background and experience with animals, who is interested in becoming a "vet" should rank in the upper half of his class and have these credits: English 3 units; language 2 units; and algebra and geometry, 1 unit each.

You can get further information about veterinary medicine training by writing to Dean Robert Graham, college of veterinary

Should Take Care In Writing Agricultural Seed Contracts

Buying and selling agricultural seeds are important business transactions to many farmers. They are important from the standpoint of both economic and legal effect on the parties concerned.

Before a farmer buys certified seed, he generally reaches some kind of agreement on price, kind of seed and time of delivery. If the seed is to be delivered at a future date, a contract in writing is always advisable. If the purchase price exceeds $500, the agreement must be in writing to make it enforceable.

FOR MOST PART these simple contracts cause no trouble if the seed is adapted to the region and a reasonable price is paid for the certified seed. However, some legal difficulty is being experienced with a new kind of contract, usually called a "seed growers' agreement" or a "selling and commission agreement." Under this contract the grower buys certified seed from a company and agrees to produce certified seed on a certain number of acres.

The seed company agrees to produce certified seed on a certain number of acres. The seed company agrees to furnish the seed to the farmer (usually at a fancy price) and takes a first option to buy the certified seed he produces. In some cases the company contracts to "offer for sale" the grower's seed — and a few contracts actually agree to buy all of the certified seed that is produced — at a price above the market price.

ALL OF THESE contracts are probably legal and binding. The difficulty stems from these objectionable provisions in the grower contracts: (1) The seed company agrees only to "offer for sale" the grower's certified seed or to purchase the seed "if needed." In either case the company makes no guarantee either to sell the seed that is produced or to buy it. (2) The parts of the contract covering the seed company's responsibility to sell or buy the seed are vague and give the company a great deal of discretion. (3) The contract form commonly used by out-of-state companies is not adapted to Illinois law.

For example, a contract might state that the seed must be certified by the state of Illinois. The state of Illinois does not certify seed. This obligation has been delegated to the Illinois crop improvement association.

Grower contracts that bind the seed company to buy all of the certified seed grown are of course more favorable to the farmer. But such contracts place notice and certification obligations on the grower that he must follow or the company can break the contract. If a farmer has not grown certified seed before, it would be advisable for him to learn the requirements from the Illinois Crop Improvement Association at Urbana before signing a grower contract.

AT LEAST one out-of state seed company has failed to meet its contract. It is difficult for an Illinois farmer to take legal action against an out-of-state company. The best advice, therefore, is to do two things before signing a contract:

1. Make sure you are dealing with a reputable seed dealer. If necessary, write or call the college of agriculture at Urbana or the state department of agriculture at Springfield for information.
2. Read the contract carefully. If there are questionable clauses, ask the salesman to come back, and have the contract checked by an attorney in the meantime.

The duties and responsibilities of the state universities and land grant colleges of every state are many and extend to large numbers of people.

The agricultural extension service of the college of agriculture is the off campus educational arm which serves farm and urban people in problems of an agricultural nature.

Last week the extension service personnel from every county in the state attended the annual fall conference for extension workers in an effort to reorientate themselves and get information which will make them of better service to the local people in each county.

THE PROGRAM was a many sided affair, including everything from professional and service training to ways and means of improving their work with people back home in their respective counties.

High-lights of the program included an address by Harry J. Reid, dean of college of agriculture, Purdue university. Addresses by Fred Colby, associate state leader 4-H club work, state of Tennessee on, "What 4-H camping should be like," and reports from the department heads of the college of agriculture on the recent and most up-to-date research and findings.

WITH RISING consumer incomes, demand for farm products continues at a high level. However, with large supplies of many commodities, grower prices so far this year have averaged 4 per cent below the first seven months of 1954.

Cement is usually in short supply in late summer and fall. Present indications are that it will be short again next year. If you have plans for a structure requiring concrete, complete your plans this winter and do the work next spring before the demand for cement exceeds the supply.

Your window air conditioner needs a cover to protect it in winter and to prevent cold air from leaking into the house. Also, be sure the unit is disconnected and all shutters or dampers are tightly closed.

NOW IS A GOOD time to check the fan bearings, motor bearings and motor on your automatic, oil-fired furnace. If you have a forced warm-air heating system, replacing the filter will in many cases tremendously improve its efficiency. Filters can be cleaned effectively once with a vacuum cleaner, but generally they should be replaced every year.

When there's a contest between two or more automobiles and a farm tractor for the highway right-of-way, the tractor operator almost always loses. If you're driving a tractor, drive on the shoulder when possible. If conditions won't permit, keep an eye on traffic both in front and behind. Even though you have a right to be on the highway, it's better to move off the road and avoid an accident than to fight for your rights and end up injured or dead.

DID YOU NOTICE the price spread between grade A large and current receipt eggs during this past fall? Now's the time to order your chicks for early delivery so that you'll have lots of large eggs early next fall when the price is right.

How much feed do you use to produce a dozen eggs? Why not make a rough calculation next month. Weigh a day's feed at the beginning, middle and end of the month. Find the average and divide by the average dozens of eggs per day, calculated from your daily egg chart. If feed costs you four cents a pound, did you make any money? Enough to pay your other costs? If not — why?

Is your biggest problem price of eggs or cost of production?

Warehouse Law

Under the new Illinois warehouse law, you can use warehouse receipts on stored grain as collateral for operating funds, says a University of Illinois farm economist.

Corn Accidents

More Pigs

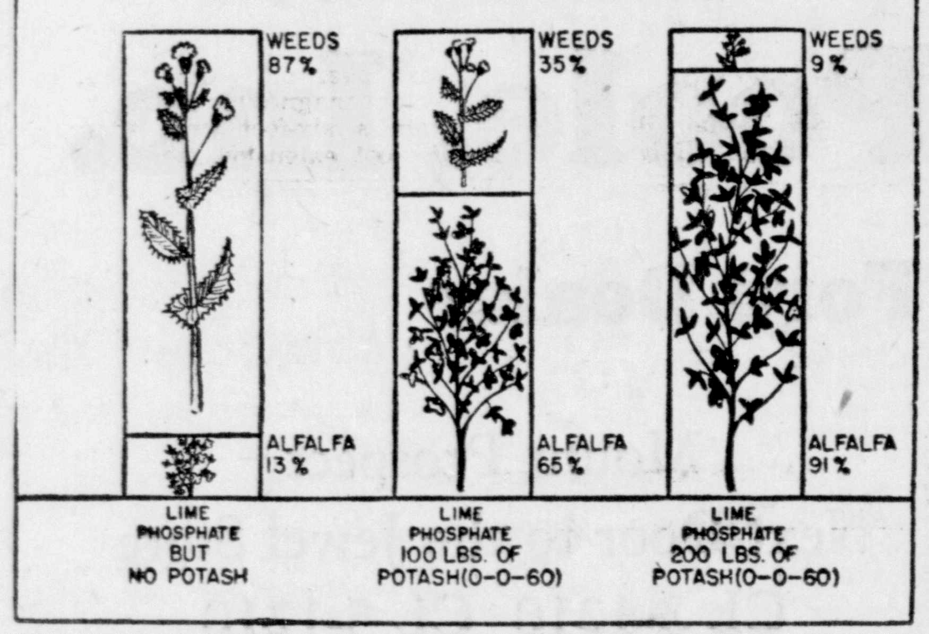
SOIL TREATMENT CAN MAKE THE DIFFERENCE



You must use plenty of potash on soils testing low in postassium if alfalfa is to hold its own against weeds and grass. If weeds and grass don't crowd out the alfalfa, it falls victim to winterkilling because of poor root growth in the fall and low root reserves.

The reason is that weeds and grasses are stronger feeders on soil potassium than alfalfa is. They will take what little available potassium there is in the soil right away from the alfalfa.

WEEDS and grasses are not only stronger feeders on soil potassium, but they are heavier feeders and will take up much larger amounts of potassium than alfalfa. Alfalfa is considered to be a heavy feeder compared with other crops. Each ton of alfalfa will use more than twice as much potassium as alfalfa will.

This stronger and heavier feeding power of bromegrass accounts for the fact that brome soon crowds alfalfa out of an alfalfa-brome mixture on soils that are short in potassium.

Big Demand For Veterinary Students Here

High school seniors seeking college training in a professional field where jobs are plentiful will find a big demand for veterinarians to help protect the nations public health and huge livestock industry, reports John H. Bicket county assistant farm adviser.

Dr. Robert Graham, dean of the University of Illinois college of veterinary medicine, says the college receives notices of about twice as many job openings as there are graduates to fill them.

Employment for veterinarians ranges from private practice to jobs in research, in the meat-processing industry and in all types of government health services. The "vigilance of veterinarians" is needed to keep meat production climbing, declares Dean Graham.

VETERINARY medicine is a 6-year course. Two years of preparatory work at any accredited college are required before enrollment in the four-year professional training in a veterinary college.

Graduate veterinarians must be able to diagnose, treat and control both animal and poultry diseases, as well as know about animal diseases that attack human beings.

The University of Illinois college of veterinary medicine gives preference to Illinois residents, but out-of-state students are accepted if there is room. A new veterinary science building finished in 1952 and a new large-animal clinic built this year have greatly improved professional training facilities.

A HIGH SCHOOL senior, especially one with farm background and experience with animals, who is interested in becoming a "vet" should rank in the upper half of his class and have these credits: English 3 units; language 2 units; and algebra and geometry, 1 unit each.

You can get further information about veterinary medicine training by writing to Dean Robert Graham, college of veterinary
